MRS. W. A. HUDGENS, Editor, Phone 37.

In Honor of Mrs. Henning.

A pretty compliment to Mrs. J. H. Henning of La Grange, Ga., who has been the guest of Mrs. W. W. Morrison for the past ten days, was the delightful little card party given on Monday afternoon by Mrs. T. L. Cely at her attractive home on Calhoun street. There were three tables of bridge and after several interesting games the first prize, a beautiful embroidered apron was won by Mrs. Morrison while the guest prize, a lovely bouquet of flowers, was presented to the honor guest, Mrs. Henning. Mrs. Cely then served an elegant salad course. Those invited to meet Mrs. Henning were: Mesdames K. P. Prevost, W. W. Morrison, Louis Horton, G. B. Greene, J. L. Sheard, W. D. McLean, Misses Bertha Cassin, Jessie Browne, Ella Mae Cummings, Caroline Vance of Columbia, Lalla Mae Dial of Laurens.

Mrs. Roscoe Moseley has gone to Greenville to spend Christmas with relatives.

Misses Julia and Mary Barber of New York are the guests of Mrs. Clarence Brock at the home of Mr. J.

A. Brock. Miss Viola Felkel, who has been spending several months with her brother, Mr. Fred Feikes, left yesterday for her home at Elloree to spend the holidays.

Miss Olie Adams, who teaches in the schools at Honea Path, was here yesterday on her way to her home at Pendleton to spend Christmas.

Mrs. Sanders Entertains.
Mrs. J. Lewis Sanders was the attractive hostess on Wednesday afternoon when she entertained in honor of Mrs. J. H. Henning of La Grange, Ga., and Miss Caroline Vance of Columbia. The pretty parlor and hall were bright with the Christmas decorations of wreaths, holly and bells, and the "merry Christmas" spirit seemed to fill the room. Three tables of auction bridge were arranged and the games were unusually merry and interesting. After cards were put aside a dainty course menu was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wade Sanders. Those invited to meet Mrs. Henning and Miss Vance on this occasion were: Mesdames W. W. Morrison, Keith Prevost, Louis Horton, G. B. Greene, T. L. Cely, Harleston Barton, J. J. Fretwell, Jr., Horace McGee, J. J. Baldwin, W. D. McLean.

Priscilla Club.
Mrs. Tom Allen entertained the Priscilla Club in a most charming manner on Friday afternoon at her attractive suburban home near the college. It was a delightful little sewing party, congenial and informal and fully enjoyed by each one present.

Messrs. Arthur and Pinckney Ligon of Spartanburg are here to spend the week-end with Mrs. R. S. Ligon.

Mrs. Will Carlisle and Mrs. Julian Dean of Starr spent yesterday in town.

Mrs. J. C. Harris has gone to Wallula for a visit.

Mrs. Ben Happoldt of Pendleton has been spending several days with her sister Mrs. Charlie Prevost.

Mrs. Fant Improving.
Mrs. K. P. Smith's many friends will be glad to hear that her mother, Mrs. Walter Fant is doing nicely and the attending physicians are very much gratified over her condition. She was operated on in the Fort Worth hospital last Tuesday. Mr. Fant is an older brother of Mr. Rufus Fant of this city.

A Delightful Musicales.
An entertainment prettily planned and carried out was the recital and Christmas tree given by Mrs. G. W. Chambers on Thursday afternoon at her home on River street. Each pupil with an invited guest gathered in Mrs. Chambers' large living room and here a beautiful program, consisting of duets and solos, in both piano and violin were given by ten of Mrs. Chambers' pupils. Each one played from memory, and the work was done with an ability and skill that reflected great credit on themselves and their teacher. After the program Mrs. Chambers invited her guests into the music room where was arranged a beautiful Christmas tree brilliant in its light and decorations and bearing a gift for each one. This was a source of great pleasure to each one, and the whole occasion was a very happy one for all present. The program for the musicale was as follows:

March for piano and violin by an American composer—Louise Turner and Mrs. Chambers.
American composition for piano—

(a) Lullabye, (b) Child's Waltz, (c) Tag March, (d) First Rose Waltz—Elizabeth Divver.

American composition for piano— (a) Dance on the Green (b) Now, My Fingers (c) Just a Bunch of Flowers—Mildred Hatcher.

American composition for piano— (a) Day, (b) Old English Melody, (c) Cuckoo, (d) Drum and Trumpet—Lu Hillhouse.

March for violin and piano—Ralph Pruitt and Mrs. Chambers.

Polish composition—Dance Romantique—Marie Edmunds.

Parlor Games Waltz—Bernice Geer.

March for piano and violin—Tresa McCants and Mrs. Chambers.

Two French compositions—(a) Scarf Dance, (b) Air de Ballet—Louise Smethers.

Two German compositions—(a) Spinning Song, (b) Novellette—Helen Little.

Pretty Card Party.

A pretty little card party for the week was given by Mr. and Mrs. Wade Sanders. Bright and appropriate Christmas decorations added to the attractiveness of this home and it was a very congenial and informal party who were guests on this occasion. Besides enjoying cards the music by Miss Charlotte Parks and Prof. Parks added much to the pleasure of the evening. A dainty fruit course was served later in the evening and ended this delightful little affair. Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Sanders, Misses Charlotte Parks, A. A. Bales, Gertrude Sanders, Ida Brownlee, Margaret Archer, Messrs. T. P. Cartwright, G. H. Bales, Mac Sanders, Ned Prevost, Prof. Parks, and Dr. Wade Thompson.

Ladies Day at Elks Club.

Ladies day at the Elks Club on Friday afternoon was as usual a charming success, those present thoroughly enjoyed the delightful informality of the occasion. Cards, chatting and dancing were the forms of entertainment and there is always a charming and congenial party of ladies present among whom were: Mesdames M. L. Bonham, C. F. Ross, Bond Anderson, Elett Parker, Harrington Godfrey, Alice Sykes, Phillip Sasseen, S. N. Gilmer, T. E. Howard, R. J. Ramer, J. J. Baldwin, Misses Caroline Vance and Jessie Browne.

In Honor of Miss Vance.

A pretty little affair for the week was the charming little party given on Thursday evening by Miss Sara Hayes in honor of Miss Caroline Vance, the attractive guest of Miss Jessie Browne. Miss Vance was one of Anderson's most popular young women during her residence here and her many friends are giving her a very cordial welcome back and many charming little affairs have been given in her honor. Miss Hayes had just a few friends in for the evening in a delightful informal way that was thoroughly enjoyed by those so fortunate as to be her guests.

Your son has a new watch standard

Take note of your boy's ideals when you choose a watch for him. Things he is proud to own are those he knows are accepted as "right" by men of discrimination.

He no more wants a watch of yesterday than he would an old-style motor car. And he knows that today of the Gruen Verithin Watch is the time-piece that it is a mark of distinction to own.

Come in and see it. Let us explain how a new, mechanically correct arrangement of wheels makes it only half as thick as the ordinary watch, yet retains full size and strength of parts and highest timekeeping precision.
