The Civic association will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 with Mrs. D. C. Brown on North Main street. Dr. Ashmore will be present and give the ladies a talk on the needs of an incinerator. It will be an important meeting and the members are urged to attend.

The County Teachers association will meet next Saturday at 12 o'clock at the Central school building on Market street. Prof. Faithful of Anderson college, will give a short talk and this of itself will be a great treat as Prof. Faithful is a most interesting and attractive speaker.

The Rummaged club will meet Monday morning at 10:30 instead of Tuesday morning.

Mrs. J. R. Vandiver, Miss Rhoda Vandiver, Mrs. Flora Overman, Mrs. Carrie Patrick, Mrs. Raymond Beatty and Miss Mab Bonham leave tomorrow for Savannah to attend the General D. C. convention which convenes there Wednesday morning. Mrs. Vandiver also goes to return the beautiful loving cup she won last year by her paper, "Women of the Confederacy."

Mrs. Janie Famsay Dean has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Pal, to Mr. John Marion Glenn on Tuesday afternoon, November 24, at 5:30 at her home, 517 E. River street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harleston Barton and Dr. and Mrs. Levis Sanders will go to Elberton this morning to spend the day with Mrs. Barton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harper. They will make the trip in Dr. Sanders' touring car.

Mrs. Sanders entertained a few friends on Wednesday afternoon at a charming little sewing party. Although Mrs. Sanders has only been an Anderson hostess a short time, she has already established quite a reputation for her delightful affairs, and her party on Wednesday was no exception. Her pretty rooms were bright with ferns and chrysanthemums and it was a very merry and congenial party that gathered there. As the Christmas season is such a short time of the afternoon was very pleasantly and profitably spent on delicate hand work, after which the attractive hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harleston Barton, Mrs. Wade Sanders and Miss Gertrude Sanders, served an elegant salad course with coffee. A solo by Mrs. Jim Craig and several musical selections by Mrs. C. B. Earle were very much enjoyed. Among those present were: Mesdames Keith Provost, T. L. Cely, Louis Horton, D. L. McLean, C. B. Earle, J. H. Craig, G. B. Green, Wade Sanders, J. O. Sanders, Harleston Barton, Harry Geisberg, J. J. Baldwin, J. L. Brownlee, Frank Todd, Morrison, Frank Reed, Frank Hall, Misses Nellie Barton, Gertrude Sanders, Ella May Cummings.

Faculty Recital.
The faculty recital given each year by the conservatory of music will take place Tuesday evening, November 10, at 8:30 o'clock. It is somewhat later than usual, because of conflicts with the revival meetings held for some weeks in the churches of the city. The people of the city have never had the privilege of hearing Mr. and Mrs. Goode or Miss Smith, this being their first year in the school. All who love good music will enjoy this evening. There will be vocal, violin and piano numbers on the program. People know Miss Strathan well, for she has been here since the opening of the college and has sung repeatedly at many of the churches of the city and county, at recitals and at many social gatherings.

The people of the town and county are most cordially invited to be present. Cars will wait as usual after recital.

Robert E. Lee Chapter.
The regular November meeting of the Robert E. Lee chapter, U. D. C., was held on Friday afternoon with Mrs. D. S. Vandiver, Mrs. Walter Brock and Miss Margaret Evans as hostesses. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. George Evans on West Whitner street. The parlors were bright with many beautiful fall roses and this, with an ideal afternoon, were the necessary attributes for a very pleasant afternoon. There was a good attendance of members and the program was particularly interesting. Mrs. M. L. Bonham read a fine paper on "Nullification in South Carolina," and this was followed by a general discussion by some of the ladies present. Mrs. W. S. Ramsay read her eligibility paper and gave a few interesting incidents told her by her father of his own personal experiences. Mrs. J. D. Vandiver read an instructive paper on "Current Events." Mrs. Vandiver paid a deserving tribute to Mayor Godfrey and the city council. This was received with a burst of enthusiastic applause by the ladies present, evidence of the sympathy and interest felt by the women of Anderson in this work. The music for the afternoon was a piano solo by Mrs. Steele and two vocal selections, one by Mrs. John Frank and the other by Miss Rhoda Vandiver. The hostesses served a dainty sweet course at the conclusion of the program.

