SINGING CONVENTION HELD LAST SESSION

MET HERE WITH A LARGE ATTENDANCE

BAPTIST CHURCH

Morning And Afternoon Sessions Were Full of Interest and Close of Year Was Successful.

The Oakwood Singing convention of Anderson closed a very successful year when it held the final meeting for 1914 in this city Sunday. The convention assembled with the Second Baptist church of Anderson and the congregation of that church did everything possible to make the closing session the most successful that the members of the association ever experienced.

THE MORNING SESSION

Scripture lesson, 14th Psalm, following which the convention joined Rev. E. N. Sanders in prayer.

The opening song was "O, How I Love Jesus," led by W. P. Stevenson, president of the convention.

The leaders for the morning were: W. W. Hale of Anderson, W. F. Bannister of Starr, J. D. Miller of Williamston, C. E. Smith of Pelzer, George Holland of Anderson, W. O. McKinley of Anderson, Harrison Ramsey of Georgia, I. H. Stancil of Anderson.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION

The dinner hour was a very enjoyable part of the day and the convention reassembled at 2:30 o'clock with an attendance fully as large as in the morning.

The first business transacted during the afternoon was the election of officers and this resulted in the following being chosen: W. P. Stevenson of Anderson, president; W. W. Hale of Anderson, vice president; R. W. Lee of Anderson, secretary and treasurer.

During the afternoon a recess was taken and a collection taken up for the orphanage work in this State. The collection netted $5.66.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP

"Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. J. B. Cook, Indiana, Pa. "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing spells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by all dealers.

BEAUTIFUL CHURCH DEDICATED SUNDAY

A. R. P. PRESBYTERY HAS CLOSED SESSION

A NEW MODERATOR

Meeting Held in Anderson Has Adjourned to Meet Next in April With Abbeville Church.

The Presbytery of South Carolina of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church came to a close in Anderson last evening at 6 o'clock with the election of Rev. W. A. Kennedy as moderator. This was the last important action of the body and Presbytery adjourned shortly after the selection had been made.

One important matter attended to yesterday was that of choosing the next place of meeting. An invitation was extended from the Long Cane church of Abbeville county and was unanimously accepted. The next meeting will therefore take place there in April.

One very interesting feature of yesterday's exercises was that an entire congregation from the Presbyterian church of Gough, Ga., was received into the Associate Reformed church. This important proceeding took place yesterday.

Another addition to the A. R. P. ranks was that of Rev. John Young of Philadelphia, who comes from the United Presbyterian church to the Associate Reformed church. Rev. Young is a brother of Dr. John R. Young of Anderson.

Three trial discourses were heard yesterday, delivered by three of the Theological seminary students from Due West. These young men were R. D. Byrd, E. E. Kidd and E. F. Rogers. They pleased the congregation yesterday very much and all showed great promise. They will be licensed next spring.

The dedicatory service, held Sunday when the pretty new church was formally consecrated to the work of the Lord, has long been looked forward to by the congregation. No A. R. P. church may be dedicated until it has been paid for and therefore the appreciation of this day by the local congregation was unbounded.

Rev. R. A. Lummis of Richburg, a former pastor of the church, preached the sermon and it was a splendid effort. He told his hearers of the trials and vicissitudes experienced by the church and rejoiced with them that they had surmounted every obstacle.

The dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. C. M. Boyd, a man esteemed and loved by all Anderson people, and he delivered the prayer in a very touching manner.

The following complete program was carried out:
Psalm 100 L. M.
Invocation.
Psalm, 102, 7s.
Scripture reading.
Prayer.
Psalm 132, 8s and 7s.
Offering and solo.

Then came the dedicatory sermon by Rev. Mr. Lummis followed by the dedicatory prayer by Rev. M. Boyd.
Psalm 117, 8s and 7s.
Benediction.

