Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Broken Leg Is Not to Interfere

Anderson baseball fans will learn with pleasure that one of the local bugs is in receipt of a letter from "Red" Smith, one time the third baseman on the Anderson team of the Carolina league but now a member of the Boston world's championship team, in which the husky third baseman advises that the hurt he sustained just before the beginning of the world's series this year, when he broke his right leg, will not interfere with his playing next year. For a time it was feared that the member might become stiffened and therefore interfere with his ever playing the game again but Smith advises that X-ray photographs have been taken of the injured leg and that no permanent injury will result. This will be good news to Anderson fans as there was never a more popular player in Anderson than "Red" Smith.

Tired Out By His Arduous Labors

J. W. Fothrock, county agricultural agent for Anderson, returned to the city Saturday night from Columbia and had to take to his bed as a result of the strenuous week he put through while the State fair was going on. Mr. Fothrock had complete charge of the Anderson county exhibit and without assistance of any kind he contrived to fix up a splendid exhibit for this county. People from all parts of the State saw and admired it and complimented Mr. Fothrock upon what he had been able to accomplish. The county agent says that he is immensely pleased with the showing Anderson made.

Greenville Will Get Good Shows

Advertising men employed by the Grand Opera house of Greenville came to Anderson yesterday to advertise two attractions to appear the latter part of the week in Greenville, these being "Peg O' My Heart" and "Little Boy Blue," both of them ranking well up with the best attractions touring the South this season. It is probable that a number of Anderson people will make the trip to see both these shows and there is quite a demand already for seats.

Anderson Women Go to Newberry

A number of Anderson women are planning to go to Newberry on November 10 to attend the Woman's Missionary Union of South Carolina, an auxiliary of the Baptist church. This body will convene on the 10th and will be in session through the 13th, at which time prominent women church workers from all parts of the State will be in attendance to deliver addresses. The sessions of the body will be held in the Newberry court house.

Columbia Man Visiting Here

John M. Banks of Columbia, assistant secretary of the South Carolina Fair association, is in Anderson for a visit to his father, Prof. A. R. Banks. He says that the attendance at the fair this year was small except on Thursday, when a good crowd was present. According to Mr. Banks the livestock and poultry exhibits were fine and the agricultural exhibit was pronounced by competent judges to be the best in the South. This was largely due to the untiring efforts of Clemson college and Winthrop college.

Editor Wants Clerk's Job

George E. Moore of Honea Path editor of the Honea Path Chronicle was in Anderson yesterday on business. Mr. Moore, who is one of the best known citizens in Anderson county, is after the job of journal clerk of the senate and bids fair to land the job, according to friends of his who are in a position to know. The selection of Mr. Moore for this important position would meet with the approval of the people of Anderson county and of the Piedmont section.

Medical Society Meets Tomorrow

The regular monthly meeting of the Anderson County Medical society will take place tomorrow at noon in the rooms of the Anderson chamber of commerce. As announced some days ago in the columns of the Intelligencer, this meeting will be of more than ordinary interest because of the fact that the papers to be read before the district medical convention will be submitted to the county convention at this session. It is hoped that every member of the association may be present.

Gone North to Buy More Goods

G. H. Bailes of the Bee Hive left Anderson Sunday for New York where he goes to buy additional fall and winter goods for his big store in this city. He expects to buy a large stock while on this trip and evidently does not believe that "hard times" will have much effect on his Anderson business, since this is his second trip of the year. Tom Bailes and Miss Athelene Bailes drove Mr. Bailes in an automobile to Greenville and returned Sunday night.

Mr. Jones Has Left Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Jones, who have been making their home in this city for some time, left yesterday for Greenville where Mr. Jones has accepted a position with Parley and Askin. While in Anderson Mr. Jones was manager of the United States Woolen Mills company and made a number of friends here. They will regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

Anderson About to Lose Reputation

For a number of Sundays it seemed that the Lord's day could not pass in Anderson without a negro killing in some section of the county. Every Sunday brought a homicide and sometimes there were two or three killings on the same day but for the last two Sundays things have been very quiet indeed in all parts of the county and it is hoped that the killing record is about to be shattered. However, the officers say that this is probably the calm before the storm and that when the negro do get started again it will be worse than before.

