

We gave Mr. Thomas Cartwright the total numbers for doll given out and he selected as the lucky number. We, nor Mr. Cartwright knew that he would select the number until yesterday morning.

Mr. Cartwright has no chances at doll and says he has no use for the kind we are giving away, but frankly admits that if Santa Claus would find him a big one that could "keep house" it would not make him mad a little bit. Wonder what he meant?

If you have this number please send it in at once—but keep your numbers until we notify you that doll has been called for as this number may have been misplaced or destroyed.

SHOW AT PALMETTO MADE QUITE A HIT

Watson's Peerless Comedy Co. Pleased Large Audience With Opening Bill.

The best ever, a dandy show, could not be beat, and many other expressions sounding the praise of the new show at the Palmetto this week, could be heard after the performances yesterday, by the many who packed the theatre to witness the opening of Watson's Peerless Comedy Company, in the Hoopster Boy. To say that it is a good show, is putting it mildly. It is by far the best that has been shown in Anderson. Worthy of special mention are Bolus and Bolus, dancing; Blech sisters, singing; and Reynolds and Lewis, yodlers. Mr. Reynolds captivated the audience with his yodling which was the best ever heard in Anderson, ably assisted by Miss Lewis who will take a leading part in the yodling today in harmony with Mr. Reynolds. Miss Lewis is said to be the only woman living today that can yodel in a man's voice, and the two yodling in harmony at today's performance will doubtless draw a large crowd. The wardrobe for today is said to be one of the most elaborate ever seen in Anderson. Manager Pinkston is to be congratulated upon securing this attraction, as nothing that would shock the modesty of the most fastidious was said of done at yesterday's performance. And assurance is given by the management that only the cleanest and best performances ever shown in this city will be given. If the remaining acts to be shown this week are to be judged by the opening bill theatre goers have a week of genuine pleasure before them.

CIVIL COURT GETS DOWN TO BUSINESS

DECEMBER TERM CONVENED WITH JUDGE R. WITHERS MEMMINGER PRESIDING

THREE CASES UP

Two Disposed of and Trial in a Third Opened Late in Afternoon.

With two cases disposed of, one by trial and the other by non-suit, and the taking of testimony in a third begun, the December term of the common pleas court for Anderson County, which was convened yesterday morning, with Judge R. Withers Memminger of Charleston, on the bench, recessed at 6 o'clock p. m., to meet again at 9:30 this morning. The one case disposed of by trial was that of L. F. Carpenter versus John E. Sadler. An automobile deal is involved. When court recessed last night the jury was still out and up until a late hour no verdict had been reached. The case was argued by Breazeale & Pearnall for the plaintiff and A. H. Dagnall for the defense. The plaintiff's witnesses were R. C. Webb, L. F. Carpenter and T. B. Earle. Witnesses appearing for the defense were J. E. Sadler and Isham McGee. The jurors in this case were F. J. McGee, J. N. Ivester, W. J. Browning, C. A. Marot, W. F. McGee, H. M. Morrow, J. H. Holliday, W. A. G. Jamison, Juit Strickland, W. W. Harris, R. O. Wilson and J. H. Davenport. Upon the consent of counsel for the defense, the court ordered a non-suit in the case of E. V. McCoy versus L. B. Robbins. The third and last case taken up for the day was that of B. L. and Mrs. Willie Summey versus Anderson County. The plaintiffs are suing the county for $6,000 damages, it being alleged that they were thrown from their buggy while driving over a defective bridge on the highway between Greenville and Pendleton. A. H. Dagnall is representing the plaintiffs, while Kurtz Smith, solicitor for this district, is appearing for the county. The following jurors are entrusted with the case: Q. Frank Johnson, foreman; N. J. Wood, G. W. Laboon, B. B. Bleckley, S. C. Major, R. C. Shirley, E. V. Harbin, C. J. Garrison, Foster L. Brown, M. J. Leach, C. F. McLain, B. B. Fagdale. When court recessed last night Mrs. Summey was on the witness stand. Court was convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Clerk of Court Jas. N. Pearman owing to the absence of Judge Memminger, a recess was immediately taken until noon, the judge arriving on the railroad train from Charleston. At 12 o'clock court was called again and the business of the session taken up. At 1:15 o'clock court recessed until 3:30. Upon roll call of the petit jurors it was noted that eight were absent or excused, their names being as follows: Roy Haywood, excused; J. C. Armstrong, excused; J. M. Long, excused; T. M. Bowlin, excused; F. E. Mitchell, not found; W. F. L. Owens, not found; W. A. Harris, not found; J. F. Shirley, out of the State. To take the place of the missing jurors, an extra venire of eight were drawn, their names being: G. H. Balles, F. C. Tribble, S. C. Major, E. B. Geer, G. W. Laboon, F. J. Kay, W. W. Scott, B. B. Bleckley.

