MRS. W. A. HUDGENS, Editor, Phone 37.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Muldrow and children have gone to Myesville to visit relatives.

Miss Carrie Fretwell has gone to Highland, Ga., to visit her brother with friends.

Miss Eubank Taylor left yesterday for Highland, Ga., to visit her brother, Mr. R. T. Taylor.

Mrs. Robert Russell of Clinton is at the Anderson County hospital. Her friends hope she will soon be quite well again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Speer have gone to Monterey to spend Sunday.

Palmetto Chapter.
A beautiful and thoroughly enjoyable meeting of the Palmetto chapter, U. D. C., was held on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. J. Muldrow. Both parlors and hall were all thrown together and beautifully decorated with cut flowers and made an attractive meeting place for the members, and a few invited friends who were present on this special occasion. The program was unusually enjoyable and consisted of three very sweet solos by Mrs. F. M. Burnett, a bright instrumental selection by Mrs. Charles Smith, a recitation by Mrs. Frank Cook, a number on the program that was especially pretty was the cello solo by Mr. Witt McCauley, accompanied by Mrs. O. F. Martin. To those who have never heard Mr. McCauley, this was a rare treat. While his playing always gives pleasure whenever heard, Mrs. Muldrow served an elegant menu—scalloped oysters, potato chips, hot rolls, sandwiches, hot coffee and whipped cream. This was assisted by Mrs. Raymond Fretwell, Mrs. W. A. Speer, Mrs. G. F. Kelly, Misses Annie Cooley, Eubank Taylor and Winnie Frazier, while Mrs. W. H. Frazier poured coffee.

Miss Vance.
Many friends of Miss Caroline Vance, formerly of this city, but now in Columbia, will be glad to hear she is now in Greenville and will come to Anderson some time in the coming week for a visit to friends here.

In Honor of the College Faculty.
The largest and most brilliant social event of the week was the reception at which the ladies of the Anderson College Association entertained on Thursday afternoon in honor of the faculty. Anderson is justly proud of her beautiful college with its lovely grounds for it is one of the prettiest public buildings in upper South Carolina.

The reception of Thursday was held in the beautiful parlors of the main building, which were particularly attractive with ferns and palms gracefully arranged everywhere.

In the receiving line were the officers of the association, with their guests of honor and some of the trustees and their wives. The officers are: Mrs. J. O. Wilhite, president; Mrs. Ernest Cochran, first vice president; Mrs. John Hubbard, second vice president; Miss Helen Burries, treasurer; Miss Bessie Major, secretary. The honor guests were Dr. and Mrs. Kinard, Misses Sara Straathan, Felicia Murray, Florence Mattox, Helen Smith, Mary Ramsour, Mary Abbott, Hazel Alward, Nelle Smith, Robbie Wakefield, Kate Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Goode, Mrs. John Lee, Dr. Olga Pruitt, Mr. C. M. Faithful, Mr. J. H. Williams. Others in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin, Dr. W. H. Frazier, Col. J. N. Brown, Mrs. H. H. Watkins, Mrs. Prue Clinkscales, Mrs. A. L. Smethers and the seniors of the college, Misses Esther and Bessie Lawrence, Hattie Jackson, Margaret Clinkscales and Una Pettigrew.

Delightful music during the afternoon was furnished by Mrs. W. B. Steele, Miss Rhoda Vandiver and Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. J. E. Townsend and Miss Margaret Evans met the guests at the door, while others who with Mrs. Rufus Fant as chairman, assisted in entertaining and looking after the guests were Mesdames J. R. Vandiver, B. A. Henry, W. H. Frazier, Mamie Brown, Louis Horton, Harleston Barton, J. W. Quattlebaum, C. S. Minor, D. A. Ledbetter, Leon Rice, J. H. Godfrey, George Evans, J. W. von Hasseln, C. F. Bolt.

In the dining room where refreshments were served the following ladies served, with Mrs. J. P. Sullivan as chairman, Mrs. C. B. Earle, Mrs. Eugene Watkins, Mrs. C. P. Sullivan, Misses Helen Patrick, Rhoda Vandiver, Annie Chapman, Louise Ligon, Lucile Burries and Mrs. R. W. Tribble.

