

MARVELS OF YELLOWSTONE PARK IN VAST REPRODUCTION PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, SAN FRANCISCO, 1915

Copyright, 1914, by Panama Pacific International Exposition Company. One of the most marvelous features of the huge Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco in 1915 will be a gigantic reproduction of the Yellowstone National park, built by the Union Pacific railroad at a cost of $400,000, under the supervision of Mr. J. R. Kathrens, the famous producer, who is now in San Francisco supervising the work.

Commerical and Financial

Financial (By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Apart from its greater breadth today's market for listed bonds on the stock exchange continued the sluggish movement of the preceding session.

Table with columns for Open, High, Low, Close for various commodities like Cotton, Sugar, and Coffee.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—Fluctuations in the price of cotton today were narrow and sluggish. In the morning the most active months were 2 points over yesterday's close; in the afternoon they were 4 points under.

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 1.—Cotton, spot, good inquiry, prices steady. American middling fair 5.38; good middling 4.70; middling 4.41; low middling 3.95; good ordinary 3.25; ordinary 2.80.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—There was a renewal of December liquidation in cotton here today and prices eased off. The close was steady at a net decline of 1 to 10 points.

Cotton Seed Oil

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Cotton seed oil was weak, closing 1 to 21 points net lower. The decline was the result of freer and cheaper offerings of crude oil from Texas, scattered liquidation by longs and with the break in lard. Sales 13,600 barrels.

Dry Goods

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Massachusetts Woolen mills today reported orders for many cloths to be shipped abroad. Much was being exported freely. Silks showed a slight improvement. Cotton goods were quiet. Wide sheetings were revised 21-2c a yard.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Diminishing of receipts in the southwest helped today to give an upward swing to wheat prices although gains were not fully held. The market closed steady at 3-8@1-2 to 3-4 net advance. Corn wound up the same as last night, 2-8 higher and oats up 1-8 to 1-4.

A charming affair yesterday—quite an innovation on the calendar of beautiful social affairs—was the Fan's Christmas reception held yesterday afternoon at Fan's book store.

The store had been beautifully decorated with garlands and festoons of bright colors that presented a most charming effect on entering.

Near the rear of the store a lovely arch of red garlands and poinsettias was tastefully arranged, and here a bevy of charming women, under the supervision of Mrs. Rufus Fant, served a delectable menu of hot tea and wafers.

For many years Mr. Fant, by his courtesy and attention, has made himself and his store indispensable to Anderson shoppers and of late years with the assistance of his splendid boys, the patronage and popularity of his business has increased enormously and today "Fant's" is the magic word in many homes.