HOW "AMERICA" WAS WRITTEN. Author's Story of Manuscript Recently Given to Harvard. (New York Sun.) In connection with the recent production of the original manuscript of "America" by the Harvard college library to the surviving child of the Rev. Dr. Samuel Francis Smith, author of the hymn, the following account by Dr. Smith of how he came to write it is revived: "The hymn 'America' was the fruit of examining a number of music books placed in my hands by Lowell, Mason, and others. Falling in with the tune in one of them, now called 'America', and being pleased with its simple and easy movement, I glanced at the German words and, seeing that they were patriotic, instantly felt the impulse to write a patriotic hymn of my own to the same tune. Seizing a scrap of waste paper, I put upon it, within half an hour, the verses substantially as they are today. I did not propose to write a national hymn. I did not know that I had done so. The whole matter passed out of my mind. A few weeks afterwards I went to Mr. Mason's some translations and other poems. This must have changed to be among them. This occurred in February, 1852. To my surprise, I found later that he had incorporated it into a programme for the celebration of July 4, in Park Street church, Boston.

"But," said a member of the building committee to the architect, "you haven't a single pipe on the church." "No, in these days of advanced civilization it is better to build your churches warproof."

Kiss Your Coal Stove Goodbye!

The gas stove has the coal stove beaten a million ways.

No wood to chop, no coal to carry, no ashes to take up, carry out, and sift, leaving a trail of dirt and dust from the stove all the way out to the ash pit.

No fire to coax and coddle. No excess heat. No waste.

Gas is a guarantee of the right kind of a fire instantly for any purpose whatever; and it's more economical, too.

Gore, Ga., P. A. Morgan had occasion recently to use a liver medicine and says of Foley Cathartic Tablets: "They thoroughly cleaned my system and I felt like a new man—light and free. They are the best medicine I have ever taken for constipation. They keep the stomach sweet, liver active, bowels regular." Foley Cathartic Tablets are stimulating in action, and neither gripe nor sicken. They are wholesome and thoroughly cleansing, and keep the liver active. Stout people like them.

Musical Tea. The Senior Phylthea class of the First Presbyterian church are planning a beautiful musical and reception for Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Townsend on North McDuffie street. From three-thirty to six o'clock there will be a come and go reception, with a delightful program of the city's most gifted musicians, all during the afternoon. All the ladies of Anderson are cordially invited. A silver offering will be taken at the door.

Kaffee Klatch with Mrs. Whitner. An enjoyable meeting of the Kaffee Klatch was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Whitner as the gracious hostess at her residence on Oakland avenue. The spacious and attractive rooms needed no adornment save the vases of roses and other late flowers which were in evidence. When sewing was laid aside, tempting refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted in entertaining by Mrs. W. J. Roddey and Mrs. John T. Roddey. Only members and several of the Winthrop teachers were in attendance.—Rock Hill Herald.

Baylis E. Anderson Married Today. Mr. Baylis E. Anderson has gone to Hartwell, Ga., where he will be married to Miss Eunice Cunningham at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sallie Cunningham, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. They will come back to Anderson tonight and make their home, Mr. Anderson being a well known photographer here. Mr. Anderson's friends will give his bride a cordial welcome to Anderson.

SENSATIONAL KILLING OCCURS AT PENDELTON (CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.)

said to have walked the length of the store before he fell and expired. The shooting took place at 5:40 o'clock. Immediately upon receipt of notice of the affair, Sheriff Ashley left for Pendleton, going on the 6 o'clock train. He returned to the city on the train arriving here shortly after 8 o'clock. The killing has caused a turmoil in Pendleton, it is reported, where both men are well and favorably known.

Theatre Sold

Local Motion Picture House Sold to Ed. Curtin of Greenville.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Bijou motion picture theatre had been sold by J. H. Bristow to Ed. Curtin of Greenville, who took charge of the amusement house yesterday afternoon. It had been known for some days that a deal for the theatre was about to be put through.

The change in ownership of the theatre will affect but one member of the staff, the operator, Mrs. Bartou will continue to sell tickets. E. P. Pierce will be the operator and Mr. Randolph will be the head usher. It was also announced that the Mutual service will be discontinued and the Universal only shown. The Troy O' Hearts will be shown on the regular dates. The Master Key and Zuluora will be shown at the Bijou in the near future. It was stated that the Electric theatre will not be opened at present.

Mr. Bristow, who is very popular throughout the city will leave for Greenville some time this week. During his residence here he has made many friends and admirers who will be sorry to see him go. It is probable that he will engage in business in Greenville, where he made his home before coming to Anderson.

OLDEST FIRM IN CITY TO CHANGE QUARTERS

C. A. REED PIANO AND ORGAN CO. GOING TO SOUTH MAIN

MOVE THIS MONTH

Have Leased New Store Room of C. S. and W. W. Sullivan—49 Years Old.

The C. A. Reed Piano and Organ Company, the oldest concern in the city, will shortly move to a new stand, it having been announced yesterday by Gen. C. A. Reed that the firm had leased the new store room of Messrs. C. S. and W. W. Sullivan on South Main street, below the Kress building. The work of removal will begin immediately and be completed by the first of January.

The present stand of the C. A. Reed Piano and Organ Company, on the west side of North Main street, has been occupied by the firm for 49 years, and has the distinction of having done business on the same site for a longer period than any other concern in the city. The building now occupied was erected by Gen. Reed and the firm of which he is the head has occupied it since. This well known citizen has been in business in the city of Anderson for 49 consecutive years, and in that respect is in a class by himself. There is not now in the city, it is said, any one who has been in business here for so long a time as Gen. Reed. The new quarters to which the firm is to move are among the most up-to-date in the city, being brand new and modern in every respect. It is understood that one of the two rooms at present occupied by the firm will be leased for restaurant purposes. No announcement has been made as to what will be done with the other room.
