Classified Columns

Want Advertising Rates

Twenty-five words or less, One Time 25 cents, Three Times 50 cents,

All advertisement over twenty-five words prorate for each additional word. Rates on 1,000 words to be used in a month made on appli-

We advertisement taken for less than 25 cents, cash in advance.

If your name appears in the telephone directory you can telephone your want ad to 321 and a bill will be mailed after its insertion for prompt payment.

FOR SALE

FOR: SALE-Extra recleaned Mountain Buckwheat for trade that appreciates quality-that means pure BUCKWHEAT FLOUR-you can have it ground to your liking. Furman Smith. Seedsman. Phone 4 4.

WANTS

WANTED—The public to know that we have just received a large shipent or box liles, and can supply your wants in this line. Anderso

WANTED—You to read our two weeks' bargain sale on page five of this issue. Southern Public Util-WEEN UNEXPECTLY detained down town for luncheon, you cannot do better than drop in here. A light lunch or a substantial meal. Cuisine said service O. K. and prices just as attractive as our food. The Lunchebenette.—dtf.

AUTO SPRINGS-We make Auto Springs, also extra plies on short notice. Paul E. Stephens.

FINE FRUITS—We carry the largest and most complete assortment in its city—keep 'em moving. Fresh Jrida oranges, grape fruit, ap-t, bananas, wholesale and re-J. K. Manos. Phone 323.—dtf.

SALESMAN AND COLLECTOR wanted—Good contract to the right party. Apply Singer Sewing Ma-chise Co., Anderson and Greenville, S. C .- 12-13-3tp.

0000000000000000000 Why don't your Clock run. Reese can make it run. $10 re- o

"ECONOMY" WAS THE WATCHWORD

000000000000000000

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.— "Economy," was the watchword of the aprepriations committee in the preparrepriations committee in the preparrepriations committee in the preparrepriation of the legislative, executive and udicial appropriation bill, first of the sig supply measures which was rerepriate to the house today. The committee lopped off nearly $2,000,000 rom the estimates submitted by the arrious departments, cutting salary allowances all along the line, and arought in a measure appropriating 15,744,753.50. The bill provides for core than 16,000 raiaries of government employes.

LEGAL NOTICES

Delluquent Load Tax Notice. All dinlenquent road tax collectors are provided with an official receipt book with numbes, and stub numbes attached. Pay no money to collectors unless you get the official receipt as above provided or. J. MACK KING, County Supervisor.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

The undersigned administrator of the estate of Sarah A. Gambell, destuff—cotton stalks, corn stalks, stucks, straw, grain, etc. Price 20c and Strictly cash. Anderson County for a final settlement of said estate and a discharge from Mattress and Spring Bed Co. his office of administrator.

J. N. GAMBRELL,

NOTICE OF SPECIAL TEACHER'S EXAMINATION FOR ANDER-SON COUNTY.

There will be a special examination for teachers of this county on Fri-day, January 15, 1915. for the purpose of all teachers that have no certifi-cate to take advantage of this examination.

All colored teachers of the county that held diplomas from the following colleges will have to take the examination if they expect to receive public money for their services: Avery Normal School. Ferguson Williams. Friendship College, Harbison College, and Scofield Seminary.

The examination will be held in he court house at Anderson, S. C., and will open at nine A. M. and close at four P. M.

The examination will be on usual subjects. J. B. FELTON, County Supt. of Education. Dec. 14, 1914.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

There will be an election at Simpsonville school house, in Simpsonville School District No. 41 on Thursday, December 24, 1914, for the purpose of levying a special tax of one addi-tional mili on all of the taxable property of said district. To be used for general school purposes.

Polls will open at eight A. M. and All voters must exhibit a registration certificate and tax receipt.

By order of the County Board of lay coverage the last regular census it was announced tonight. The last regular census it was announced tonight. The last regular census it was announced tonight.

necessary arrangements for handling the college students in the upper part of the State, who will be going Conce home for the holidays within the next few days. The cadets of Clemson College will be dismissed at 1 o'clock on Calhoun to Columbia, by way of Greenville and Spartanburg, for the accommodation of the Clemson stu-

W. R. Taber, T. P. A.

County Schools To

Take Vacation

The schools of the county will close on various dates for the Christmas holidays. Some of the institutions wil close their doors next Friday, while others will continue work until Wednesday, the 23rd. The students will

Getting Boys' Corn Club Members for '15

J. W. Rothrock, county demonstra-tion agent, stated yesterday that he will be engaged for the next few days winding up the affairs of the boys corn club work for the year just ended. During the remainder of the week he will be engaged in enlisting members for the boys' corn club of 1915 and checking up the adult work of the past season.

