HAS A CRIME WAVE REACHED ANDERSON?

HOUSE BURGLARIZED ON FRIDAY NIGHT

A BOLD HOLD-UP

Home of Mrs. Orr on Market St., Was Entered and S. D. White Was Robbed of Valuables.

About one more night like Friday night and Anderson people would conclude this a crime wave in earnest had struck Anderson. Shortly after 7 o'clock, as S. D. White, who is employed by G. F. Tolly and Son, was en route to his home, a few miles out of the city, he was held up and was robbed of $3.

The most daring robbery pulled off in some time in Anderson took place either Thursday night or Friday night, when the home of Mrs. S. M. Orr on Market street was entered and the whole house ransacked.

The burglars entered the vacant house by using a jimmy on the door. They went through the library, pulling drawers out of desks and making a complete search, on into the dining room where they ransacked everything in the place, throwing the silver around the room and investigating every part of the premises.

So far as Mr. Orr could discover yesterday two rings, belonging to Miss Lydia Orr, constituted the articles stolen. When a servant went to the house yesterday she found the door open and at once saw that a burglar had been in the house.

The fact that the burglary was committed at night was proven by the fact that burned matches lay around in all parts of the house.

Rape Case

Reported Affair in This County Seems to Be a Mystery and Nobody Knows Details.

Reports were heard on the streets of Anderson last night to the effect that a negro had committed a criminal assault upon a well known young white woman living about five miles from Anderson.

The Intelligencer office got into communication with the section in which it was said that the affair took place but at midnight last night none of the people living in that section could tell anything about such a happening.

Many believe that the deed really was perpetrated but that a mob must have gotten hold of the negro and made away with him before his crime became generally known.

Others say that such a thing is not possible and that there was no criminal assault.

Australian Ballot Proved Satisfactory.

J. A. Metts, one of the best known railroad mail officials in South Carolina, while in Anderson yesterday told a reporter for The Intelligencer that the Australian ballot system, upon a modified scale, had proved to be the best thing ever introduced into Charleston politics.

Citizens Slow in Paying Taxes.

Employees in the office of the Anderson county treasurer, said yesterday that just about one-half as many people had paid their taxes for this year to date, as compared with last year. Up to this time last year $5,000 in taxes had been paid but since October 15, this year, the total reaches only about $2,500.

Notice Issued To Poultry People.

Notice was issued yesterday by the secretary of the Anderson County Poultry association to the effect that a meeting of all those interested in the poultry show will be held in this city next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Another Company Is Buying Cotton.

Douglas A. Rose, president of the Maryland Life Insurance company of Baltimore, has joined the "Buy-a-Bale" movement in Anderson and personally bought a bale of cotton in Anderson yesterday at 10 cents per pound. While the cotton was for Mr. Rose and not for his company, the deal was put through by D. P. Sloan and Son, Inc., general agent of the company here.

Appointed Delegates To the Road Congress.

Following a request that he name delegates to represent the city of Anderson at the American Good Roads Congress, which is to meet in Chicago from December 14 to 18, Mayor Godfrey has named C. J. DeCamps, W. A. Sanders and A. S. Farmer.

Slight Advance In Cotton Market.

Yesterday brought a slight advance in the cotton market and instead of 71-3 Anderson buyers were offering 71-4. As a result of this rise in price, more cotton was brought to Anderson and placed on the market yesterday than for several days gone by.

Detectives Have Left Anderson.

Following the conclusion of their work in Anderson in connection with working up Hays cases, Detective Alva T. Wiggins and Detective Jones of the Thel Agency left last night for Atlanta. These young men did good work here and the city officials say that they are well pleased in every respect with what was accomplished.

Fellecman Got Quantity of Beer.

Police Captain Bell and Patrolman Whitten of the Anderson police force journeyed down on Peoples Row yesterday to take a look around and while they were down there they decided to see what sort of place Mamie Thompson is maintaining. Then entered the house and had hardly begun to look around before they stumbled upon about four gallons of whiskey, which was brought to the city hall and placed with the other numerous packages of the same much desired article.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HOLD A CONVENTION

MET HERE WITH ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

IS ONE WEEK OFF

Workers From Every Community Will Gather to Participate in Interesting Deliberations.

The Anderson county Sunday school Convention is just one week off. It begins its sessions next Sunday afternoon, November 15th, in St. John's Methodist Church, and continues throughout Monday, the 16th.

An urgent letter has been sent out to every Sunday School in the county to have itself represented, and many responses have already been received, promising to send delegates.

All of the preliminary preparations have been made except the provision for the entertainment of the delegates. These homes will be secured within the next few days through the following committee: Mrs. Raymond Beaty, chairman; Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, Mrs. B. O. Evans and Mrs. E. E. Elmore.

A splendid program has been arranged, with Rev. John C. Carman, State Superintendent of the South Carolina Sunday School Association; Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, of Spartanburg; Rev. James S. Moffatt, President of Erskine College, and Rev. J. B. Green, of Greenwood, as the principal speakers.

In addition to the more popular features of public addresses, the program also shows a number of other interesting features. These will include open discussions on Sunday School problems, conferences on rural school works and illustrations of improved methods of Sunday School work.

MINING STOCK CHANGES HANDS

Coal Mine Stock Valued at $3,750,000 Transferred to Chicago Operator.

(By Associated Press.) CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—Stock in Ohio and West Virginia coal mines valued at $3,750,000 passed into the hands of John S. Jones, a Chicago coal operator, today as a result of an entry made by three federal judges here in a suit brought by the government against the New York Central and the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway companies, their subsidiaries and various coal companies they control.

The case was brought under the Sherman law and federal officials declared it was the most sweeping victory ever accomplished under the act. The case has been known as the "East Ohio and West Virginia bituminous coal case."

Attorneys for both the railroads and the government appeared before the court today with an agreement that the properties of the railroads be disintegrated and ownership dissolved. The entry was made, the price fixed at $3,750,000 and a short time later Jones appeared in court and took over the stock.

DETECTIVE'S CARD.

To the People of Anderson: I am aware of the fact that my stay here has made trouble for some, but as it was my duty I can only say that they have my sympathy and I sincerely trust that they as well as every other person in Anderson, will feel as friendly toward me as I do toward them.
