ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless of the Streets of Anderson

Beaware Today; Unlucky Date.
 Anderson people will do well to-day to beware of impending dangers and to take every precaution in anything involving a considerable sum of money, future happiness, health or love affairs. For why this great vigilance? Today is Friday, the 13th, and therefore a day on which ill-fortune may strike any and old alike. Should a citizen be so unfortunate as to let a black cat run across his path today and accept a two-dollar bill his fate will be sealed.

Congressman Hefflin Was Here Last Night.
 Congressman J. Thomas Hefflin of Alabama, who is making a speaking tour of South Carolina, spent last night in Anderson, the guest of Rev. Dr. W. H. Frazer. Mr. Hefflin spoke to a large audience in Anderson Monday night and delighted the crowd. The congressman expresses it as his opinion that the war in the foreign countries will hardly continue for more than another six months and expects it to be over with by next Spring. Dr. Frazer and Mr. Hefflin are meeting with success in their tour of the State and are delighting the audiences wherever they go.

Secured Judge For the Show.
 After trying all over the country to secure a suitable man to act in the capacity of judge for the coming poultry show, to be held in the Pepper building next Tuesday, the local fanciers have finally been successful and have secured H. H. Verhay of Augusta, Ga. This gentleman has judged some of the biggest shows in the United States and the Anderson poultry men should feel that they were fortunate in being able to get him. The coming poultry show is to be held under the auspices of the Anderson chamber of commerce and the Anderson County Poultry association.

Runaways Dashed Against Automobile.
 Taking fright at an approaching automobile on the square, a team of mules belonging to Mrs. Ed Smith ran away yesterday morning and did considerable damage. The animals were hitched to a wagon and a negro was driving. They ran into a telephone pole on the square, badly damaging wagon and harness, sideswiped T. J. Bell's automobile, doing it considerable damage, and then ran into the wagon of the Peoples Furriers company, knocking the horse attached to the furniture wagon to the ground and damaging the wagon. The furniture dealers doing business along the square say that they are always ready to receive customers but not when they are driving into the buildings in a wagon.

Unusual Number of Tourists Coming.
 People who spend much of their time upon the streets of the city are commenting on the fact that more tourists are coming through Anderson each day now than this city ever saw before. This certainly seems to indicate that times are not so hard all over the country and that some people have money. Most of the tourists coming through the city are bound for points in Florida.

Salvation Army Making Plans.
 The local post of the Salvation Army has already set about making plans for properly taking care of the poor people of the city when Christmas comes. They are trying on all sides to get sufficient funds to arrange for a splendid Christmas dinner and they are also collecting gifts of clothing, shoes, etc., that the poor people of the city may be materially aided. This is a work in which all Anderson should be interested and every one should be willing to give. Ensign Belcher and his assistants every possible encouragement.

Broke a Bone in His Toe.
 People with soft bones will learn with great alarm of an accident which occurred to John Bouchillon, as he was walking along Piedmont street Thursday night. Mr. Bouchillon stepped into a gully on one side of the pavement and as he did so he broke one of the small bones in his foot. He had an X-ray picture made of the injured member yesterday morning and a medical assistance was then rendered. He was forced to walk on crutches yesterday and is suffering much inconvenience as a result of the mishap.

Will Make Connections on the Carolina Special.
 As a result of the changes in schedule on the Piedmont and Northern lines, Anderson people will hereafter be able to go to Columbia via Spartanburg without having to experience a long and necessarily tiresome wait in Spartanburg. Since the changes have been made to the Carolina Special in both directions.

Contractor Promised To Build a Floor.
 According to telephone messages received in Anderson yesterday, a temporary floor will certainly be laid in the Anderson court house before court convenes next Monday morning. Some fear had been entertained that the work might not be finished but yesterday morning a member of the firm of Cox-Bitchell Lumber company, of Belton, the contractor in charge of the work, advised Anderson officials that the floor would be in place.

Holleman Named For Chairman Here.
 While Anderson people have not exactly fallen over themselves in an effort to contribute to the Belgium Relief Fund, started by The Intelligencer, it is possible that they will respond more readily since a special chairman for the work has been named in Anderson. There is a State association for this relief fund and the president of that association announced yesterday that he had named a chairman in every county in the State to prosecute the work. Lee G. Holleman, president of the Peoples Bank of Anderson was named for this county and from now on he will have supervision of the work.

Florence Idea May Be Tried Locally.
 Anderson people familiar with the idea advanced by the Florence chamber of commerce for having a "pay-up" day say that the idea might do very well here and it is possible that it will be put into execution at a later date. The idea is to set aside December 1 as pay-up day in Florence and on that date have all the farmers in the county owing money to bring in at least one bale of cotton. This will be paid on account to all those merchants and business men willing to accept it at 10 cents per pound. The idea seems to be a good one, according to some of Anderson's business men.

More Gamblers Are Being Tried.
 Magistrate Broadwell says that there is evidently no rest for the weary in a magistrate's position in Anderson county. During the past week he has had over 25 cases of gambling on his blotter and all of these have been tried and disposed of. Yesterday the magistrate tried the following cases: Jesse Williams, Jim Williams, Will Fice, Will Wiley and Luther Owens, all guilty of gambling and fined $20. Jim Jones and Warren Jones were convicted on a similar charge and sentenced to 30 days on the chain-gang while Albert Brown and Rufus Brown were tried and acquitted. As a result of the raids made by the county officers on the numerous "crap" games, Anderson county's treasury is considerably richer.

