Belgian Christmas Fund is $262.54.

The coming in yesterday of $260 more for the Belgian Christmas Fund raises the total of the contributions received here to $262.54. The additional subscriptions came from the First Baptist church, $2, and the Green Pond school, 60 cents. The amount raised here was telegraphed to Henry Clews, of New York, treasurer of the movement in the United States.

Contract for Theatre Work.

It was stated yesterday that it is likely the H. D. Goss Sign company of this city will be awarded the contract for decorating the interior of the new theatre. The contract will be awarded in the next few days and will represent something like $700 worth of work. The plastering work in the new theatre is going along nicely at present and indications point to the structure being ready for use by the first of February.

Fined for Not Paying Poll Tax.

In the court of Magistrate Broadwell yesterday morning Horace Hollingsworth, colored, was brought to trial on charges of failure to pay poll tax. The law provides a fine of $10 and the payment of costs upon conviction of such charges, and in this case Hollingsworth was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 or serve 20 days on the public works of the county. He chose the days.

Off the Gang and on Again.

In the court of Magistrate Broadwell yesterday Ban Day, white, pleaded guilty to charges of beating a board bill and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve 10 days on the public works of the county. Day had just completed a 30 day sentence on the gang for larceny of a watch, which he took from another man at the Riverside Mill several weeks ago.

Letter From An Old Friend.

Mr. William Laughlin, who has been recommended for nomination as postmaster at Anderson has received scores of letters from friends all over the county congratulating him on his appointment. One of the most highly appreciated letters which he has received is the following:

"Ninety-Six, S. C., Dec. 19.
 "Dear Billie: Accept congratulations from an old friend on your appointment as postmaster at Anderson. I have known and loved you since the days of 1876, when you was known as Farley Wild Irishman and stood so close to me boys in the Red Shirt line at the back of Wade Hampton, a high top gentleman of pure Irish blood will stick as close to a friend till death. Your old friend, "Lewis M. Moore."

Clemency Extended City Prisoners.

Mayor Godfrey yesterday extended clemency to two prisoners who had long pending sentences on the county roads, suspending the unexpired portions of their terms. One of the convicts, a white man, was sent to the gang October 19th with sentences aggregating 80 days. His time would have been out January 19. The other prisoner was Andrew Jones, colored, who went to the gang on December 15th to serve a 10 days sentence for drunkenness.

Invited to Speak in Charleston.

W. W. Fuller, secretary of the committee on conventions of the Charleston Chamber of Commerce for the year 1915 has written the Rev. W. H. Frazer, D. D., of this city and asked that he allow his name to be placed on the list of speakers for Charleston for the coming year.

Rain and Sleet Fell Yesterday.

Anderson was visited yesterday by one of the sloppiest, most disagreeable days of recent weeks. Early in the day rain began falling, and about noon this turned to sleet. Within a short while the precipitation turned to a mixture of sleet and rain, and this came down at a rapid clip for a while. Toward night there was a drop in the temperature, which made the weather all the more disagreeable. Despite the inclement weather, there were numbers of shoppers in the city and merchants generally reported doing a good day's business.

Interest Here in Lad's Future.

Departure from Charleston of William Thomas Truesdale and his sister, children of Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Truesdale, is greatly deplored in musical circles here, these young people being, remarkably talented music, the performance of William Thomas on the violin being so wonderful that greatest things are expected of him, musicians here saying there is no reason why he should not become one of the greatest violinists of the period if he continues his instructions with the zeal he has shown in the past, and his sister is equally fine at the piano. William Thomas has received many requests to play in public by discerning Charleston musicians, and his musical career will be watched with great interest by those who have heard him play here. Recently beginning lessons at the piano, he has "caught up" with many who have had lessons an entire year, showing that his talent is not for the violin alone, and friends here have greatest regret that his musical education can not be continued in Charleston, Charleston Post.

The foregoing will be of interest here, where William Truesdale formerly resided, his father being at the time pastor of St. John's Methodist church.

Took Negro Boy To Penitentiary.

Sheriff Ashley returned last night from Columbia, where he went for the purpose of placing in the State penitentiary a negro boy who was arrested here several days ago on charges of insulting a young white girl as she was on her way to work in one of the local cotton mills.

Library Will Be Closed.

It was announced yesterday that the public library will be closed Friday and Saturday. Books due on these days should be returned not later than Thursday, or a fine of two cents per day will be imposed.

Want Parole For a Negro.

A petition calling upon Governor Blease to parole one Lee Henderson is being circulated in the city. Henderson was convicted of killing another negro by the name of Perry Oliver, near the People's Oil Mill some eight years ago. Henderson was sentenced on January 18, 1907 by Judge Ernest Gary to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary. Recently the negro was sent to the county chain gang here and for some time has been serving under guard Carl McConnell. Henderson is in the class of convicts known as "trusties."

Grieved to Learn Of Lady's Death.

