

HOME OF YOUR OWN IS A HOME INDEED
We are more and more persuaded that a young man's first investment should be a home.

FOR HOMES, SEE JOHN LINLEY AT FARMER & LINLEY'S

For This Reason—

We would like to talk to the young men of Anderson about the $10.00 Difference that pays for a home in North Anderson.

And By the Way

North Anderson never looked prettier than it does now.

REGRETS DEPARTURE OF MR. C. H. BLEICH

Hopkinsville, Ky., Paper Writes About Young Men Here Recently to, Lease Theatre.

The Hopkinsville News Era, the leading newspaper in Hopkinsville, Ky., has the following to say of Messrs. C. H. Bleich and Odie Davis, the gentlemen who were here recently to lease "The Anderson." C. H. Bleich and Odie Davis returned last night from Anderson, S. C., where they closed a deal for a five-year lease of an elegant $65,000 theatre building now in course of construction and where they will present the best shows on tour in this country. Mr. Bleich is to be manager of the theatre which is to be completed by that date. Until then Mr. Bleich will remain here and continue to act as secretary of the Hopkinsville Business Men's association. Mr. Davis is only interested in a financial way with Mr. Bleich in the venture and he will remain in Hopkinsville.

Both men are enthusiastic over the possibilities of Anderson, which is a hustling town of 30,000 people situated in the heart of the cotton producing district and the wonderfully developed water power of that section by which electricity is furnished over a wide area. The town has a number of cotton mills, all of which are now working extra shifts, and conditions generally are prosperous. The theatre is the only one in the town, and there are a number of other towns in the region which have no playhouse.

The location is just right to be included in the circuit of the highest class shows and already Mr. Bleich

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS
Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Former Spartanburg Editor Here Yesterday.
Mr. Chas. H. Henry, former editor of The Spartanburg Journal, and one of the ablest newspaper men in the state, was in the city a while yesterday afternoon on a business trip. Mr. Henry stated to a reporter for The Intelligencer that he would not have known Anderson had he been dropped down here. He was surprised at the wonderful growth of the city during 22 years since he was here. He recalled many of the old structures he had seen when a visitor to this city at the time, but could not locate many of them.

Will Move to New Location.
B. Hillman, who has been located on East Whitner street for the past fourteen years running a clothing store, will move to one of the new stores on South Main street Monday of next week. Mr. Hillman is having his new place of business splendidly fitted up for the clothing business in which he is engaged. He has been at his present location for a year, but has been at other stores on East Whitner street for the time he has been in business here.

Miss Yeargin to Teach at Cope.
Mr. A. T. Yeargin, a prosperous farmer of Iva was in the city yesterday, having come to bring his daughter, Miss May, who was leaving for Cope, where she goes to take charge of a school there. She will be joined at Central by her cousin, Miss Conyers Allen, who will be assistant to Miss Yeargin in the school. They will reach Cope in time for the school to open Monday.

We Can Now Drink Sweetened Coffee.
It will be gratifying to the housewife to learn that the price of sugar has started back to a normal price again. One of the leading grocers in the city announced yesterday that sugar which was quoted a few weeks ago at $7.65 delivered at Anderson, is now quoted at $5.90, with prospects of a still further decline.

Anderson Impresses Tobacco Salesman.
Mr. Wm. L. Nelson, representing Arthur Well of Richmond, Va., distributor of the celebrated "Paragone" cigar, was in the city yesterday and Wednesday, at which time he placed this justly celebrated cigar with the Red Cross Pharmacy, Olympia Candy Co., Crayton Pharmacy, Anderson Cash Grocery, Jenkins Pharmacy, Orr Drug Co., Chiquola Hotel, Lewis Drug Co., Pruitt & Co., and the Owl Drug Co.

