

With Church Women

present and had a splendid program on Cuba. Good bible reading, led by Kathleen Burris, participated in by about a dozen girls.

The principal business was planning for a Thanksgiving party next Wednesday afternoon. The members will meet at chairman's and bring a pound of something good. They will eat half and take the other half to some shut in or needy one to make Thanksgiving day a happy one.

Each girl had been asked to bring a flower and after all had brought them up and laid them on the table, the leader took a chrysanthemum and talked to the girls of God's love of beauty and fragrance. Also the fact that the flowers are not part... in giving out their beauty and fragrance just to a few, but are sweet to all. So should Christians be sweet and lovely to all.

The society decided to send the flowers to the patients in the ward at the hospital, so they were taken after the meeting.

The girls will soon begin the study of the mission study book, "Goodbird, the Indian." Altogether this was one of the best meetings the club has held this year, and all were enthusiastic and attentive. The girls bid fair to be splendid, capable women in a few more years, but they are not waiting for womanhood before being useful, but are doing many sweet, helpful things now.

Choir of Grace Episcopal church will serve a supper for the Churchmen's Club on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. building.

Mission Study Class.
On Tuesday afternoon the Mission Study Class met at the church studying "The King's Business." Mrs. John F. Vines, the leader, being absent, Mrs. A. L. Smathers, the vice leader, took charge. There was a most interesting discussion by those present, the subject being work of the educational department of an ideal missionary society. The class decided to recommend several plans to be tried by the local society.

Missionary Society.
The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met November 16, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. J. W. Quattlebaum, first vice president, presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. F. Vines, who is out of town. The society heartily endorsed the action of the Civic Association in their recent resolutions in regard to objectionable moving pictures, vaudeville and anything else liable to lower the moral standard of the spectators. Several interesting talks were made by members on this subject.

It was decided to have an utility shower at the meeting of the various divisions of the society the first Monday in December. The things to be sent as Christmas presents to the children at County Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood.

The secretary of the society, Mrs. Will King, was instructed to write and find out the ages and names of children in two cottages and the gifts will be sent to them. Mrs. Raymond Mattoon was appointed to write an open letter to the Baptist Courier suggesting that other societies carry out the same plan, so that none of the children be neglected. Splendid personal service reports were given. Program gave way to the report of the delegates, who had attended the recent convention in Newberry, Mrs. E. W. Masters and Miss Bessie Major.