Anderson friends of Mrs. Allie May Liddell, daughter of the Rev. H. C. Kennel, who preached at Varennes for years, were grieved yesterday to learn of her death, which occurred at Lowndesville, Thursday morning after an illness of some three weeks. She was born at Cross Hill 34 years ago, a portion of her childhood being spent at Due West, but the greater portion of her life lived among the people of Lowndesville. She was married to Thomas C. Liddell in March, 1906. A son was born to this union on December 10 and still survives. After the birth of her child she grew gradually stronger but a few days ago she developed pneumonia which ended her suffering early Thursday morning. The funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian church by the Rev. Mr. Clotfelter, the interment being in the Presbyterian cemetery Friday morning. Besides her husband and little son, she is survived by her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Kennel; three sisters, Misses Lilla and Minnie Fennel of Lowndesville, Mrs. S. M. McAdams of Iva; three brothers, Dr. J. L. Fennel of Waterloo, Dr. H. C. Fennel of Savannah, Ga., and R. C. Fennel of Columbia.

Diagnosed.

"I've cared for several persons," she explained, "but I never loved anyone so that I would have been willing to give up my home and work for him, if necessary. That is real love, isn't it?"

"No, that isn't real love. That is softening of the brain."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Health Failed Him.

Two or three years ago failing health compelled Dr. Copeland to resign from the ministry. He was given a position as land and industrial agent of the Piedmont & North-east Lines. He filled this position most acceptably, as he was a man of splendid business ability.

Dr. Copeland was some 40 years of age. Several years ago he was married to Miss Etma Clinkscaler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Clinkscaler of Due West. She with two children survive him. One child died while Dr. Copeland was living at Gainesville and it is buried there.

REV. O. J. COPELAND, D. D. DIED IN ASHEVILLE, N. C.

WILL BE BURIED THIS AFTERNOON AT GAINESVILLE, GEORGIA

LIVED HERE

Dr. Copeland Was a Native of Anderson County and Once Lived in City.

People of the city and county of Anderson will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of the Rev. Oliver J. Copeland, D. D., which occurred early Tuesday morning in Asheville, N. C., where he had been for several months in the hope that the climate of that resort would check the ravages of tuberculosis. He had been growing steadily worse for several weeks and friends and members of the family were prepared for the announcement of his death. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Gainesville, Ga., after which interment will be made in that city. The Rev. O. L. Martin, of this city, will conduct the funeral services. It is probable that several friends of the dead minister and former resident of Anderson will go to Gainesville for the funeral services.

Native of County.
 Dr. Copeland was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Copeland, and was born near Cheddar, which is between Belton and Williamston. When quite a young man he lived in this city and at one time worked for the late R. S. Hill when the latter conducted the Alliance Store. In later years he entered the Baptist ministry and served as pastor of Hopewell, Neal's Creek, Mount Bethel, Mountain Creek and Oakdale churches for some time. From Anderson he went to Waynesboro, Ga., where he served as pastor for a large congregation. It was during his pastorate at Waynesboro that Dr. Copeland caused the erection of a handsome church building, one that compares favorably with any in the State of Georgia.

Served in Atlanta.
 From Waynesboro Dr. Copeland was called to the pastorate of Jackson Hill Baptist church of Atlanta. After serving there for some time he was called to Gainesville, Ga., while serving the congregation of that city a magnificent church, costing something like $60,000, was erected, and it was largely due to Dr. Copeland's influence that it was built. It was while Dr. Copeland was at Gainesville that Mercer University conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon him. Dr. Copeland was also elected a trustee of the institution.

Health Failed Him.
 Two or three years ago failing health compelled Dr. Copeland to resign from the ministry. He was given a position as land and industrial agent of the Piedmont & North-east Lines. He filled this position most acceptably, as he was a man of splendid business ability.

Dr. Hunt

Well Known Physician of Townville Passed Away Monday Night.

Dr. W. T. Hunt, a well known physician of the county and for years a resident of Townville, died Monday night at the Anderson County Hospital after an illness of several months duration. Dr. Hunt was taken to Baltimore last summer, where he spent several months in one of the large hospitals of that city, in the hope that his health would be benefited. A few weeks ago he was brought back to the city and taken to the Anderson County hospital, it being realized at the time that the end was merely a matter of a few days. Death was due to Bright's disease.

Dr. Hunt was born at Honea Path some 52 years ago. He lived in the Barkers Creek section until he was about 17 years ago when he went to the University of Georgia, where he took his degree. He graduated from a medical school in Augusta in 1890. After his graduation Dr. Hunt went to Townville, where he practiced his profession until failing health caused his retirement. He had two sisters and one brother, E. W. Hunt, of Asheville and Mesdames E. Z. Seymour and Thomas Cromer of Greenville.

The remains were taken to Townville yesterday morning and the funeral services and interment took place there yesterday afternoon.

Some two weeks ago Dr. Hunt was married to Miss Sallie McCarley of Townville, the marriage being solemnized at the hospital by the Rev. W. H. Frazer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Tough on Both.
 Patrick's face was so homely that it had been described as an "offense to the landscape," and he was as poor as he was homely. One day a neighbor met him and said: "And how are you, Pat?" "Mighty bad," answered Pat. "It's starvation that is staring me in the face." "In that so?" said the sympathetic inquirer. "Sure, and it can't be very pleasant for either of ye."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.