Some Echoes of 101 Ranch Day.
There are several persons in Anderson who wish now that the well known 101 Ranch had never come to the city. Among those who are poorer for this visit are Miss Maggie Wright, who is boarding at the home of Mr. H. Ballentine, and Mrs. Ballentine. Miss Wright had $28 and Mrs. Ballentine about $3 which they left at the house while everyone went to see the parade Tuesday morning. On their return this money could not be found. It was later discovered that someone had entered the house, possibly using a false key, and had taken the money. The thief evidently did not care for anything but money as there were several articles of value which were not molested. It is also reported that a stray man was seen in some of the other houses of this neighborhood, and men seen stated that he was trying to locate a cow he understood was to rent in the neighborhood.

Anderson Leads Them All.
Mr. W. H. Wooten, 2nd vice president of the Maryland Life Insurance Company of Baltimore, Md., spent yesterday in the city with D. P. Sloan & Son, Inc., general agents. Mr. Wooten remarked while here that he was surprised to see such wonderful improvements going on in Anderson. He visits field men in numerous Southern Cities, and he did not hesitate to say that Anderson is leading them all in permanent improvements.

It was Belton Which Won Game.
Attention was called to the fact that in the report of the game of basketball which was played Wednesday afternoon by teams representing the Belton High School and the Anderson High School, that the winners of this game was Belton and not Anderson as stated. The score was 19 to 7 in favor of the Anderson's suburban village. There is no doubt that those people over there read The Intelligencer for fine services of one person was required yesterday to answer the phone. The Intelligencer is glad to add this laurel to the Belton team—they deserve it—they beat an Anderson team of girls at basket ball or anything else!

Hand Burned Saving Furniture.
Mr. H. B. Thompson, of the Sullivan Hardware Co., had one of his hands painfully burned yesterday while attempting to remove some furniture from a tenant house on his plantation about four miles north of the city. Mr. Thompson was in the country in his automobile and while passing his plantation discovered the house on fire, and all the negroes being in the field picking cotton, he rushed into the house and grabbed a set of bedspings that were red hot. There was no one present to tell him to turn loose and he is now suffering from a very severe burn.

Girls Canning Clubs Awarded First Prize.
Special to The Intelligencer. COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 29.—The exhibit sent by the girls canning clubs of Barnwell county to the State fair was today awarded first prize by the judges. The prize is $100. Mrs. Dora Dea Walker is the county agent. Chester county was awarded second prize, $50. Miss Joe Yarborough, agent; Smith agent; Richard, fourth prize, $10. Miss Dorothy Napier agent. The judges making the awards were: Miss Mary E. Creswell, Washington, in charge of the Tomato Club work in the South; Miss Grace Huffington, domestic science department of Winthrop college and C. F. Niven, of the Clemson College faculty. The judges have been working for several days on the exhibits.

Taxes Not Coming In Very Fast.
A glance at the county treasurer's books shows that there are not nearly so many receipts being issued this year as last, although there are more than would ordinarily be expected. Up to date there have been 108 receipts issued since the books opened for the payment of taxes this year, the total amount turned over being $1,441.72. For the same period last year there had been 243 receipts issued and a total collected of $2,925.17.

Enjoying His First Rest.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—President Wilson now is enjoying practically the first rest he has had since entering the White House. Cabinet meetings have been postponed, the semi-weekly conferences with the Washington correspondents have been called off until after the election and the president is seeing only one or two callers a day.

Russian Youth Makes Anderson His Town.
Nathan Matzel, a nephew of B. Hillman, one of Anderson's well known merchants and business men, has just arrived from Russia and has decided to call Anderson "My Town." He arrived in New York about three months ago, the day after Russia announced her intention to declare war. Mr. Matzel is a native of North Russia, and is a son of Mr. Hillman's sister. He is a young man, and is fast learning to speak the language of Andersonians.

Services at A. R. P. Church.
Those who are familiar with the ability of Rev. J. M. Kennedy, of Ora, will be pleased to learn that he will preach at the A. R. P. church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to be present at this service, and doubtless a large audience will greet the speaker.

Turkey Dinner Was Success.
The turkey dinner served yesterday in the vacant store room on East Benson street by the ladies of the Wesley Philathea class of the St. Johns Methodist church was quite a success. The place was packed during the dinner hour and everyone expressed themselves as being delighted with the splendid dinner served. A handsome sum was realized by the class as a result of their industry and thrift.