Cannon May Be Twice Under Bond.
 When attorneys for the prosecutor in the case appeared yesterday, and made oath that they believed the life of their client might possibly be in danger, as a result of threats made by one R. L. Cannon, Magistrate Broadwell had the officers go out and arrest Cannon. He was placed under an additional $200 bond by the magistrate to appear Saturday, at which time the question of placing him under a peace bond will be heard. It will be remembered that Cannon is under indictment for adultery in Anderson county and was only released on bond in this case Wednesday.

Pendleton Hills Will Vanish Soon.
 Chain-gang Number 1 was moved yesterday from the Brusky Creek township, where it has been located for several weeks, to Pendleton and the roads of the latter section are to see some real work done, according to J. Mack King, county supervisor. Mr. King said yesterday that he was not going to try to make better roads over the Pendleton hills but instead will make new roads if he can secure the consent of people living around Pendleton. If he can not get that consent they will have to put up with the old roads.

Sheriff Gave New $10,000 Bond.
 Sheriff Ashley yesterday filed his new $10,000 bond as sheriff for Anderson county. The old bond will expire within the next few days and all officials are required to be bonded, according to the importance of the office they hold. The bond was issued by the American Bonding company and has been placed in the office of the clerk of court.

Young Man Lost His Right Arm.
 While at work in a cotton gin being operated by John Drake, a young man named Dew Keaton lost his right arm last Wednesday evening. Keaton is about 30 years of age and is a well liked citizen of Martin township. He was attempting to get the gin machinery cleared up after it had clogged when his arm was ground to pieces about half-way between the elbow and the shoulder. It was said yesterday that he was doing as well as could be expected.

Little Cotton Sold Yesterday.
 Local cotton buyers were offered only 7-8 cents on the local market yesterday and but few bales of cotton were marketed.

Brought Over in For Display.
 L. C. Fisher of the Cotton section brought some of the best bales of cotton to Anderson yesterday and placed them on exhibition in the rooms of the Anderson chamber of commerce. Mr. Fisher says that this cotton was planted on June 1. He believes that his entire crop raised on upland will yield at least 20 bushels per acre.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach or bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.
 Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Interested in Appointment Here.

At the time for Postmaster Cochran's term at Anderson draws nearer and nearer there is great interest being manifested in all parts of the city over who will succeed Mr. Cochran in the local office. All the applicants are convinced that no other citizen has a chance at the job and there the situation stands. Mr. Aiken will necessarily make his recommendation within the next few weeks.

Mr. Wilson, knowing the love which each and every female, be she four or 40, has in her heart for dolls, bit upon the plan of giving this beautiful doll away on the plan of one coupon with every dollar paid on account, or purchased—provided the cash accompanied the purchase—and on Monday, December 7, to have some one draw out a lucky number from the hat, and then present the doll to the lucky one.

Friends and relatives of Dr. William H. Smith will be grieved to learn of his death which occurred in his home in Rushville, Indiana, on Tuesday of this week. # Macaroni

One of the big trades offered for Saturday and Monday down to 212 S. Main St., is Macaroni. Now just what about it. 3 pounds for 25c. Me and Ma have tried it and we know there is none better. And that Rio Coffee, 7 pounds for $1.00 is a wonder.

I tell you folks you can't afford to miss buying such good coffee so cheap.

And nowhere else can you buy 10-pound buckets of lard for 95c. Ma says her sister Jane pays $1.25 for the same lard. But we've heard it talked around that she don't pay her grocery bill every month. Me and Ma does and we get our groceries just like handling the money down for them. You should get to see that window all dressed up with fresh meats. There are whole hogs, quarters of beef, all pure sausage, pork chops, hams, mutton, etc. Just inside the store is fresh fish and oysters and they are beautiful. That good old cream cheese, mince meat, raisins, pickles, nuts, etc., makes a boy's eyes dance and his mouth run water. You can do as you please "Bud," but me and Ma are going to trade with

FROM SEPTUS

With the exception of Mrs. T. J. Elliott, who has been quite sick for the past month, the health of the community is good and we have at least this much for which to be thankful. With the harvest acreage of small grain already sown in this community and with a big corn crop to be planted in the spring, old King Cotton will get a shock in 1915 by the farmers of Septus that he will not soon forget. Very little cotton and guano, also, is the slogan of our people up here, Mr. Editor, and it's not going to take any made law to force us to it either.

Mr. Jack Elgin and sister, Miss Aylis of Anderson made a flying trip to Septus last Tuesday.

Mrs. Fat Franck of Ninety-Six is spending a few days with her brother, Dr. W. S. Hutchinson and family. We were indeed sorry to hear of the death of our friend Mr. R. A. Mullikin of Beavertown, "Lon" Mullikin, as he was known to his friends, was a model husband and father. He was a good friend, a fine neighbor and a high-toned Christian citizen and with this, what greater heritage could he have left his loved ones.

We very deeply sympathize with the bereaved wife and children in their sad affliction.

Prof. Jerry—Yes, boys, the pen is mightier than the sword. Ralph McAllister—Then Professor, could a boy be prosecuted for carrying weapons when caught with a fountain pen in his pocket?

Miss Annie Mullikin of Abbeville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mullikin here last Saturday and Sunday.

One way of saving money is to only lend that fellow five dollars when he strikes you for a ten spot.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Elliott and little son of Birmingham, Ala., are here to spend several weeks with Mr. Elliott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Elliott.

And now it is said that a Pendleton lady has changed the color of her hair from brown to red in order to gratify her husband's request.

Elderly man—Father—And now, my son, if you live beyond your income you are sure to come to grief.

Son—And if I have to live within my income, dad, I am going to perish to death.

Says an army of good porkers will soon meet their Waterloo at the hands of the Septus farmers. Already our friend Allen McAllister has sent the writer a nice dish of fresh sausage, ground and seasoned to the queen's taste. Who'll be the next? The Lord loves a cheerful giver, and so does