Hundreds of ladies and gentlemen came and went during the afternoon and the occasion was marked by its cordiality and informality, every one feeling a deeper interest and pride in Anderson College and the splendid work being done there for the young women, not only of our community, but of our Southland.

A Delightful Party.
Another delightful party, that was the source of great pleasure to the little folks was the party given on Friday evening by Master Richard Laughlin in honor of his 12th birthday. From 6:30 to 9:30 about 45 little people gathered at his home on Greenville street and spent the time playing games. The young host was assisted in receiving his guests by his sister, little Miss Avery Laughlin, while Masters Ernest Cochran, William Martin and Dan Ledbetter assisted him in entertaining his guests. During the evening dainty refreshments were served by Misses Ella Avery, Kate Crayton and Lena Clinkscales.

Miss Moseley Entertains.
A very happy party for the "baby folks" was that of little Miss Ellen Moseley, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moseley on Tuesday afternoon at their home on Manning street. All the games dear to children's hearts were played and the afternoon was a very merry one for those present. A delightful sweet course was served and each little one went home lovingly wishing their little hostess many happy returns of the day.

Miss Claudia Osborne Entertains.
A pretty party for the young people was that on Tuesday evening, when Miss Claudia Osborne entertained about 50 of her friends from 6 to 8. A lovely color scheme of red was most effectively carried out in the decorations, with many beautiful red roses everywhere. Many red candles gave a charming ruddy glow over it all.

The pretty little hostess, in a beautiful red suit, with Master Richard Laughlin met her guests at the door. An unique contest about a drawing of a turkey, appropriate to the Thanksgiving season, furnished much merriment and fun, the boy's prize being won by Edward Howard; the girls' prize by Miss Marie Marshall, and the booby by Richard Laughlin. In the sitting room Misses Virginia Glimmer and Thelma Osborne served delightful punch. In the beautifully decorated dining room red was again the color scheme, a large basket of ferns and red geraniums making a pretty centerpiece for the table with red maline, with long streamers caught to the chandelier above. Here a sweet course was served by Misses Virginia and Frances Marshall, assisted by Miss Kate Crayton and Miss Aline Turner.

In Honor of Mrs. Allen at Lowndesville.
One of the lovely pre-nuptial attentions shown Miss Ida Allen, whose marriage to Mr. Russell S. Garner, is an event of the coming week, was a miscellaneous shower given at the beautiful home of Mrs. Ernest F. Latimer on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Latimer is a charming hostess and her hospitality was never more in evidence than on this occasion.

Palms and ferns were tastefully arranged in hall, living and dining room and many candles shed a soft light over the festive scene. Miss Lucy Powell, dressed as Ceres, goddess of the harvest, was introduced to Miss Allen and the guests by the hostess. She greeted the bride in a happy manner and invited her and her friends into the dining room to see the gifts she and her subjects had provided for her.

A handsome embroidered lunch cloth covered the dining table on which was placed a decorated hamper which contained the lovely and useful collection of presents. The harvest idea was more fully carried out by having a huge pumpkin carved into a perfect basket and filled with fruits of the season.

Mrs. R. L. Smith, assisted by Misses Elizabeth Bell and Lucy Powell, served an elaborate and delicious salad course, followed by mince and coffee. The bride-elect received her attentions very gracefully and was never more lovely in an exquisite Redingote model of old blue, with black velvet hat and furs.

Among those present were: Mesdames B. B. Allen, I. H. McCalla, John McCalla, Leon Clinkscales, R. L. Smith, Thos. O. Kirkpatrick, W. M. Speer, R. H. Moseley, E. W. Harper, A. J. Speer, E. J. Huckabee, S. B. Cook, Thos. D. Cooley, Lewis Barkdale, Theophilus Baker, Emma Lettmer, G. F. Speer, J. C. Chandler, J. B. Moseley, J. N. Huckabee, W. M. Thompson, Misses Ida Allen, Ida Watson of Anderson, Ellen Tennent, Mattie Lee Harper, Elizabeth Bell and Lucy Powell.