'ostmaster's Term

Of Office Expires
The term of office of Postmaster John E. Cochran expired last Sunday, but as yet no one has been named as his successor. It is probable that President Wilson will shortly send his nomination for the office before the Senate for confirmation, though it some time happens this matter is not transacted until months after the appointee has taken over the duties of the office, Mr. Cochran has been postmaster at Anderson for 1 years and during the entire time has given eminent satisfaction. He is generally regarded as one of the most efficient postmasters in this part of the country. He is now the oldest postmaster in point of service in the State. Ther in point of service in the State. There is much speculation as to who the new postmaster will be, but among those mentioned as aspirants for the office are: Frank Hamlin of the Canal Zone, William Laughlin, J. Roscoe Moseley, W. S. Breazeale, D. P. Sloau, T. Joe Bell, C. M. McClure, W. F. Cox, T. E. Howard and H. H. Russel.

Enjoying Cold Snap Hereabout

Anderson people generally were glad to see clear, cold weather after the miserable week of slop and slush, but it is generally agreed that it will take but little of the key breeziness that of vestarday to retain the time to the house today. The comtime tags 1,200,000 and the estimates submitted by the figure departments, cutting salary swances all along the line, and tags in a measure appropriating 1,745,753.50. The bill provides for time total of the bill shrows an intime total of the county to a stail title that of yesterday to satisfy the demand for celld weather. Citizens awoke Sunday morning and looked, saw the ground covered with snow. Rain soon came, however, and put an end to the sight the way out to the ash pit.

No fire to coax and coddie. No excess heat. No Waste.

Gas is a guarantee of the right kind of a fire instantly for any purpose whatever: and it's more visit one in trail of dirt and dust from the stove all the way out to the ash pit.

No wood to chop, no coal

Judge McCullough

Here Yesterday

Judge Joseph A. McCullough, one of the leading members of the Greenville bar, was in the city yesterday, having come here on private business.

Mr. McCullough is recognized as one of the foremost lawyers in the State, and a public speaker of considerable note. For the past two Sundays he has been scheduled to speak at the Orr Mills auditorium, but on both days inclement weather made it advisable to call the meeting off.

Christmas Disners
For Fifty Families
Ensign Belcher of the local post of the Salvation Army states that he will provide Christmas dianers for 50 families, of five persons each, in the city of Anderson. Tress baskets will be distributed Christmas morning and will contain such things as potatoes, bread, coffee, sugar and chicken of pleca of reast. Contributions for the Christmas dianers will be very acceptable, says Ensign Belcher, as the dianers will be purchased with money obtained in this way, there being no fund for this purpose. Contributions of second hand clothing will also be received. This may be left at head-quarters of the army, in the hall opposite G. F. Tolly & Son's Furniture store.

Auditor Smith

Serves Werning

County Auditor Wieston Smith yesterday served notice on all taxpayers with reference to poil tax. The list of those paying pdit tax was published some three weeks ago, he stated, and he sake all liable for the tax to call and pay it when prying their other tax. He sake that they incurre of the county treasurer for it, and if they find none there come to his office and got an additional. Fulture to do this may cost a taxpayer $8 later on, he says.

ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Seriously III
Armston, the little son of Mr. R. W. W. R. Taber, traveling passenger Armston, the little son of Mr. R. W. agent of the Southern Railway, with Pruitt, became suddenly ill while on agent of the Southern Railway, with headquarters in Greenville, was in the city yesterday on official business. When asked as to the prospects for heavy Christmas travel on the railroads generally, Mr. Taber declared that he feared business would be off this year as compared with that of former seasons. He will make the crown and was seriously ill for guite a former seasons. He will make the croup and was seriously ill for quite a

Concert Tonight

For The Belgians A concert for the benefit of the Anthe afternoon of December 23. A gian Relief Fund will be given the special train is usually operated from evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of Judge and Mrs. W. F. Cox. An admission of 25 cents will be charged. Several well known singers and musicians of Greenville will carry out an attractive program.

