

THE ANDERSON INTELLIGENCER FOUNDED AUGUST 1, 1860. 126 North Main Street ANDERSON, S. C. W. W. SMOAK, Editor and Bus. Mgr. WATSON BELL, City Editor. PHILIPS SASSEEN, Advertising Mgr. B. GODFREY, Circulation Mgr. ADAMS, Telegraph Editor and Foreman.

ONLY 25 More Shopping Days Before Xmas. The Weather: Fair and warmer Sunday; Monday fair. OUR DAILY THOUGHT: Tomorrow you have no business with you...

ON THE SQUARE. The local morning paper says it holds no brief for the Southern Public Utilities Company. We don't know anything about a "brief," neighbor...

OUR DAILY POEM. Love her today. Fold your arms around her. Smooth back her hair, whose gentle sunbeams play. May your wild strength, unblashed, may be bound her.

OUR DAILY THOUGHT. Tomorrow you have no business with you. It is God's. Every day has in it enough to keep any man occupied with his own concerns.

THE SIN OF LYING. In conversation with a gentleman yesterday the remark was made that there are many sins being committed in Anderson, but that in his opinion there are none of them comparable to the sin of lying, and especially does this seem true in Anderson at this time, according to the gentleman.

TO THE PEOPLE OF ANDERSON: I shall adhere to my resolution to refrain from any further discussion of the "franchise" question except when I think it necessary to make corrections or to reply to those who discuss the issues in a proper manner at a proper time and through proper sources.

ON THE SQUARE. The local morning paper says it holds no brief for the Southern Public Utilities Company. We don't know anything about a "brief," neighbor, but the whole town believes that corporation owns you body and soul.

OUR DAILY POEM. Love her today. Fold your arms around her. Smooth back her hair, whose gentle sunbeams play. May your wild strength, unblashed, may be bound her.

OUR DAILY THOUGHT. Tomorrow you have no business with you. It is God's. Every day has in it enough to keep any man occupied with his own concerns.

THE CITY ATTORNEY'S REPLY TO CAPT. WATKINS

TO THE PEOPLE OF ANDERSON: I shall adhere to my resolution to refrain from any further discussion of the "franchise" question except when I think it necessary to make corrections or to reply to those who discuss the issues in a proper manner at a proper time and through proper sources.

ON THE SQUARE. The local morning paper says it holds no brief for the Southern Public Utilities Company. We don't know anything about a "brief," neighbor, but the whole town believes that corporation owns you body and soul.

OUR DAILY POEM. Love her today. Fold your arms around her. Smooth back her hair, whose gentle sunbeams play. May your wild strength, unblashed, may be bound her.

OUR DAILY THOUGHT. Tomorrow you have no business with you. It is God's. Every day has in it enough to keep any man occupied with his own concerns.

OUR DAILY THOUGHT. Tomorrow you have no business with you. It is God's. Every day has in it enough to keep any man occupied with his own concerns.

Advertisement for B. O. Grant Co. featuring an illustration of a man in a top hat and a dog. Text: 'If you've heard the reports about our new overcoats you know there are some loud propositions in the bunch. The styles that hit the mark of popularity in New York are here.'

MAOR GODFREY MAKES REPLY. Addresses Letter to President Taylor of The Southern Public Utilities Company. The following is Mayor Godfrey's reply to President Taylor's letter published in Friday's Intelligencer.

AT THE CHURCHES. First Baptist Church. 9:45 Teachers' Prayer Service. 10: Sabbath School, Dr. A. L. Smethers, supt.

OUR DAILY THOUGHT. Tomorrow you have no business with you. It is God's. Every day has in it enough to keep any man occupied with his own concerns.

OUR DAILY THOUGHT. Tomorrow you have no business with you. It is God's. Every day has in it enough to keep any man occupied with his own concerns.

Advertisement for W. A. Power featuring an illustration of a man carrying a large sack of flour. Text: 'Just a Word About Flour. Mother says "Aunt Rose" is the finest self-rising flour on Earth. W. A. Power, 212 S. Main.'