Stores Were Closed Sunday

While they were all doing a rushing business in the soft drink, cigar and cigarette business last Sunday the officers swooped down upon the stores which are just outside the city limit and closed all the establishments. Just why this action was taken is not known but the places barred the doors and remained closed throughout the day.

Formal Opening For Three Days

Announcement has been made that the Patterson Music company will hold a formal opening for three days this week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The establishment on Benson street will be put in readiness for the place and some of the latest and most modern instruments will be put on exhibition for the public to see, admire and play. It is probable that large crowds will visit the place on each of the three days.

County Commissioners To Hold Session Today

The Anderson County Commissioners will convene this morning for the regular monthly meeting. It had been thought that this meeting might be postponed because of the fact that today is election day but no announcement has been made to that effect. County officials said yesterday that nothing out of the ordinary would come before the board today for attention.

Informal Dance At Elks Home

Tomorrow evening will be a very pleasant event for the members of the Anderson lodge of Elks and their friends. On this occasion the lodge will give an informal dance, to which all Elks and their lady friends are invited. There will be no invitation from start to finish. A very pleasant evening is being anticipated.

Former Resident Here Last Night

T. K. Vassy, a member of the firm of Dobson and Vassy, attorneys at law of Gaffney, spent last night in Anderson. Mr. Vassy is attending court at Walhalla and came over to Anderson on a short visit to friends. He was at one time principal of one of the Anderson public schools in Anderson and is well known here. He was very warmly welcomed.

Mr. Sullivan Is Critically Ill

Messages were received in Anderson from Asheville, N. C., to the effect that Nim B. Sullivan was critically ill in that city and that grave fears are entertained for him by attending physicians. Immediately upon receipt of the telegram Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sullivan, Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, and Jake W. Sullivan left for Asheville to be at his bedside. Anderson people will all regret to hear that Mr. Sullivan's condition is so very serious.

Cotton

Burned While on The C. & W. C. Railroad Will Be Disposed of By Sale Today.

One of the representatives of the Charleston and Western Carolina arrived in Anderson yesterday afternoon to take charge of the 20 bales of cotton, slightly burned while on a train en route to this city. The cotton was coming to Anderson to be stored in the Standard Warehouse when it became ignited from a spark. The engineer rushed his train into the station before any great amount of damage was done.

When the adjuster arrived in Anderson yesterday it was found that several details were lacking in connection with the loss, and accordingly nothing will be done about the matter until today. The cotton will either be sold to local buyers or will be shipped back to Augusta, Ga. and sold there.

Parlor Cars

And Pullman Cars to Be Taken Off P. & N. Road Sunday, Says Rumor Heard Here.

According to a report reaching Anderson Sunday from an unofficial source, the Piedmont and Northern line railroad will discontinue its chair car service between Anderson and Spartanburg and Spartanburg and Greenwood and its Pullman sleeping car service between Spartanburg and Atlanta, on next Sunday.

Whether or not the report is true cannot be verified but it is said that the electric road has been losing money steadily on these cars ever since they were put on and that it will not be practicable to operate them until the business depression passes.

The Pullman sleeper between Spartanburg and Greenwood was the first thing of its kind attempted by the P. and N. and later the handsome "Catawba" and "Saluda" chair cars were built by the P. and N. for local use.

If there is any truth in the report Anderson people will regret it, although they believe that conditions will soon be so improved that the cars can again be put into use. All railroads over the country are making reductions in their train service, cutting out some of the "flourish" and it is not hard to see why the P. and N. has been forced to contemplate such a step.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men who value their even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50c bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.