Popular Club Women.
Mrs. Carrie Patrick of this city is State historian and will have charge of the historical evening at the State convention which meets in Yorkville the latter part of the month. Mrs. Flora Overman of this city will be on the program for that evening. Both of these ladies will wear charming costumes made from cloth from one of the cotton mills in Anderson.

Dixie Chapter.
The handsome home of Mrs. D. A. Ledbetter on Boulevard was the meeting place on Thursday afternoon for the Dixie chapter and not only a large number of members were present, but the meeting was an unusually enthusiastic one. Beautiful roses and chrysanthemums added much to the attractiveness of the rooms. The principal business for the afternoon was the election of delegates to Savannah to the General convention. They were: Mrs. Carrie Patrick and Mrs. Carrie McCully. Mrs. J. R. Anderson and Mrs. A. F. Johnstone were selected to represent the chapter at State convention in Yorkville. This chapter gives a scholarship to a deserving young lady in Anderson college each year. On program for the afternoon was a very fine paper on "Gleanings," by Mrs. A. P. Johnstone. A vocal duet by Mrs. R. S. Ligon and Mrs. Thomas Allen. Mrs. J. M. Paget gave a few sketches in negro dialect that were very humorous and entertaining. The charming hostess served an elegant salad course, assisted by Misses Alberta Brock, Katherine Stelling and Louise Ligon. Four new members were enrolled by the chapter.

Dance at Elks Home.
The beautiful home of the Elks club on North McDuffie street, was the scene of a delightful dance on Wednesday evening. A very congenial crowd was present and the occasion was marked by its delightful informality. The rooms were gay with beautiful sprays of autumn leaves that made a most effective scene. Delightful nectar was served all during the evening and late tempting sandwiches and tea were served. The Elks home is already a very popular and attractive spot to the social set, and these occasions are looked forward to with great pleasure.

Party for Little Folks.
Little Miss Sara Tribble delightfully entertained a number of her young friends at a party on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Greenville street. It was a beautiful fall afternoon, an ideal one for little folks to play, and many games dear to the little people were thoroughly enjoyed on the lawn. A contest of making words out of the letters in "Ten years old," formed an interesting pastime, and lots of amusement.

Mrs. McCary is a woman of grace and simple charm of manner, beloved among a wide circle of friends. Mr. McCary is a man held in honor and esteem by all who know him. Mr. and Mrs. McCary are at home to their many friends at Barnes, S. C.

A Charming Sewing Party.

The first of a series of parties to be given by Mrs. Raynolds Fretwell and Mrs. Arthur Holman was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fretwell on W. Franklin street. This pretty home was made more attractive with many beautiful roses and chrysanthemums, which are so abundant just now. The afternoon was spent sewing and talking and was delightfully informal and pleasant. After the sewing was put aside an elegant two course menu was served. Among those invited were: Mesdames J. H. Godfrey, Leon Rice, W. H. Nardin, T. F. Watkins, Anna Weston, Frank Farmer, L. O. Dean, J. L. Gray, J. L. Shepard, S. D. Brownlee, Clyde Ross, Rhett Parker, J. P. Kinard, Dave Gray, Ed. Marshall, E. In Honor of Miss Cooper.

Mrs. G. W. Ould entertained the Priscilla club yesterday afternoon in honor of her attractive house guest, Miss Ethel Cooper, of Avalon, Ga. Vases of American beauty roses about the parlor made a charming effect, and the afternoon was spent busily sewing and chatting in a pleasantly informal way. Later Mrs. Ould served a tempting salad course.