EDUCATIONAL DAY AT PEIDMONT FAIR
PROMISES TO ECLIPSE FIRST TWO DAYS
6,000 ARE EXPECTED
Parade of Perhaps 3,000 School Children at 10 O'clock This Morning.

Stimulating Business
Instead of sitting idle, holding their hands, and crying about the supposed "Hard Times," the Columbia Tailors of this city, put on a Sale last Saturday, and which is yet running, in which they stimulated the purchase of tailored clothes to quite an extent. In their Opening Announcement, they gave as their reason for holding this sale, that they had anticipated a Big Fall business, and had bought extra heavily of piece goods, trimmings, etc.; but in view of the unsettled conditions, they had decided to cut the price of their Suits and Overcoats to a price of Ten Dollars and ninety-eight cents for choice of values up to Twenty-five Dollars, believing that the many, many new friends and patrons that they would make would repay them for the losses they would suffer by reason of the great reduction in price, which they were offering.

Special to The Intelligencer. GREENWOOD, Oct. 29.—Friday, educational day, at the Piedmont fair promises to eclipse the first two days not only in point of attendance, but also in interest. It will be given over to the schools and colleges of the county and Piedmont section and the indications are that unprecedented crowds will be present. Not less than 6,000 people are expected as a result of the wide advertising that has been given the event in the surrounding counties. Beginning at 11 o'clock Friday morning there will be a parade of schools and colleges. The procession will be led by the 175 cadets of the Bailey Military Institute followed by the county schools, the children of the Connie Maxwell orphanage, the city schools and the students of Lawler college. Last year 2,500 children and students were in this parade. This year it is believed that the number will easily reach 3,000. Another interesting event of the day will be the visit of 100 students from the Woman's College at Due West. They will arrive in a special of the Piedmont and Northern at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be the special guests of the Bailey Military Institute and Rush Bros' Co., one of the leading dry goods establishments of the city. The visitors will be served dinner at the institute and during their stay in the city the second floor of the Rush Bros. company will be at their disposal. It is also probable that they will take part in the school and college parade. The aeroplane flights by Aviator Joseph Richter in a military biplane said to be similar to the machines used by the warring nations in Europe, have been chief attractions at the fair since the opening day. He makes two ascensions daily, rising at the Bailey Military Institute and circling the city several times at a height of 1,500 feet. This afternoon while the trotting races were in progress he performed several air-diving stunts and views with the fleet-footed animals in holding the attention of the large crowd. Tomorrow Mr. Richter will make a flight immediately after the school parade ends and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock he will make his last ascension. The crowd today was even larger than the officials expected, although the second day has been one of the big days at previous fairs. The extensiveness of this fair, especially in the exhibits of live stock, has been spread abroad and many more visitors from neighboring counties were in the city today than on Wednesday. The large grandstand was filled during the races this afternoon, when Mr. W. H. Emerson's now famous pacer, born and bred at Hodges, walked away with first money. The second prize went to a local horse owned by Mr. W. C. Hagood and the third to Mr. Ferguson of Abbeville. In the various classes Mr. J. J. Fretwell of Anderson won several premiums. Other features of educational day will be a football game between the teams of the Bailey Military Institute and Wofford fitting school on the fair grounds at 12 o'clock. These two teams are about evenly matched with slight odds on the local eleven. Wofford defeated Anderson 60 to 0 while Wofford won over the Anderson boys 7 to 0. Aviator Richter will make his first flight of the day while this football contest is in progress. There will be more displays of fine horse flesh Friday morning and afternoon and motorcycle races as a closing feature of the program. On account of the convenient schedule on the Piedmont and Northern a large number of visitors from Due West, Donalds, Honea Path, Belton and Anderson are expected tomorrow.

PETROGZAD, Oct. 29.—Reports from Berlin that an alliance exists between Turkey and Persia were denied today by the Persian minister. The report originated, he said, from a purely personal visit by a Persian statesman to Constantinople.
