Found Party.
The Epworth League gave a delightful found party on Tuesday evening in the rooms in the basement of the church. Each young lady brought a beautifully arranged and decorated box of lunch and these were sold to the young men present, the buyer eating lunch with the young lady whose card was in his box. This was a source of great fun, and also raised a nice amount for the benefit of the league. After the boxes were all sold they were opened up and a delightful picnic lunch served.

Ladies' Aid Society.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church held their annual rally meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. G. Tribble on Greenville street. Despite the inclemency of the weather for the past week quite a large number were present. The special object of the rally meeting is to create more interest and increase the membership. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Wm. Laughlin. Two solos were enjoyed by the society, one by Miss Anna Tribble and the other by Mrs. Jim Craig, after which Mrs. Smeethers made a very interesting talk. At the close of the program the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. W.

Tribble and Mrs. Jim Craig, served delightful refreshments of fruit cake and coffee.
The next meeting will be held with Mrs. John Pruitt on Greenville street.
Guild.
The ladies of the Guild of Grace Episcopal church had a delightfully pleasant meeting on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ralph Ramer at her beautiful home on College Heights. The only business was the reading of reports and giving out of envelopes for the Belgian fund. The remaining time was spent in an informal social way, Mrs. Ramer serving her guests with dainty refreshments.

The Four Circles.
The four circles of the First Presbyterian church met on Monday afternoon.
The first met with Mrs. R. C. Laughlin and was the time for the regular election of officers, which resulted as follows: Mrs. S. H. Prevost, president, Mrs. N. C. Laughlin, vice president, and Mrs. E. L. Ballie, secretary and treasurer. The music by Misses Avery and Nolan was very enjoyable, the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. Charles Spearman and was a very pleasant meeting. Each lady had studied up some current event, which she explained to those present. The music of a handsome victrola and an elegant salad course was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Hardin in North Anderson was hostess for the third Circle and a very pleasant meeting it was.
The fourth circle had a little sewing party with Miss Anna Ross Cunningham and the afternoon was most pleasantly and profitably spent.

Philathea Class
Miss Elizabeth Harrison delightfully entertained the Philathea Class of the Central Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening at her home on North Fant street. Besides the members there were several visitors present and all fully enjoyed the evening.

Beautiful Concert For Benefit of Belgian Sufferers.

On Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock there will be a concert given at the home of Mr. W. F. Cox of this city. The concert is to further a good cause and a large attendance is expected to attend. The spacious parlors of the home of Judge Cox have been given to the cause and the concert will be held there. The performers are all good musicians and are very talented. They will give the concert for nothing except for just their expenses.

This concert will be held under the auspices of the Belgian relief committee of this city and all of the proceeds will go to the needy Belgians. The committee of this city has arranged to have their offerings to the Belgians go with the South Carolina ship to the stricken people and they will doubtless have a very prominent part in the good work that is going on.

Those who will participate in the concert are:

Prof. Fosson, musical director of Greenville Female College will direct the concert.
Miss Winow, soprano.
Mrs. Luther, contralto.
Mac Rabb, tenor.
Frank Cox, bass.
Prof. Gale Swift, violin.
An admission of 35 cents will be charged.

Musical Tea.
The senior Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church had a beautiful musical tea and reception on Thursday afternoon for the benefit of the class. Messrs. Witt McCauley, the cellist and Horsall, the violinist, were the principal musicians for the afternoon but they were ably assisted by some of the best local talent and the whole affair was a great success. Quite a nice amount was realized for the work of the class from the silver offering at the door.

The Women of the First Baptist Church.
Last Monday—the regular meeting time of the seven divisions of the W. M. S.—was a real Christmas eve to about 175 or 200 women. The girls shone beautifully for an hour or so, as if it would show its brilliant cooperation in the pre-Christmas plans for our 1200 orphan children. The Sanders, for the Greenville street; Mrs. C. D. Hudson, for the Eastern, and Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, for the Southern, were a crowd wide open with welcome and good cheer. Never have women seemed more in sympathy with any undertaking. The mother heart of every one was beating in happy harmony. Thinking of the shining eyes and children for they were helping to make.

ing to make. And the reflected good is no small part of this, for each woman has more sympathy and more love now than she ever had; she is broader in her feelings for others, she has been helped. The box will be sent the early part of the week to be kept by the superintendent until Christmas. The Christmas shower was very beautifully carried out in every detail.

Ladies Auxiliary
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. J. H. Townsend on North McDuffie street.

The Southern Division.
Mrs. Chas. Sullivan invited this division to meet with her and as always every member who could possibly attend was at her house. She is so cordial in her welcome that it is a real pleasure to go. Mrs. Will King is leader and knows how to get help from the members. The subject of this meeting was "Gift Giving," and a very unusual Bible message was taken from the Sermon on the Mount. Each verse ending with the promise of a gift. It was very appropriate. Mrs. Edw. Walker sang a Christmas carol in her clear sweet voice and Miss Helen Patrick gave a beautiful reading. "The Nazareth Shop." When the gifts were being tied up in parcels, with pretty ribbons and each child's name put on a pretty Christmas card, Mrs. Sullivan surprised us by serving most delicate and delicious refreshments. If the afternoon was spent as pleasantly and helpfully in each of the other meetings, it is a safe bet that Christmas will mean more to more people than ever before.

The gifts were every one useful, pretty and real Santa Claus like, for that is what we wanted to be for these little ones.