McCary-Fant Wedding.
A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Annie McCary and Mr. Ernest Fant on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McCary, near Sandy Springs. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ida McCary, as maid of honor and little Miss Anale McCary of Chicago, as ring bearer. The bride wore a lovely dress of white charmeuse with lace and pearls and carried a beautiful bouquet of carnations and lilies of the valley. Mr. Fant entered with his best man, Mr. Leslie Simpson, of Anderson. Mrs. Ben Aull of Pendleton played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. B. Fant. Others assisting were Mrs. Darwin Reed and Mrs. Will Aull of Seneca.

Appetite Follows Good Digestion

Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress. The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepper known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle yet positive in action, and quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. For a free trial bottle write Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 481 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

SIX AND TWENTY

WILLIAMSTON, Nov. 5.—The legislature has met and adjourned and what have they done for the benefit of the farmer? In fact what could they have done that would have been of any benefit to him.

The help that the farmer needs must come from himself. We will have to take up our own cross and bear it and after we once become accustomed to the order of things everything will move on as if strenuous time were never dreamed of. Money may not be as plentiful with us as we would like for and the price of cotton is not what it should be, but at the same time we know of no one who is at the point of starvation or who is having to depend on charity. If we could only train ourselves to look in times of distress to One who directs contingencies and has in his hands the management of everything that is capable of annoying or offending us, who knows the assistance we stand in need of, and is always ready to bestow it on those who ask it of him, we would be in better shape to take what is handed out to us. Now, considered in himself, he is a very helpless and wretched being. He is subject every day of his life to the greatest calamities and misfortunes. He is beset with dangers on all sides and many become unhappy by numbers of casualties, which he could not foresee nor prevent had he foreseen them, but in many instances could be prevented had he done things that he knew was for his best interest and welfare on those dependent upon him.

We are beginning to hear farmers on all sides discussing the use of fertilizer under the next year's crop. Not a one has been heard to say that they would use over two-thirds as much as was used this year and a majority will use only one-half as much, while some will use none at all, but will try making one crop with what stable manure can be made on their farms.

Rev. H. A. O'Kellie preached a very interesting sermon to a large congregation at this place last Sunday. Lawrence Smith and wife of Six miles, Pickens county, visited relatives here last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Pickens visited the family of her father, O. J. Kay, of McElmoyre last Monday.

Rev. J. T. Mann will preach at this place next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at Friendship in the afternoon at 3:30.

Everybody is invited to attend the singing at Slabtown Sunday afternoon.

The many friends of Mrs. A. H. Richer, who is very sick at present, wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. G. Smith, who underwent an operation at the Anderson hospital some weeks ago, has been brought back home and is much improved. The many friends of Mrs. Ida Pickens are glad to know that she is fast recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pickens attended the Edmont fair at Greenwood last week and report a nice time, but say it was not as good as the Belton fair.

The good work being done by the officers of Anderson in driving out "blind tigers" should receive the commendation of every man and woman in the county. We have always claimed that the dispensary system was better than the "blind tiger" system but if the sale of intoxicants can be stopped or reduced to a minimum it will be much better than either "blind tiger" or dispensary. We have heard men say that they could buy whiskey easier from a blind tiger than they could from a dispensary, but we hope to see the time when not a drop can be had in Anderson for love or money.

The Melton school is getting along nicely and patrons and pupils are well pleased with their new teachers, Prof. Merideth and Miss Vann.

Dr. and Mrs. Webb of Wagener, S. C., were visiting relatives here this week.

Deputies Sanders and Irennan were in this section last Sunday hunting for a negro that was reported crazy. We have not learned whether he was captured or not.

People in this and the McElmoyre section are going to make an effort to get the county superior to build a high water passage across Three and Twenty creek, either at the Bridges or near George Martin's. This passage is badly needed as there are many times during a year that it is almost impossible to cross this stream in this section on account of high water. The greatest benefit to this section would be from the fact that Dr. J. E. Allgood has a large practice in this section and at times people are greatly inconvenienced on account of him being unable to cross this stream. Everybody hopes the road will be built.
