Harvard Defeats Michigan in Game Almost Devoid of Spectacular Play.

(By Associated Press.) CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 31.—Harvard defeated Michigan 7 to 0 here today in a football game almost devoid of spectacular play and confined to conservative attack and defense.

Harvard showed to better advantage than the westerners, displaying stronger defence and striking with savage rapidity and skill in the second period when the solitary score of the game was made.

Michigan attempted only one forward pass and this was intercepted. As if further to upset the ante-game forecasts, the Crimson used four, of which three were successfully carried through.

Michigan used a rushing line of attack. The campaign worked well between the 20-yard lines but it lacked the scoring punch once the team had carried the ball within the shadow of the Crimson goal.

Harvard forced a touchdown and the resultant goal in the second period. Obtaining the ball at mid-field on a Michigan punt, Harvard opened the scoring advance with a series of line plunges and end runs, piercing the Wolverine's line for consistent gains.
