N. B. SULLIVAN DIED EARLY LAST NIGHT

END CAME AT 8.15 AT ASHEVILLE, N. C.

LOSS TO STATE

One of Anderson's Most Prominent Business Men Succumbs to Illness.

N. B. Sullivan is dead. When that message reached Anderson last night the business men of the city, although they had prepared themselves for the shock, could hardly realize it and friends of his in all parts of the county and State were deeply grieved.

Several days ago Mr. Sullivan's condition suddenly became very grave and members of his family were summoned from Anderson, but shortly after that the patient rallied and it was believed that he would be able to hold his own for several weeks, or even months, to come but yesterday physicians at Asheville, N. C. that he could not be far off and his immediate relatives left at once and were at his bedside when the end came last night at 8:15 o'clock.

Born and reared in Anderson county, Mr. Sullivan has always been one of the prime movers in the better commercial enterprises of the city. He was a member of Sullivan brothers, when that firm embarked in business here and with J. M. and H. K. Sullivan he conducted this enterprise for a number of years. In 1900 the Sullivan Hardware company of Anderson was chartered and N. B. Sullivan was chosen president, which position he has held since that time, building up his store into the largest hardware store in the State. Later the Sullivan-Markley Hardware company of Greenville was formed and Mr. Sullivan became president of this company. He was also vice president of the Farmers and Merchants bank of Anderson and a director of the following cotton mills: The Orr Cotton mill, the Anderson cotton mill, the Gluck cotton mill and the Jackson mills of Iva. Nimrod Bellotti Sullivan was born November 15, 1863 and was therefore 51 years of age. He was married to Miss Lila Simpson, an Anderson county woman, and his wife, together with two boys, Sam Orr and N. B. Jr., survive him.

Mr. Sullivan was easily one of the most prominent and most progressive business men of South Carolina. He was well known, was highly respected and was a prime mover in all the efforts looking to the up-building of Anderson and South Carolina. For the last 10 years his health was such that he could take no active part in the conduct of his business undertakings and about five years ago he went to Asheville in the hope that he might improve. Since that time he has made his home in Asheville for a part of each year and hundreds of friends here had been hoping against hope that he might finally be restored to health.

Mr. Sullivan was a member of the First Baptist church of Anderson and has always taken a deep interest in church affairs. He had been a friend to the poor of the city and they will respect his memory. He held membership in the local lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

In addition to his wife and boys, Mr. Sullivan is survived by two brothers, C. E. Sullivan and W. W. Sullivan.

It was said last night that the body will leave Asheville this morning and will reach Anderson either this afternoon or tonight. The remains will be carried to the home of C. E. Sullivan and the funeral will take place from there Wednesday.

Carried

Anderson Authorized by Vote in County to Assess Abutting Property for Improvements.

Public living in Anderson have learned with decided pleasure that the city of Anderson has been given the right so far as the county is concerned, to assess abutting property for the purpose of permanent improvements. In the recent general election this was one of the amendments voted on and it resulted in favor of the proposed amendment according to the figures just made public.

As far as Anderson county is concerned the election of amending the constitution so as to allow the city of Anderson to assess abutting property owners for a share of the cost of street improvements has resulted favorably for the change. There were 613 votes cast in the county on the amendment, 438 for and 175 against. In order to change the constitution a two-thirds vote favorable to the change is necessary. The two-thirds vote needed was 409 and the vote exceeded this number, going to 438.

In some of the precincts no votes were cast at all in any of the proposed amendments to the State constitution. As a matter of fact the majority of some of the precincts failed to come to the city to get the election boxes. The vote cast on the ticket for State officers exceeded the vote cast on the amendments.

TEN CENTS FOR COTTON

In order to show that our sympathy for the farmers of this community is REAL—the kind that you can CASH IN—we are willing to sell the Very Best Makes of Pianos and Organs at prices as low or lower than you can get them elsewhere, and take Middling cotton at TEN CENTS per pound in payment for same.

We BUY our pianos OUTRIGHT—paying SPOT CASH for them—and we buy them CHEAP—therefore we are in a position to SELL them CHEAPER than the other fellow, who carries them on "Consignment" or buys them "On Time."

This is simple—nothing hard to understand about this; we all know that SPOT CASH always BUYS anything CHEAPER than "ON TIME"—Hence our ability to UNDER-SELL ALL COMPETITION.

Every piano which we sell is fully GUARANTEED for TEN YEARS by the Manufacturers and by us.

We will sell YOU a Piano or Organ for Cash or Terms to Suit You.

BARNES NOTES.

Clerk of Barnes Council is planning to organize a "Don't Worry Club" for the planters who used gins this year. Did you ever think seriously of the cause, and the joys of worry? However, you are here, and you cannot honestly get away for a time, therefore why not be as comfortable as possible. I do not pretend to say that you have no cause for worry, but you can overcome the habit by joining the Don't Worry Club. You will not make much progress in a week, but in a month you will have a better temper, and in three months you will decide that joining the Don't Worry Club was a very wise step.

A marriage of much interest was that of Mr. T. B. McCary and Miss Rose Tricker, at the home of Mr. W. A. Pettigrew, on the 5th inst. Rev. H. W. Stone officiating. They enter the voyage of life with best wishes of their friends.

Mrs. M. O. Spear, of Canon, Ga., is spending a week with her parents near this place.

Miss Effie Campbell, Miss Laura Craft and Mrs. John Lewis came down from Anderson last Saturday to visit relatives here.

Mrs. H. W. Stone and little daughter Elizabeth, was here on the 5th inst., to witness the McCary Tricker marriage.