> Alarm of Fire Last Evening

The fire department was called out early in the evening to the home of Mrs. James Harrison on North Fant street, but their services not needed, as the fire proved to be only the blaz-NOTICE—We are now prepared to do cestate of Sarah A. Gambell, ue properly for grinding of all kinds of feed will on December 23, at 11 o'clock a. stuff—cotton stalks, corn stalks, corn stalks, Anderson County for a final action of the schools generally will be Jansche of the usual number of the schools generally will be Jansch of the usual number of the usual number of the usual number of the usual number of the usual numb

Has Acts of The General Assembly

Clerk of Court James N. Pearman stated yesterday that he had received several copies of the acts of the General Assembly of the special session held last fall. These books are for distribution to those parties who are entitled to them, and these are coun-ty officers and magistrates. The acts are in pamphlet form, quite dif-ferent from the bulky affair containing the doings of a regular session of

Convicted of Beating Beard

In the court of Magistrate William C. Broadwell yesterday Joe Gambrell colored, was convicted of charges of beating his board bill and sentenced to serve 20 days on the public works of the county. The offense for which Gambrell now has to pay was commit-ed last August. When the county authorities have finished with Gambrell they will turn him over to the city authorities, who desire him on charge coal stove beaten a million ways.

Kiss Your Coal Stove Goodbye!

No wood to chop, no coal to car-purpose whatever; and it's more economical, too.

Anderson Gas Co. FAMILY AVOIDS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

Momach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to ir. Thedford's Black Draught, which I did told I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black Draught on hand all fulling now, and when my children feel a little tad, they ask me for a dose, and dose them more good than any medicing than a of gambling. When the city has finshed with Gambrell he will then be turned over to the county authorities of Greenville, who have a desire to consult him with reference to a little stealing scrape occurring over there some time ago in which some jewelry disappeared.

Five and Ten-Cent

Store Man Here
A. W. Bailey, proprietor of two five and ten-cent stores in Anderson and owner of a chain of similar stores in other parts of the country, came down last night from New York. Mr. Bailey will be around the city for a number of days looking after his interests

Greenville Judge of Probate Here
Walter M. Scott, who was appointed judge of probate for Greenville county some days ago to succeed To T. Bramlett, who was appointed laster in county whom the death of Gen Welling county whom the death of Gen Welling and the second succession of the second succession was appointed laster in country whom the death of Gen Welling and the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the second succession with the second succession was appointed to the s in equity upon the death of Gen. Walter Gray, was in the city yesterday on professional business. Mr. Scott was elected judge of probate in the primary last summer and would have taken over the duties of the office next month away. It is understood that the appointment of Judge Bramlett to the office of master will not be allowed to stand, and that the matter will be thrown into a primary.

Orr Mill Meeting

Again Called Off Inclement weather was responsible Sunday for the calling off of the address at the Orr Mills auditorium by the Hon. Joseph A. McCullough of Greenville. This is the second time that rain has interferred with the ap-pearance of Mr. McCullough at the Orr onlookers at the fire, probably due to spoken on "A Down and Out." It is time. probable that the Y. M. C. A. authorities will endeavor to have Mr. Mc-Cullough speak there on next Sunday.

Greenville Lawyer

In City Yesterday Hampton P. Burbage, one of the nost prominent young members of the Greenville bar, was in the city yes-terday on professional business. Mr. Burbage was here last week for several days in attendance upon the case of commonpleas, he being associated with local attorneys in a case against the Chiquola Manufacturing Company, operating a cotton mill at Honea Path. This is the case, it will be recalled which was compromised for $1,200.

Phone 37.

Crystal Wedding.

The following invitations have been received by a few of Mrs. Stewman's friends he_e.
"Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stewman re quest the pleasure of your company at the celebration of their crysta wedding on Monday evening, December 21st, from 7 to 10 o'clock, at their residence at Lancaster, S. C., 1899-1914.—Harriet W. Lee, John Alexander Stewman."

The gas stove has the bered here as Miss "Hattie" Lee, sister of Messrs. W. S. and A. Carl Lee.

Miss Mary Jackson to Marry. The following invitations have issued:
"Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jackson scales.

Miss Eubank Taylor has returned from a visit of several weeks Richland, Ga.