Fair and Moderate Election Day Forecast

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Fair skies and moderate temperatures over the entire country except five lake States and portions of Montana and Texas was the election day weather forecast announced tonight by government observers. In western Texas unsettled conditions with occasional rains were indicated. In most of the country conditions "just right for getting out the vote" were promised. Even in the unlucky States the forecaster held out a ray of hope.

Early in the evening ideal weather for election was indicated and that was confirmed as messages trickled in telling of general conditions throughout the country.

It Takes Trouble To Make Real Artists

(By Associated Press.)

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—Twenty principals and seventy-five members of the chorus of the Metropolitan Opera company arrived from the European war zone by way of Naples on the steamer Canope tonight. High salaried singers, used to traveling in luxury, told of seemingly endless journeys in third class railroad cars, freight cars, farmers' carts and afoot in their efforts to escape from the trouble area.

MAKRET REPORT

New York Cotton

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Advices from the south today indicated continued firmness in the spot cotton situation. Some local spot dealers claimed Texas was offering cotton more freely at the advance and that eastern mills were holding off, but the markets as officially quoted were from 1-8 to 1-16 in most instances and the improvement in the export situation was reflected in the largest clearances for any one day since the beginning of the war.

Liverpool cables reported that beginning with tomorrow the price of January-February contracts there would be reduced to 4.25d, which at the difference of 150 points would mean about 7 cents for December contracts in the local market. Otherwise, there were no fresh developments with reference to the liquidation of the straddle interest or reopening of the market and so far as could be learned members of the exchange here still oppose liquidating December below the eight-cent level, particularly in view of higher prices in the south. Port receipts today 44,536 bales. Exports 47,433. Interior receipts 60,747. United States port stocks 686,820.

Cotton Seed Oil

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Cotton seed oil was held under liquidation and hedge pressure, the result of declining crude markets, slow consuming demand and withdrawal of bull support. Final prices were 7 to 19 points net lower.

The market closed steady. Spot 5.00a5.15; November 5.01a5.03; December 5.07a5.08; January 5.10a5.17; February 5.21a5.28; March 5.38a5.39; April 5.42a5.48; May 5.61a5.62; June 5.67a5.77.

Total sales 14,600.

New Orleans Cotton

(By Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—New high levels for the present upward movement were established in the cotton market today on both spots and future contracts. January sold up to 7.55 and spots were advanced 9-16, middling being quoted at 7 1-16. The demand was good in both departments, but trading was hampered by the firmness of sellers.

Bullish sentiment was encouraged by the advances in interior spot markets and by the sales of 20,014 bales on the spot reported by Dallas. Official notification from Liverpool that a meeting of members of the exchange there had been called for November 10 to arrange for the reopening of future business caused much favorable comment. The trade expects the future rings to resume business on November 16.

Spot cotton firm. Sales on the spot 1,180 bales; to arrive 1,565.

Dry Goods

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Cotton goods were steady with trading in brown and gray goods more active. Yarns ruled fairly steady. Raw silk was firmer. Carpets priced for next season were on a lower basis.

Chicago Grain

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Immense export sales, possibly the largest ever known, gave wheat today an upward swing after a brief down turn at the start. Prices closed firm, 5-8 to 7-8 above Saturday night. Other leading staples too, scored a net advance—corn 1-4a3-8 to 1-2, oats 3-8 to 3-8a1-2, and provisions 7-1-2 to 20.

Grain and provisions closed:
Wheat, December 1.16 1-8; May 1.22 5-8.
Corn, December 69 1-8; May 71 5-8.
Oats, December 49 1-4; May 53 1-8.
Cash grain:
Wheat, No. 2 red, 1.13a1.14 3-4; No. 2 hard, 1.12a1.14 3-4.
Corn, No. 2 yellow, 75a1-2.
Oats, standard, 48 1-4a1-2.

Live Stock

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Hogs uneven. Closed steady at Saturday's average. Bulk 7.30a7.50; light 7.05a7.55; mixed 7.10a7.65; heavy 7.10a7.65; rough 7.10a7.25; pigs 50 c lower at 44a50.

