Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for Croup

Croup scares you. The loud hoarse croupy cough, choking and gasping for breath, labored breathing, call for immediate relief. The very first doses of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will master the croup. It cuts the thick mucus, clears away the rhinogen and opens up and eases the air passages. Harold Berg, Mass., Mich., writes "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." Every user is a friend, Evans Pharmacy.

Commerical and Financial

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Cotton was unsettled today and fluctuations were irregular within a range of some 13 or 15 points. Increasing exports and reports of steady southern spot markets encouraged scattered buying, but a nearly advance attracted a renewal of December liquidation and prices later eased off with the close steady net 3 points higher, to 8 points lower. Private cables reported splinters calling in Liverpool, where prices were 2 or 3 points better than due on the New York close of Saturday, and the local opening was 2 to 6 points higher. There was a little southern selling after the call, but covering by Liverpool and local shorts sent December contracts up to 7.28, or 12 points net higher, and later months sold some 4 to 7 points Saturday's close in sympathy. At this level offerings became more liberal with spot people selling December against purchases of May and the list turned dealer with active positions showing net losses of some 3 to 6 point.

Rallies of 5 or 6 points followed on covering and reports that the way had been cleared for exports of cotton through Holland as well as for exports to belligerents through Italy. Local spot brokers report that domestic mills are still holding off as a rule, owing to the large available supply, and expectations that it ultimately will make a better buying basis and the bulk of the present demand is supposed to come from abroad. Today's exports were the largest reported for any one day since the beginning of the war, amounting to 55,587 bales which brought the total for the season up to 1,049,977 bales. Port receipts today were 10,877 bales and United States port stocks 1,100,488 bales.

Spot cotton steady; middling uplands 7.75; Gulf 8.00; no sales. Cotton futures closed steady.

Month	Open	High	Low	Close
Dec. old	7.28	7.33	7.23	7.29

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 23.—After scoring an advance of 6 to 7 points cotton futures became dull today and closed 4 points up to 2 point down, compared with the last price of Saturday. Little selling developed, shorts being more disposed to watch the December position than increase their lines.

Opinion concerning the meaning of the heavy gunning thus far this season veered today and favored the long side. A vast area of cotton land is being plowed and seeded to wheat and crop experts express the opinion that farmers hastened their plowing and seeding in order to be able to put wheat crops in, thereby causing bearishness in cotton. Some brokers think it was predicted that the substitution of wheat and other crops for cotton might before long become one of the most important features in the situation.

The beginning of a demand for investment purposes was noted and it appeared partly to be created by the excess of shipments over receipts at ports this week.

Spot cotton quiet. Sales on the spot 110 bales; to arrive 1,450. Cotton futures closing:

December, old	7.26
January, new	7.29
March, old	7.38

Cotton Movement

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 23.—The United States ports are shipping cotton faster than they are receiving it and at this time of the year the movement from the interior to the port generally is at its height. This week's receipts at all ports tonight amounted to 115,280 bales, while shipments of all kinds, including coastwise clearances, amounted to 229,920 bales. Total foreign exports accorded to this week are 17,527 bales. Of the 229,444 bales shipped coastwise it is thought the bulk is destined for northern mills.

As the result of the heavy shipments port stocks are lighter than they were at the end of the week by nearly 20,000 bales; such a shrinkage seldom is seen in the autumn. Stocks at ports are 1,100,478 bales.

Exporters and freight brokers predict a further increase in shipments during the next six weeks as the result of the filling of November engagements in the first place and December engagements afterwards.

STOCKS AND BONDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—That the stock exchange is certain to reopen for limited business before the end of the month was the substance of the assurances received today from responsible banking and brokerage authorities. It was feared most of the banks with Wall Street connections now favor resumption of bond trading subject, of course, to price concessions.

Some houses of prominence asserted that, buying orders on their books far exceeded offers to sell, but the prospective demand it was stated, was limited almost entirely to high grade issues.

Houses with German connections freely admitted the possibility of heavy selling orders and intimations along these lines were also conveyed by bankers representing French and Dutch interests. Reopening of the Chicago stock exchange attracted considerable attention. The fact that some of more active stocks traded in there changed hands at prices approximating July 30 quotations was observed with satisfaction. Dealings were on a moderate scale and denoted much caution.

