Figures Show Anderson County Imports Many Cabbage, Potatoes and Onions.

Notwithstanding the fact that all three products can be raised in this county, Anderson farmers fail to take advantage of a very lucrative business opportunity, easily within their grasp. If figures furnished from the Anderson chamber of commerce are reliable and accurate.

Monday afternoon B. F. Mauldin made request upon the Anderson chamber of commerce to compile figures showing the amount of cabbage, onions and potatoes received in Anderson each year. Following the request, Mr. Whaley went to work yesterday and succeeded in compiling a very interesting report, which is as follows:

"In response to your verbal request for data, on numbers of cars of potatoes, onions and cabbage shipped into Anderson annually for distribution, will say we have made an investigation of this matter, and find that it is a quite common custom here for jobbers to have shipped a combination car of potatoes, onions and cabbage. We have therefore had to secure approximate figures, which however, do not vary more than 10 per cent. either way from the actual figures. It would be impossible to secure actual figures.

"Our figures show the following: Potatoes, 190 cars at $375... $72,250
 Onions, 40 cars at $750... 30,000
 Cabbage, 75 cars at $145... 10,875

Grand annual total 305 cars... $113,125

"The prices of all three of these commodities vary greatly throughout the year, to the extent sometimes of 75 per cent. so we have had to strike an average on the cost of the commodities. Potatoes are selling today at a very low figure. A car load of potatoes could be delivered here today probably for $320, whereas later on or earlier it might cost as much as $335. The price greatly varies. The same is even more true of onions and cabbage. It is safe to assert, however, that Anderson is sending to other parts of the country annually from $110,000 to $130,000 for potatoes, cabbage and onions which can be raised here, provided we can secure a convenient market for them. They also would have to be properly and uniformly graded, sacked and handled. The location of a combination city and country market house in Anderson, would, in our opinion, gradually have the effect of causing our farmers to raise more of these products. It must not, however, be forgotten that special skill and attention must be given to this class of agriculture. I regret that our organization has not so far been able to do much in this direction, having had to centralize our efforts for the present and perhaps for some time to come on cover crops, grains and livestock, an immensely important thing. We did hold one potato show here last year, with good results, and the writer will remember to our trades extension committee that we have a potato and winter produce day here in December.

"We shall be glad indeed to have your suggestion, counsel and advice."

Boys' Exhibit

Corn Clubs Will Have Chance to Show Their Grain Here and Win Valuable Prizes.

J. W. Rothrock, county demonstration agent for Anderson county, is hard at work arranging for the annual exhibit of the Boys' Corn Clubs of Anderson. This exhibit will be held in the rooms of the Anderson chamber of commerce some time during the first week in December, at which time the prizes donated by the merchants of Anderson will be awarded.

The long list of prizes has stimulated a heavy interest among all the boys of the county and Mr. Rothrock believes that a large number of exhibits will be sent in.

At the next meeting of the Trades Extension committee of the Anderson chamber of commerce the complete program for the affair will be arranged and announced.

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Say Road Congress is Great Gathering. Visitors coming into Anderson from Atlanta say that the meeting of the American Road Congress, now in session at Atlanta, is really a wonderful affair. Delegates are present from all parts of the country and instead of making the occasion a mere outing, the delegates are honestly endeavoring to accomplish something for the cause. The visitors all say that they were deeply impressed with what they saw while they were in Atlanta.

Aged Woman Had Birthday Dinner.
 A number of visitors passed through Anderson Monday evening and Tuesday morning, returning to their homes in different sections after attending a delightful birthday dinner in the Mountain Creek section of the county, which was in honor of the 83rd birthday of Mrs. Burris. Cliff G. Burris and two sons passed through Anderson yesterday, enroute to their home at Piedmont, after having attended the event.

Prof. Hicks Gives Little Encouragement.
 Prof. W. D. Hicks, Anderson County's famous weather prophet, was among the visitors to the city yesterday and Mr. Hicks said while here that the people of Anderson are doomed to disappointment if they expect any more warm weather real soon. He predicts that the remainder of this week will be cold, with frost. When asked to say whether or not this would be an especially severe winter, Mr. Hicks said that it undoubtedly would and that all indications are that there will be sleet and snow several times during the winter months.