Mrs. Lettmer's elegant home, French bungalow type, has recently been completed and this afforded an occasion for her many friends to enjoy and admire it.

Miss Murray to Marry.
The many friends of the family will be interested in the following announcement:
Mrs. Eva Murray announces the engagement of her daughter, Felicia, to Mr. Joseph Johnston Reed of Knoxville, Tenn., the wedding to take place the latter part of January, 1915.

Mr. Eed is a prominent business man of his home State and is a member of a prominent family. Their wedding will be an event of interest here and throughout the State where Miss Murray is so well known.

In Honor of Two Brides.
Miss Pal Dean and Miss Mary Thompson, two brides of next week, were the honor guests on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Hunter Thompson entertained about 50 of her friends at her pretty home on Prevost street. At the door, the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Robert Burns and Mrs. Thompson received in the parlor with her two honorees and Miss Anna Bell Dean. The whole house was sweet with the fragrance of many pink roses which were the only decoration, except ferns. During the afternoon little Miss Frances Burns, robed as a beautiful little bride, with a long veil, came into the parlor to the sweet strains of the wedding march and invited the guests into the beautifully decorated dining room where a delightful supper course was served by Misses Louise Bigby, Anna Bell Dean and Agatha Spellman. It was a delightfully pleasant afternoon and a pretty compliment to Miss Dean and Miss Thompson.

Mrs. Frederick Atkinson of Boston.
who has been the guest of Mrs. W. E. Atkinson, left Friday for New York.

Mrs. J. F. Atkinson of Chester. is here visiting her son, Mr. W. E. Atkinson, and her daughter, Mrs. George Byeman.

Mrs. J. D. Maxwell has gone to Winston-Salem to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Clinard, after a visit of several weeks to Mrs. T. F. Shuford at Mrs. O. B. Van Wyck's.

Due West Alumnae.
A most pleasant meeting of the Due West Alumnae was held with Mrs. J. E. Breazeale on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Though the weather was cold, the meeting was well attended and several visitors were present to enjoy the meeting.

"England" was the topic for the afternoon. The members responded to roll call describing a city of England.

After an item of interest from each concern, the history of England, Mrs. Daisy Wilson gave a talk on "England's Industries." Miss Bessie Major, who had just made a trip abroad was invited to give a description of London, which was indeed splendid. Miss Jean Harris then read an article pertaining to "England in the Present War."

Miss Orr, sister of Mrs. J. E. Brown, favored the guests with several solos which were very much enjoyed.

During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Frank Burries in January. The December meeting being postponed on account of Christmas holidays.

Wharton-Gray.
A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of the Whartons, near Iva, Thursday at noon when Mr. Charlie Gray and Miss Annie Wharton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Mrs. A. B. Wharton welcomed the guests as they arrived.

Promptly at 12 o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Mrs. E. W. Masters, the bridal party entered. First Mr. Keys Bowman, then Miss Iva Bowman, nephew and niece of the bride. Then came the bride with her maid of honor, Miss Lizzie White, of Ninety Six, preceded by the little flower girl, Alice Mechine, of Lowndesville. They were met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. John Gray. In the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends Rev. S. J. Hood of Iva performed a very impressive ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests were ushered into the dining room by Mrs. J. W. Wharton, where an elegant dinner was served by Mesdames Bowman, Mechine, Clinkscales and Watt, assisted by Misses Mattie and Varina Clinkscales.

Souvenirs of the occasion were little silver bells, tied with pink ribbon. These were pinned on by little Edna McGee and Virginia Ligon of Iva.

The bride was becomingly attired in her going away suit of Copenhagen blue with hat to match, carrying as her bouquet white chrysanthemums.

Amid a shower of rice the bride and groom sped away to Anderson, where they will go to Atlanta for a few days to visit relatives, after which they will be at home to their friends.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers, and other dependent ills.

Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative- tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.