The market for foreign exchange failed to reflect any developments of consequence across the water. Cables and sight bills on London were notably higher because of increased demand in which cotton figured prominently.

Money for all dates was offered at 5 per cent indicating further monetary ease. News from the Middle West indicated an awakening of activity in various lines of industry.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Nothing but nearly six months' writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

"I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles."

"Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me."

"At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was just what I needed, and it really seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing."

"I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

"If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 30 years."

SHANDON CHURCH SWEEP BY FIRE

Firemen Handicapped by Break in Main—Sunday School Room is Saved.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 23.—Fire yesterday practically destroyed the handsome brick building of the Shandon Methodist church at Maple and Front streets. The Sunday school room, a piano, a few pews and the bell, were about all the salvage. The loss is almost covered by insurance. The fire was discovered about 3:45 o'clock between the ceiling and the roof. The Presbyterians of Shandon are using the Methodist church for Sunday school on Sunday afternoon and Sunday school was to begin at 4 o'clock. Fortunately only a handful of children had gathered when the fire broke out and they easily made their escape. Had the fire occurred half an hour later there would have been many children in the building.

Schooner Damaged in Collision

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 23.—The three-masted schooner William H. Sumner, Captain Williams, from New York to load coal for Charleston, S. C., was badly damaged in collision with the United States battleship North Dakota Saturday night. The accident occurred as the schooner was coming in and the warship bound out for the drill grounds. A target towed by the North Dakota punched a great hole in the Sumner's side. She is here awaiting repairs. It is reported that an investigation of the accident has been ordered by the navy department.

Has Recognized Convention.

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 23.—A telegram today from San Luis Potosi, where Villa's officials are in power, said that General Lucio Blanco, commander at Mexico City, had recognized the convention party. Blanco was quoted as reporting to Provisional President Guerrero that he had arrested Generals Obregon, Hay and Villarreal.

Villa troops today rushed repairs of the railroads to expedite their entry into the national capital.

Classified advertising in this paper costs you so little for the net average of results that the charge is almost negligible.

Take a real estate ad for instance. A "For Sale" notice may sell your property right off the bat. You save anywhere from, say, $25 to $200 commission. Even if the ad is kept in many times the cost is nothing. That's just one way classified ads pay.

HAPPINESS.

A man who dedicates his life to knowledge becomes habituated to pleasure which carries with it no reproach; and there is one security that he will never lose that pleasure, which is paid for by English of heart-beats, his pleasures are all cheap, all dignified and all innocent, and, as far as any human being can expect permanence in this changing scene, he has secured a happiness which no malignity of fortune can ever take away, but which must cleave to him while he lives, ameliorating every good and diminishing every evil of his existence.—Sydney Smith.

STARR

STARR, Nov. 24.—On last Saturday afternoon the Stephen D. Leo Chapter U. D. C. was delightfully entertained by Mrs. C. D. Watson at "Comfort Side," her pretty home. In spite of the very cold weather, a large number of the members, and invited guests were present to enjoy this unusually pleasant occasion, and all thoughts of the cold without were quickly banished by the bright warm fires and very hospitable manner of the hostess.

After the meeting was called to order, Mrs. R. W. Mathews our new president, in a few well chosen words expressed her appreciation of the honor the Chapter had conferred on her by selecting her as president. A few items of business were disposed of, after which the following entertaining program was carried out. A piano solo by Miss Annie Halford; a paper, "What Christmas Means to the Women of Europe"—By Miss Mildred Goode; a vocal solo by Mrs. Fulmer Watson of Anderson. A selection "Mirandy's Views on Woman's Rights"—By Miss Luther Dean. Mrs. Halford then played a Medley of Southern Patriotic Airs, and the hearty encore was and responded to with a bright and catchy selection. Mrs. Claude Jones and Mrs. Feaster Jones invited the Chapter to meet with them at the home of the former on the third Saturday afternoon in December.