Attending the Medical Convention.
 Anderson is well represented this week at the meeting of the Southern Medical Association now in session at Richmond, Va. Prominent physicians from every one of the Southern States are in attendance and they are all enjoying the addresses being delivered. Stewart McGuire, one of the county's foremost surgeons, is president of the association and is presiding over all the deliberations. Among those physicians attending from Anderson are: Dr. J. R. Young, Dr. Herbert H. Harris and Dr. Lewis Gray. They expect to return to Anderson Friday.

Trying to Sell City Fire Engine.
 J. W. Grant of Atlanta, representing the American LaFrance Fire Engine Company, arrived in Anderson yesterday in an effort to arrange for his city to exhibit the new LaFrance fire engine. Mr. Grant is in the city in regard to selling the city a combined motor truck and pump, which proposition has been considered on several occasions by the city council. While nothing definite has been announced, it is understood that the city will not purchase the machine right at this time but that an order will probably be given within the next 30 or 60 days.

Trouble Cleared on Phone Lines.
 While practically no trouble was occasioned telephone users last Saturday night when the Southern Bell Telephone Company cut over its circuit from the old building to the new building, yet a few defects appeared. Since that time Manager Beatty has had his entire force of linemen at work, getting the tangles unraveled and as a result it was said last night that not a single telephone is now any the worse because the change was made. Manager Beatty says that he is well pleased in every respect with the way the exchange is now running.

Railroad Officials Here on Inspection.
 E. Thompson, general superintendent of the Piedmont & Northern Line railroad, and Charles Allen, traffic manager of the same railroad, spent yesterday in Anderson making an inspection of the local office of the Interurban and looking over the general business field in Anderson. These officials make frequent trips of this kind and it is understood that there was nothing out of the ordinary in connection with their visit here yesterday. They spent the entire day in Anderson.

More Cotton Was Sold Here Yesterday.
 Local buyers were offering 7 1/4 cents per pound on the Anderson market yesterday for cotton and for some reason the price seemed to be more attractive to Anderson farmers than it has for the last few days. More cotton was brought to Anderson and sold yesterday than has been the case since the figure advanced.

Mr. McGregor Has Slightly Recovered.
 Friends in Anderson of G. T. McGregor, the genial and popular secretary of the Brogan mill, were delighted yesterday to see him on the streets again, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. McGregor underwent an operation in the Anderson county hospital for appendicitis and for a time his condition was regarded as serious. Yesterday was the first time that he was able to be on the streets but to day he will resume his duties at the mill.

Congressman Is Leading His Aid.
 The Anderson Chamber of Commerce received a letter yesterday from Wyatt Allen, member of congress from this district, in which Mr. Allen says that he is doing everything possible to get a new mail clerk for Anderson on the C. & W. C. railroad. Mr. Allen says that he has already taken the matter up with the postoffice department and he believes that the new clerk will soon be put on duty.

Dr. Smothers Is in Baltimore.
 Dr. A. L. Smothers is in Baltimore for the week, where he is attending the Southern Institute of Homeopathy, now in session. He is in charge of the bureau of pedology and will himself deliver a paper on "Pellagra in Children" before the convention is over. He expects to return to Anderson either Friday or Saturday.

Baptists to Hold the State Convention.
 Anderson Baptists are interested in the approaching 95th State Convention of the church, which will take place in Charleston with the Citadel Square Baptist Church, beginning on December 8. At that time prominent ministers and laymen from practically every town in South Carolina will be in attendance. Among the important positions held by Anderson Baptists is that of chairman of the committee on Social Welfare and Public Morals, which position is held by Rev. Dr. John F. Vines, pastor of the First Baptist church of Anderson.

Police Caught Wrong Negro.
 The Anderson policemen are convinced that they had made a "find" when it was reported to them that the Greenwood police had nabbed W. C. Brown, a negro wanted in this city for having swindled another negro out of $15 on a diamond ring trick. Brown was brought back to Anderson after dark from Greenwood and was identified by his victim but when he was seen in daylight the man from whom he got the money said that it was the wrong negro. This was demonstrated when the negro tried to get the diamond ring in question on his finger and failed. He was released and a vigorous search is going on for the real W. C. Brown.

