Christmas Service at Central Presbyterian Church.
The usual Sunday school and church services will give place at the Central Presbyterian church today to a Christmas service at 11:30 o'clock. The service will be one of recitation and song. A full program is appended.

There will also be given an opportunity for the presentation of Christmas gifts. Stuffed stockings, provisions and any kind of Christmas present will be received and distributed among the needy in the immediate community. A cash collection will also be taken for Thornwell orphanage. As the weather for the past few Sundays has interfered with the taking of the Thanksgiving offering for this institution this offering will combine that one with the annual Christmas offering.

The full program of exercises is as follows:
Prelude by Mrs. Prevost and Messrs. Macaulay and Horsfall.
Hymn, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing."
Invocation.
"Silent Fight," by quartette.
Recitation, "A Christmas Story," by Margaret Tribble.
Song by the children, "Christ Was Once a Little Baby."
Recitation by six girls, "The Old, Glad Christmas Story."
Solo by Miss Stranathan.
Exclamation by five children, "Let Little Children Love Him."
Recitation by Lula Hillhouse, "Thoughts of Others."
Presentation of gifts.—Organ offertory.

Prayer of dedication.
Solo by Miss Nell Smith.
Recitation by four children, "To You is Born a Saviour."
Song by children, "Happy hearts, Light and Gay."
Recitation by Mary Ramsey, "Messengers of Peace."
Recitation by six children, "Stay With Me, Dear Christmas Time."
Hymn, "Joy to the World."
Benediction.
Postlude by Mrs. Prevost and Messrs. Macaulay and Horsfall.

Christian Growth Club.
The Christian Growth Club of the First Baptist church on Friday afternoon was fortunate in having two unusual features. In the first half of the program Miss Nellie Pruitt, who represented both the young women and the girls at the Newberry convention, made a most interesting report of the convention, encouraging the girls to attend such meetings whenever possible, and also to keep up the work here. Then came the surprise promised to the members. Mrs. Frank Todd, dressed in Chinese costume, made a beautiful and instructive talk on China, showing and explaining a number of curios from China and other lands, and passing them around that the girls might see and handle them. These curios were kindly loaned for the occasion by Miss Lois Watson.
Mrs. Todd is an accomplished and gifted woman, a charming speaker, and as a reader and impersonator she holds her audience spellbound by the animation, the naturalness, the magnetism of her splendid enthusiasm. Fortunate is the church that has Mrs. Todd's allegiance.

Elementary Union.
The first meeting of the New Year will be held at Central Presbyterian church Tuesday, January 5.
Devotional—Mrs. M. M. Mattison.
How to Make the Department Go, Cradle Roll Demonstration—Miss Nora Hubbard.
Beginners—Miss Clara Osborne.
Primaries—Mrs. Vera Pruitt.
Junior Classes—Mrs. Dodge.
Epworth League.
The last meeting of the Epworth League before Christmas will be held tomorrow, Monday, evening at 8 o'clock. It will be led by the second vice president, Mr. Glenn Lassiter, and the subjects will be "Social Service," "Charity" and "Help." The music will be especially good and appropriate to the Christmas season. The Epworth League quartette will give several selections. There will be a council meeting immediately afterwards.

Sacred Concert This Afternoon.
Music lovers will be given a rare musical treat in the sacred concert at St. John's Methodist church this afternoon at 5 o'clock. A beautiful program has been arranged and Mr. McCauley, the cellist, and Mr. Horsfall, the violinist, will give several numbers. The selections are all appropriate to the Christmas season and the public is cordially invited to attend. The program is as follows:
"And on earth peace."
Organ Prelude, Adoration—Mokowski.
Response, "Softly Fades the Twilight Ray."
Violin and cello duet, Largo—Handel—Messrs. Horsfall and McCauley.
Scripture reading.
Duet, "Twilight," Nevin—Mr. Sam Orr Tribble and Mrs. Nardin.
Cello solo, "Oh Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," Wagner—Mr. McCauley.
"Good will towards men."
Solo, "The Wondrous Night," Gabriel—Mrs. Walter Nardin.
Hymn, "Hark the Glad Sound."
Christmas lesson of good will and giving.
Collection—The treasures you give unto these that you see. Lo! I will accept as if given to me."
Violin and cello, Intermezzo from Cavaleria. Duet, "Rusticana," Mascagnino—Messrs. Horsfall and McCauley.
Quartette, "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," Shuey—Mrs. T. L. Cely, soloist, Mrs. Walter Nardin, Messrs. Furman Smith and J. D. East.
"Glory to God in the highest."
Solo, "The Heavenly Song," Gray—Mrs. James Craig.
Duet, "Sextette From Lucia," Donizetti—Messrs. Horsfall and McCauley.
Chorus, "Behold I Bring You Glad Tidings," Sniper.
Benediction.
Mr. M. Z. Mattison, president of The Anderson Daily Intelligencer, and Mr. T. K. Hoper of the board of directors and manager of the job department, have returned from Columbia, where they, with Mr. W. W. Smoak, editor and manager of the paper, went on business in connection with the awarding of the contract for the publishing of the Southern Christian Advocate.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The cotton market today showed continued steadiness on covering for over the week-end, and a moderate demand from trade and investment buyers who evidently found very little cotton for sale around the ring. The close was slightly off from the best but steady and from 2 to 4 points net higher. Cables were lower than due, and the local opened steady at a decline of 2 to 6 points under the scattered realizing. There was no aggressive selling with nothing in the news or in the trading to indicate weakening of the southern spot markets, and prices soon firmed up on continuation of the buying movement. Reports of a continued active demand for ocean tonnage and reiterated statements that Germany and Austria will take fully 3,000,000 bales of cotton this season if shipments can be arranged, undoubtedly held the advance, while buying was also encouraged by reports of a more active demand for goods in the domestic market and indications for continued large exports. The amount of cotton on shipboard awaiting clearance at the close of business last night was again reported in excess of last year. Private cables from Liverpool replying to inquiries concerning yesterday's rumors that shipments might be interrupted from the gulf ports denied such reports and said that the rate on war risks had been reduced. Cotton closed steady.