During the social hour Mrs. Watson served her guests to an elaborate menu. In the main dining room beautifully decorated with pots of ferns and vases of flowers, tempting salad course was served and as the guests finished here, they were invited into a cozy adjoining room, where they were served with coffee, chestnuts, stuffed dates and mints.

Assisting Mrs. Watson in serving were: Miss Robinson, Miss Lula Dean and Little Bess Allen Jones. Hotel Colonia was a scene of good cheer and hospitable greeting on last Saturday evening when Mrs. J. H. Pruitt and Miss Lina Simpson entertained a large number of their friends.

Prof. Lucoo Gunter, State Rural School Inspector, visited the Starr school the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulmer Watson and Mrs. Amanda Watson of Anderson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Watson on last Saturday.

Dr. Edwin Hall's lecture on "Tater Digging" was given in the school auditorium last Monday night and was appreciated and enjoyed by those present.

The School Improvement Association will serve oysters all day next Saturday, the 28th, in Mr. A. S. Bower's store room. You can get a stew, or anything you are looking for in that line so don't hesitate to patronize the ladies.

Rev. J. L. Singleton goes today to Sumter to attend conference and the people here will be solely disappointed if he should not be returned to this work another year.

Mrs. J. H. Pruitt and Mrs. A. E. Dean, who attended the W. C. T. convention in Atlanta last week, came home very much pleased and enthused by what they saw and heard during the session.

Friends of Mrs. L. O. McCalla are glad to know that she is improving after having been ill all during last week.

HOPEWELL

The day school is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. S. M. Mahaffey and Miss Mary Teague.

We regret that we do not see anything from our school in print.

Little Jack Mahaffey who has been suffering with rheumatism for the past two months, is improving rapidly and was able to attend Sunday school last Sunday.

Mr. C. A. Wellborne of Greenville made a flying trip to Hopewell last Sabbath and visited home folks.

Misses Robbie and Cleo Mosely visited Mrs. S. M. Mahaffey Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Trayham visited relatives in Piedmont Sunday.

Miss Ruth Martin spent Sunday afternoon very pleasantly with Miss Mollie Wellborne.

We regret very much to learn of the loss of one of our splendid citizens Mr. B. L. Mitchell, who has recently moved out of town. Our loss is Anderson's gain.

Mr. D. B. McPhail and family visited at the home of Mr. R. L. Wellborne Sunday.

Messrs. Jesse Duckworth and Hamp Trayham each made their usual call Sunday afternoon.

S. C. COLLEGE CRAYTON SCHOOL

COLUMBIA, Nov. 23.—The annual football classic between the Citadel and Carolina to be played here next Thursday at the league park, will bring the University's 1914 football season to a close. After that there will follow the annual so-called games to determine the class championship for the season. The class teams are already at practice in anticipation of the contests. In addition to the regular class games, there will be a battle between the law classes.

The game between the Gamecocks and the Bulldogs will be largely attended. Both of the opposing teams are in the best of trim for the game. Carolina is the strongest that she has been during the season, and the Citadel again has all of her stars in the game. It will be remembered that last year's game was a landslide for Carolina. It is the consensus of opinion among the local sports that the odds are two to one in favor of Carolina.

Dr. Mark Baldwin, sometime a resident of Columbia and now one of the country's foremost psychologists, delivered a very interesting lecture in the chapel Wednesday morning.

The principle topic considered by the South Carolina Association of Colleges which met here in an annual convention the past week-end, had to do with college entrance requirements. After the convention there was held at the suggestion of Dr. W. S. Currell, president of the University, a meeting of the State Colleges; this with a view to bringing the State institutions into a closer relationship with one another.

A class has for the first time in the history of the University, been formed at the gymnasium for the co-ed. The classes will be held under a capable instructor two afternoons out of the week.

The November number of The Carolinian has been given into the hands of publishers and will be issued from the press within the course of a few days.

Having exhausted the first edition, the University is having printed a second edition of the bulletin, "The School a Social Center," by George Edwards of the University. The demands for this work have been great and have come from all parts of the country. Copies of the second edition may be had upon application as soon as the bulletin is printed.