Mrs. Krammer Entertains the Guild.

The ladies of the Guild of Grace Epishopal church were delightfully entertained one afternoon last week by Mrs. B. F. Krammer at her homeon the Epulevarde. The heautiful colonial home is well known for its lavish and exercises beautiful: inche is well known for its lavish and garcious hospitality, and never was it more charmingly given than on this pleasant occasion the meeting being almost entirely a social one. It was delightfully informal and Mrs. Krammer, assisted by her daughters and Miss Thornley, served an elegant mann. SERIOUS SICKNESS

In Hener of Mrs. W. H. Con.
Mrs. Frad G. Tribble entortained a few friends and reisitives at a delightful dinner and sewing party in honor of her mother. Mrs. W. H. Cox's 63d birthday A few were invited for a "spend the day" party and these spent a most delightful time, an eight course dinner being served. For the afternoon several other friends were invited to come with their sewing and join the others and several happy hours were spent busity sewing and chatting. All were cordial in their good wishes for Mrs. Cox, and gratitime to Mrs. Tribble for such a pleasant occasion.

Contributions for County Home.

Mrs. B. F. Wilson asked that the embers of the R. E. Lee Chapter to wish to make a Christmas couhution for the county home to case send the same to her residence.

Franklin street right away.

Cellege Glee Club Lost Right, he entertainment given last nis the Anderson Cellege Glee Crub

CHANGE AND AND SPECIES THEAST

Come to the House of Practical, Useful and Inexpensive Christmas presents; they are here in an endless assortment, and at the right prices.

Children's Handkerchiefs .- "Jack and Jill", "Bo Peep", and "Kew-

Ladies' Sheer Lawn and Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, embroidered and with lace edges at 5, 10, 15, and 25c each. Packed in a pretty box. Janity Cases, German Silver, with long chains 10, 25 and 50c Collar and Cuff Sets, "Peg O' My Heart" Sets; these sets come in linen, lace and hemstitched lawns at. 25 and 50c

Children's Fur Sets of Ermine and Astrachan at .. 98c, $1.25 and $1.50 Leather Purses at... ... 25c to $2.00 Hair Pins, Combs, and fancy hair ornaments at moderate prices.

Tollet Sets of Combs, Brushes and Mirrors at 50c and $1.00 Fancy Ties of Roman Stripes and Plaids at 25c. Also Cords in all

Table Linens

Mercerized Linen Table Linens at... 25c, 39c and 50c All Linen Table Linen with Napkins to match at 50c, 75c, 98c and $1.50 All Linen Towel, Plain or with Fringed Border at... ... 25c

Dress Goods

36-inch All-Wool Serge, in all the wanted shades, regular 60c value Regular $1.50 grade of the celebrated "Duchess" Satin, 36-inches

The Lesser Co.

ful setting for the young ladies, all Eva Mayfield; Sodermann, "Peasants' of whom wore pure white with a large poinsetta at the waist. There were sixteen young ladies in the chorus work, and every/numbers on the program was beautiful. The selections showed both study and hard work, and every voice blended in perfect accord. Each number was received with cord. Each number was received with heartiest applause by the appreciative audience present, and both Miss Strauathan and the young ladies de-serve great credit for the splendid pro-gram given last night.

It was as follows:

It was as follows:

Wilson, "Carmena Waltz Song,"
Glee Club; Irish Ballad, "Kathiedn Mavourneen" and Scotch Ballad, "Ye Banks and Braes," Misses Nelle Smith, Louise Henry, Elizabeth Lawrence, klins, Esther Lawrence, Marguerite Henry, Nelle Bewley, Hazel Alward, Eva Mayfield; Garnett "A Chinese Prayer," Anna Tribble; Dennee-Smith, "Sleep Little Baby of Mine," Misses Nelle Gentry, Charlotte Parks, Lydia Bewley, Exher Lawrence, Hazel Alward, Charlotte Parks, Lydia Bewley, Exa Strauathan, director, Mrs. F. A. Goode, accompanist.

am a-softly Comin" Glee Club; Krapf,
"Baa Baa Black Sheep," Glee Club;
A Classic? Nelle and Lydia Bewley;
Vane, "The Black Cat," Glee Club;
Fanning "The Miller's Wooing," Glee

Sopranes: Misses Nelle Smith, Eliz-