Cattle higher. No beefs, steers or stockers selling, quarantine in force. Cows and heifers 3.80a3.40; calves 7a10.25.
Sheep higher. Sheep 4.54a6.35; yearlings 6.25a7; lambs 6.50a8.50.

Liverpool Cotton

(By Associated Press.)

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 2.—Cotton, spot, large business and steady; American middling fair 5.80; good middling 5.05; middling 4.80; low middling 4.73; good ordinary 3.81; ordinary 3.97. Sales 8,500 bales, including 6,500 American on the basis of 4.80 for middling. No imports.

TREASURER MADE OFF WITH LODGE FUNDS

RED MEN HAD AN OFFICER ARRESTED

MANY WERE TRIED

Magistrate Broadwell Had His Hands Full Yesterday and Every Defendant Was White Man.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days Magistrate Broadwell has put in since he assumed office and it is worthy of note that every one of the defendants arraigned in his court was a white man. Not a single negro was tried and through the day the magistrate was hearing cases.

One of the most interesting cases heard in the magistrate's court yesterday was that of J. P. Cobb, charged with a breach of trust with fraudulent intent. Cobb was arrested at the instigation of a committee of Red Men, consisting of F. A. Gambrel and V. B. Cheshire, charged with appropriating certain moneys belonging to the local tribe of Red Men.

It is alleged that in October, 1913, while he was an officer of Tecumseh lodge of Tribe E of the Improved Order of Red Men, and known as the Keeper of Wamun or treasurer Cobb did make away with funds aggregating $127.36 and that the lodge has never secured any part of this money. Shortly after the money disappeared Cobb left this section and it is said that he has been living in the West since that time. He was recently captured and brought back here and hearing before the magistrate. Mr. Broadwell bound the defendant over to await trial at the next term of the court of general sessions and took bond in the sum of $300.

Another interesting case tried in Mr. Broadwell's court yesterday was that of G. L. Trench, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill upon the person of W. M. Welborn, and pointing a gun at the same Welborn. This affair took place in the Carswell Institute section of the county some days ago. The magistrate bound the defendant over to await trial in circuit court and Trench was released on bond.

J. H. Alewine, when arraigned upon a charge of carrying concealed weapons, said that his wife had loaned the pistol to another party and that he was merely returning it to her when the officers arrested him. He was fined $20 and paid.

Garrison Thompson, after hearing himself arraigned before the magistrate on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, paid the sum of $10 for having engaged in that pleasure.

Pearl Wood, a woman well known around Anderson, was brought into court for the third or fourth time and all other efforts having proved fruitless, the magistrate this time sent her to the county farm for a stay of 30 days.

W. M. Welborn, who was a prosecutor in one of the cases heard yesterday, will be the prosecuted on Wednesday, November 4, when he faces a charge of having assaulted Feecy Barnes, the 11-year-old son of J. J. Barnes. He gave bond yesterday for his appearance in Magistrate Broadwell's court next Wednesday. Mr. Welborn alleges that he entered a barn on the plantation owned by Mr. Barnes, in search of his own boy and thought when he seized Feecy Barnes that he had one of his own young hopefuls. He proceeded to give the boy a larruping and out of this incident arose the charge of assault.

Magistrate Broadwell has a number of cases in which negroes are the defendants to come up in his court today.

United States Senator Collapsed on Stage

(By Associated Press.)

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 2.—United States Senator Nathan Goff, aged 71, collapsed on the stage of a theatre here tonight while making his closing speech in the State campaign. Physicians said his condition was not serious. The aged Senator against the advice of his physician had made a speaking tour in the interest of the Republican State and Congressional ticket.

Detained Steamer Has Been Released

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Standard Oil Steamer Platania, detained at Stornoway, Scotland, by British authorities, has been released and has proceeded to Copenhagen. The British embassy today notified the state department that this had been done after the Danish government had given assurances that the steamer's cargo of illuminating oil would not be re-exported to Germany.

A Million People Affected

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Official dispatches from the American legation at Peking report that the flood in the Hwai river district in China is spreading and that a million people are affected. No details were given.