Council Meeting Again Postponed.
 It was announced Monday night the regular monthly meeting of the Anderson city council, scheduled to take place on Tuesday night, had been postponed until Wednesday night and that yesterday it was announced that the meeting of council would not be held until Thursday night. People are anxiously awaiting this meeting to see if there will be any further developments in the matter concerning the Southern Public Utilities Company.

Carnival Wants to Exhibit Here.
 Fred S. Walton, advance agent for the World's Exposition shows, a carnival company, came to Anderson yesterday in an effort to arrange for his show to exhibit the next week at Anderson. Mr. Walton brings letters from the city to the effect that his attraction is clean, moral and refined, and it is probable that the desired permission will be given by the Anderson officials and the company permitted to exhibit here.

Miss Frayzer Is Here on a Visit.
 Miss Mary E. Frayzer of the Home Economic Department of Winthrop College at Rock Hill, came to Anderson yesterday to inspect the community work being prosecuted at the Anderson mills by Miss Leil, Moseley. Miss Moseley is giving her entire attention at present to the work in the Riverside-Toxaway mill villages and is accomplishing a great deal, according to Miss Frayzer's statement.

Important Meeting Thursday Night.
 The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Anderson Chamber of Commerce will take place Thursday evening in the rooms of the local chamber of commerce. The meeting is to begin promptly at 8 o'clock and business of importance will be considered.

Rev. J. T. Mann's Appointments.
 Rev. J. T. Mann will preach at Broadmouth church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at O'quoka church, Honea Path, at 8 o'clock.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish, and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, nose sore, throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs," because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

DIRECTORS BOUGHT SEATS FOR THEATRE

PURCHASE OF SCENERY IS CLOSED TODAY

MANY ARE BIDDING

C. H. Bleich Met With Directors of Company and Arranged for the Theatre Furnishing.

A contract was let yesterday by the directors of the Anderson Development Company, owners of the Anderson theatre, to the American Seating Company of Chicago, Ill., for the seats to be placed in the handsome theatre when it is completed. There were many representatives present from all of the principal seating houses of the country and the competition was very keen but the best proposition was made by the company securing the contract.

The order for the new seats was placed by the purchasing committee of the Anderson Development Company and in selecting the style of the chairs they were aided by Mr. Bleich, the purchasing committee is composed of Judge S. Fowler, Leo Gelbar, Rufus Fant and R. R. King. They met at an early hour yesterday morning and the representatives of the seating concerns placed on display some several dozens different samples of seats. About 20 sample chairs were exhibited and the directors experienced condition but finally decided upon a very handsome chair shown by J. E. Riley and Eugene Riley, both of Charlotte, representatives of the American Seating Company. These gentlemen had quite an assortment of seats with them. The chair purchased has a mahogany finish, with very heavy castings, is ball-bearing, sanitary in every respect and of the very latest design. It weighs about 40 pounds and is decidedly the most attractive opera chair ever seen in Anderson. It is not upholstered but the chair costs considerably more than do some upholstered seats.

The seating plan for the theatre, as outlined by Mr. Bleich, was adopted by the committee.

A number of representatives of scenery concerns were in the city last night and a conference will be held this morning following which the contract will be let for the scenery and for the asbestos curtain to be used in the new house. It was announced yesterday by the committee in charge that no advertisements would be accepted for either the scenery or the curtain. The committee could easily have saved several hundred dollars in this way but in order that there might be nothing cheap about the new house, the committee decided to let the contract for a business proposition.

Belton Won

Good Game of Basket Ball Between Belton and Williamston Was Played Yesterday.

The girls basketball team of the Belton high school won a good game yesterday afternoon on the Belton grounds when the strong Williamston team went down in defeat. The two teams were more evenly matched than the score of 20 to 2 would seem to indicate.

The Belton team had never played the Williamston team before but had played two games with Anderson, winning one and losing one and two with Honea Path with the same result. Another game has been arranged for Friday afternoon at Belton with the Honea Path team.

The following young ladies represented their school yesterday: Williamston—Margaret Altaway, Elizabeth Darnell, Pamela Knox, Marion Colyer, Janet Lander, Mary Wilson, Jeanette Wilson.

Belton—Eunice Warnick, Rosa May Austin, Bessie Wilson, Tena McConnell, Frances White, Fannie Holcombe, Grace Campbell.