While sitting around the fireside recently we read one of Uncle Dave's funnygrams which said: Eve would never have become entangled with the serpent if she had not another woman to gossip with. And Lulu said, Well, if she had been afraid of snakes as I am she would not get tangled with him now.

Would you have your name Smell Sweet, with myrrh of remembrance and charms melodiously in the ear of future days, then cultivate faith not doubt and give every man credit for the good he does, never seeking to attribute base motives to beautiful acts. We are heroes in process.

A recent issue of the Intelligencer contained an article written by Elbert Hubbard. Mr. Hubbard has gotten himself into the limelight and we may expect to hear of him as a candidate for president in 1916.

In his magazine of August, 1911, Mr. Hubbard says: The Bible teaches at least four false and therefore immoral things. These are: 1. That motherhood is a curse sent as a punishment. 2. That work is a curse visited on men as a punishment. 3. That beggary is superior to industry, economy and wealth. 4. That celibacy is a condition especially favorable to mental and spiritual growth. The question is not so much as the Bible inspires as, is it true. Some things in nature, true, some are not. I have here named you four that are not. He who accepts any book literally as his guide is lost.

In the same year—the Very Right Reverend Dean Hicks, Spokane, Wash., says: The notorious Elbert Hubbard has been in our midst for the past week. Twice a day he spoke at the Orpheum Theatre to big crowds of people who should have known better than to waste time and money on such a freak.

As for ourselves we went to see how bad it was. The man has a soft voice and many tricks of the stage, and it is these dramatic and hypocritical touches that catch the crowd, not what he says. His remarks about our great institutions and his flings at the learned profession are atrocious and false in every particular.

WORK PROGRESSING SUCCESSFULLY

COLUMBIA, S. C. Nov. 9.—In spite of unusual business conditions the work of the Red Cross Seal Commission in South Carolina is progressing successfully. The magnitude of the undertaking may be seen from the size of the order for seals and advertising material, which the American Red Cross Association has recently shipped to the commission's headquarters at Columbia. The order consists of 250,000 seals, 25,000 envelopes, 5,000 envelopes, slips and 2,000 cards. The active selling season for the seals is from Thanksgiving to Christmas. During November and the great mass of material will be distributed to the many public spirited men and women throughout the state, who have consented to act as agents. An evidence of the hearty spirit of co-operation met with on all sides may be cited the fact

STARR

STARR, S. C. Nov. 10.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church had an unusually interesting meeting last Friday afternoon. How to get all the ladies of the church interested in the work carried on by the missionary society was the principal topic for the afternoon, and this subject was very fully and instructively covered by Mrs. C. D. Watson, Mrs. E. B. Koch, Mrs. H. E. Priddy and Miss Lulu Dean. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. Joe Jones, Mrs. Claude Jones and Mrs. Missa Gray. Mrs. H. S. Bowie and Mrs. Annie Dean sang a sweet missionary hymn, "Come over and Help Us," and this, with two other songs, "Lead us, Savior," and "Rejoice the Morning," made up a very interesting program. Right here the Missionary Society will extend an invitation to all the ladies of our church to come and help us.

Clean-up day was observed in our school last Friday and as a result the school building throughout and the yards present quite a neat and clean appearance.

The School Improvement Association, which is composed of the teachers and patrons of the school, all entered into the clean-up days with a good will, spending the whole day, and enjoying a fine dinner on the grounds.

Miss Marie Cunningham, the rural school assistant, visited our school last week, and besides appreciating the many helpful suggestions all made for the betterment of our school, it was a great pleasure to her friends here to entertain her.

Mrs. A. B. Davis will go to Newberry today as a delegate from the Baptist church to attend the State W. M. U. convention.

Mrs. J. D. Priddy and Mrs. A. E. Dean will leave this evening for Atlanta, Ga., to attend the delegates to the General Convention of the W. C. T. U. Miss Anna Perry of Anderson is visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Herron, after attending church services on last Sunday invited all the young ladies of the school faculty with a number of other young lady friends to an elaborate dinner.

Miss Jessie Bryan of Anderson is spending the week here with her relatives.

Miss Mary Bowie spent the week-end in Anderson with her friend, Miss Laura Watt. Miss Bowie also goes on next Wednesday to Plum Branch where she will be a member of the school faculty there for the next six months.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Coniak are moving this week into a cottage near the station where they will go to house-keeping.

Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Jones of Iva visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones on last Wednesday.

Mr. Joe Mable Smith of the Senior class of Clemson College, visited his parents here last week.

Some of the traveling men registered at Hotel Columbia were Messrs. Mac G. Smith of Greenwood; J. M. Mobley Lynchburg, Va.; W. A. Rudgens, Anderson; Eugene Leora, Augusta; John Charles Augusta; J. W. Reid, Wilmington; W. C. Keith, Greenville.

Came to Town for Tea.

He had called a lawyer on the street to draw him to a good restaurant, says Judge, and after his request had been complied with the lawyer quitted.

"You are a farmer, aren't you?"

"Yes, sir."

"I only you claim trusty October holidays. You are still early can get a hot appetite for breakfast?"

"Um!"

"You sit down to home-made cake?"

"Um!"

"And golden coffee?"

"Um!"

"And fresh fried eggs?"

"Well!"

"And golden brown apples?"

"Um!"

"And you rise up refreshed and glad you are alive. Isn't it so?"

"Mister do you know way I come to town today?" asked the farmer.

"Well, no."

"It was to get some of them very things to eat!"

And the lawyer went on.