The trouble with winning a person by battery is that you have to keep at it so continually that he soon gets suspicious.

MYERS IS CONVICTED ON FIRST CHARGES

JURY TWICE FOUND HIM GUILTY

DERRICK IS FREE

Proprietor of Dixie Club, After Working Few Hours, Paid $700 and Was Released.

More interest is evident in and around the city of Anderson in the liquor trials now in progress here than over any similar affairs in months gone by. The public eagerly awaited details of the trial of J. E. Derrick and fully as much interest is being manifested in the trial of Lewis Myers, proprietor of the Owls Club.

One of the most interesting things to occur yesterday was in connection with the Derrick case. When the city street gang went out yesterday morning Derrick went with it and was arrested at work on North Main street, which the city officials have come to consider a criticism. The officials say that this was done without their knowledge and they had no intention of putting him there and at noon Mayor Godfrey called Derrick into his office and made him a proposition still more lenient than was the fine of $1,000. This Derrick accepted and was shortly after released from custody. He paid $500 in cash and gave a note for $200, due on January 1. Thus he earned $300 by working for one morning on the streets of the city.

Myers was arraigned yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with G. Cullen Sullivan appearing for the city and A. H. Dagnall for the defense. The most interesting feature of the morning session might be termed Mr. Dagnall's remarks concerning the well-known churchmen and others assembled to hear the trial. Mr. Dagnall says that anyone who goes to the court room out of mere idle curiosity should be condemned. He says that most people are in sympathy with the defendant and that still others go in an effort to coerce or influence and intimidate the jury and that the crowd assembled yesterday must belong to one of these three classes. He presumed that all his hearers were present because they were in sympathy with the defendant.

In the first case J. W. Jones, who operated here as a detective, was sworn and testified that on the afternoon of October 23, he and Earl Thomas visited Myers' place together and purchased some beer. He testified that he knew what beer was, had at times been "tight", and that three bottles of the quality dispensed by Myers would "ave the desired effect."

Earl Thomas was next called and testified that he had stopped for a few minutes in a drug store on the day referred to by Jones, that he was approached while in the store by Jones and that he finally consented to carry Jones to Myers' place. He testified that they drank a bottle of beer there. This was practically the substance of his evidence.

Police Captain O. E. Bell and Patrolman Brown both testified concerning what they found in the club when it was raided and identified articles brought from the place.

This ended the evidence for the city and the defense put no one on the stand. The case went to the jury, the jury was out three minutes and returned a verdict of guilty.

The second case against Myers began at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Practically the same evidence in every detail was presented except that in this instance Earl Thomas was not sworn and in his stead Mr. C. Baxter Jones took the stand and swore as to carrying Jones to Myers' place. The jury deliberated for but a few minutes in this case and also returned a verdict of guilty.

There will be no cases heard this morning in the liquor trials but court will be convened again this afternoon at 3 o'clock and Myers will again be placed on trial.

Elwell, who entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling whiskey and maintaining a place where whiskey is kept for unlawful purposes, entered a plea of guilty to both charges and was fined $200 but the sentence was reduced to $100 during good behavior.

Great Speech

Large Crowd at Orr Mill Heard Dr. John G. Clinkscales Deliver Fine Address Sunday.

Well over 400 people heard Dr. John G. Clinkscales of Wofford College at Spartanburg when he spoke Sunday afternoon to the people of Orr mill. The address was delivered in the auditorium over the Orr mill store and was pronounced by those who heard it to be a master piece. Dr. Clinkscales was never in better form and he gave his hearers many things to ponder over.

The speaker was introduced by F. M. Burnett, secretary of the Anderson Y. M. C. A., and for over an hour he held the closest attention of every one in the building.

The special music, arranged for the afternoon, also proved to be a delightful part of the afternoon's program.

These weekly lectures are being more and more enjoyable and as the winter goes on some of the best speakers in the United States will be secured to appear here under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.
