Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wire on the Streets of Anderson

Turkeys Offered On Local Market.
The fears entertained by some people that there were no turkeys to be offered for sale on the local market were yesterday proved groundless. Every wagon arriving in Anderson from the country brought three or four of the great American birds and throughout the day Anderson men were buying turkeys. The birds were here in profusion and brought prices ranging from $1.50 to $2.50.

Elizah Fleming In The Tolls.
Charged with having partaken of too much fluid which surreptitiously steals away the reason, and with having indulged in considerable disorderly conduct, to the annoyance of the residents of the Anderson mill village, Elizah Fleming was taken in tow last night by Sheriff Ashley and Assistant and lodged in the county jail.

Sheriff Reeder Is Some Speaker.
Parties returning to Anderson last night from Dunklin township, which is situated in the lower extremity of Greenville county, brought reports of a strong educational address made yesterday at the West Dunklin graded school by Sheriff Hendrix Reeder of Greenville. Harry H. Harris, also of Greenville, was among the speakers at the meeting, and is credited with having made a stirring talk.

Weather Warmer Here Yesterday.
After pleading with the coal men for three or four days in an effort to get more credit, after searching up every old overcoat, blanket, quilt, etc., on the premises, and then after shivering for three days the public of Anderson experienced a feeling of delight when the weather moderated considerably yesterday. For the past several days it has been unreasonably cold and the warmer weather proved very grateful to the Anderson public.

Sheriff Golbs To Georgia.
Sheriff Ashley received advice yesterday that the authorities at Monticello, Ga., had apprehended one Richard Henry, colored, who is wanted here on charges of larceny. Sheriff Ashley will go to the Georgia city today for the purpose of escorting Henry back to Anderson.

"White Hope" Wants a Scrap.
Anderson's public would feel just about as much at home over in the European war as it would at a prize fight or a boxing match, but evidently "Bully" Porter of Greenville does not know that. A letter was received in Anderson yesterday, addressed to the manager of the Anderson opera house, in which the pugilist advised that he would like to stage a 15-round boxing match in this city. As yet no one has agreed to take up his offer.

Keese Is Buying On Cotton Market.
Walter H. Keese of the well known jewelry firm of that name, has thrown his hat into the ring in the cotton buying business and is now boasting of some 25 or 30 bales of cotton, taken in exchange for merchandise. Mr. Keese says that he is not afraid of the cotton market and that he is willing to do all he can to help out the cotton farmers. The young farmers with an idea of getting married are appreciative of this action, since one bale of cotton at 16 cents per pound just about buys a beautiful diamond ring.

FROM NOVEMBER 1ST TO NOVEMBER 30TH, WALLACE WILL GIVE REDUCED RATES ON PHOTOGRAPHS TO AVOID CHRISTMAS BUSH. STUDIO 2 DOORS BELOW

Cotton Around Seven Cents Yet.
There was little change in the cotton market in Anderson yesterday and throughout the day the best price offered was 7 cents per pound. The staple and the inferior grades commanded only 6.1-4 and 6.1-2 cents.

Just because the carnival exhibiting in this city is out in North Anderson and therefore not under police protection is no license for a man to get drunk and raise Cain. County officers brought H. L. Cathey before Magistrate Breadwell yesterday on a charge of being drunk on the carnival grounds Friday night. Cathey was tried, during which about 40 witnesses offered testimony, was adjudged guilty by the magistrate and was sentenced to pay a fine of $5. The trial of this case took up the entire morning in magistrates court.

Turning Jail Into Asylum.
For awhile Friday night certain members of the police department thought that the city jail was to be turned into an asylum. A man, crazed with the effect of cocaine was taken in charge at the carnival grounds and brought to the city jail and he made the night hideous with his yells and groans. Shortly after his arrival another man was brought in suffering from the effects of "cocaine sniffing" and he too took up the attention of the police until a late hour yesterday morning. No charge was lodged against either of the men.

Mrs. Earle Barton and Mrs. Ed Alkmon will spend today with friends in Greenville.

NO HOUSE IS A HOME WITHOUT A PIANO

The father of the family enjoys the piano because it soothes and rests him after a day of business cares, and brings enjoyment into his life.

The mother of the household is tempted by the piano to take many a delightful hour from her manifold duties to enjoy the recreation she requires.

The daughter perhaps enjoys the piano most of all, for it makes her home a social centre and helps tremendously in the entertainment of her friends.