No Statement

Resident Manager of The Southern Public Utilities Company Will Not Discuss Matter.

When seen yesterday by a reporter for the Intelligencer and asked if he desired to say anything in regard to the stop proposed by city council in regard to the water and light franchise and in regard to the white water franchise, the resident manager of the Southern Public Utilities company, said that he did not care to discuss the matter just at this time.

Mr. Orr has forwarded all the papers in the case and all the particulars of council's latest move to V. V. Taylor at Charlotte, president of the Southern Public Utilities company, and it is understood that Mr. Taylor will make some move within the next few days.

Yesterday about the only general topic of discussion on the streets was the question of the franchise and as much interest is now being manifested as was evident in February.

INSTANTLY OPENS NOSTRILS, COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

In One Minute Your Stuffy Nose and Head Clears, Sneezing and Nose Running Cease, Dull Headache Goes

Try "Ely's Balm."
 Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head, or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed; swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

MR. SULLIVAN TO BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral Services Will Be Held at First Baptist Church at 4 O'clock This Afternoon.

The funeral party bringing the body of N. B. Sullivan from Asheville, N. C., arrived in Anderson yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock over the Piedmont and Northern line railroad and the body was at once taken to the home of C. S. Sullivan.

The funeral services are to take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church of Anderson, conducted by Rev. John F. Vines and Rev. O. I. Martin. The following gentlemen who have long been faithful employees of the Sullivan Hardware company will act as active pallbearers: H. S. Shumate, L. L. Hatch, F. R. Holland, G. W. Jolly, John C. Griffin and L. A. Campbell.

The honorary pallbearers will be: James D. Hammett, David Gray, Dr. B. A. Henry, J. A. Brock, R. E. Ligon, J. R. Vandiver, H. H. Watkins, H. A. Orr, R. S. Ligon and Rufus Fant.

Slight Accident Delayed Work Now Being Done on Anderson County Court House.

Hurrying the work with all possible speed in order that court might convene Monday, the workmen engaged in making repairs on the Anderson county court house did not use iron rails quite as heavy as were necessary and as a result about 100 pounds of concrete fell from the top of the vault being constructed under the court room floor, in the offices formerly occupied by Supervisor King. No one was injured and the damage done was small.

A force of hands went to work directly after the cement fell, which was at 6 o'clock, and by 11 o'clock last night they had the damage practically repaired. It is understood that the contractors will be able to get the court room ready for court by Monday, notwithstanding the slight delay.

"The Heart of a Police Officer"

Frank Cantl, a professional hunter, has had a very bad season. Winter is approaching, and with an old father and two sick children on his hands, he has no money to buy food or medicine. The proprietor of the only hotel in the village meets him, and tells him that he must have a couple of wild ducks for a dinner for his wife and children. Cantl is extremely worried and after a long search he finds a large stipend for securing them for him. Cantl realizes that to get them he would have to trespass. He is sorely tempted but refuses. He returns home and is confronted by the doctor who insists that the child receive the medicine prescribed, so he returns to the proprietor of the hotel and accepts an advance from him on the contract. He goes to the Count's grounds, shoots a duck, and is immediately caught by the keeper of the grounds, and haled to a police court, where the keeper swears to a charge of trespassing against him. The penalty for the offense is 300 francs of one month in jail. Police officer Mcrretti's term of three years is practically over. During this time he has saved 800 francs which he has placed in an envelope and intends using same as a wedding gift to his bride. The hunter's wife calls on him for advice, he having a reputation for big-heartedness, but he advises her that nothing can be done, and takes her to the lieutenant, thinking possibly that he might see a way out of the dilemma, but instead, the lieutenant confirms what he already knows, and, to his extreme wrath, he is extremely angry and, as soon as the hunter's wife departs, gives the policeman five francs to take to her. The hunter is allowed three days in which to decide whether he must serve his term in prison. The time having expired and the fine not paid, Mcrretti is given a warrant for the hunter's arrest. He goes to the house, and the children, on seeing him, embrace and kiss him. Touching by this show of affection, he hesitates about making the arrest.

How, through the kind offices of Police Officer Mcrretti and his Lieutenant, Cantl is saved from serving his prison sentence, makes a beautiful heart-interest story, the last scene showing everybody reunited and happy.—At the Palmetto today.
