Store Burns Friday Morning.
 Special to The Intelligencer.
 SENECA, Dec. 12—Early Friday morning the store operated by Foster Bros. at Richland was discovered to be on fire. The building was soon a mass of flames and the stock of goods was a complete loss partially covered by insurance. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin, and during the day two suspects were arrested. It is thought that the building was fired to cover the tracks of robbery.

The City Being Re-rated.
 Mr. H. C. White, of Columbia, representing the South Carolina Insecting and Rating Bureau, has been in the city for several days re-rating the mercantile and dwelling houses, for the insurance companies.

The many friends in Seneca of Mr. Lewis H. Cary of Greenville, are glad to hear of his election to a seat in the city council. Mr. Cary comes from a family conspicuous for its public service, and no doubt will acquire himself with honor to the family and credit to the town he serves.

Dr. A. C. Gree

Will Speak to Men at the Court-house at Three-Thirty Today.

The first of the big series of men's meetings arranged by the Y. M. C. A. for this winter will be held this afternoon in the county court house at 3:30 o'clock, the speaker being Dr. Arch C. Cree, the enlistment secretary of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The subject of Dr. Cree's address will be: "Whose Fault is it if Men are Lost?"

The meeting this afternoon is for men and all men are cordially invited to attend. There will be no charges for admission.

While in Asheville last summer Secretary Fred M. Burnett of the Y. M. C. A. asked one of the leading Y. M. C. A. secretaries of the south to recommend the best speaker for the opening of the series of men's meetings at Anderson. The person addressed unhesitatingly recommended Dr. Cree. The men of Anderson are assured that they will hear one of the best speakers of the religious platform in the South.

The music will be spirited and all attending the meeting are invited and urged to join in and help make the service a banner one.
