The editorial in yesterday's Intelligencer calling attention to the plight of a destitute family in one of the cotton mill villages was productive of much good, or rather it was responsible for several kind hearted people of the city volunteering aid for the poor widow and her two fever-stricken children and the third little fellow who bravely went to work in the mill and came home at noon to find not a morsel of food in the house to allay the pangs of hunger. Finds Family Destitute. A kind hearted lady of the city called at The Intelligencer office yesterday morning and inquired as to where this family could be found. She and her sister visited the miserable home and carried food enough to succor the hungry family for a short while. In speaking of this matter last night this lady stated that she found the family to be in deplorable circumstances. There was no food of any kind in the house, the mother had no money, there was little if any fuel on the premises, and two of the children were down with typhoid fever. Discovers Typhoid Family. While visiting this family, the lady said, she discovered another family in the same mill village in circumstances equally deplorable. There is a girl in the family who is ill with pelagra and it is thought that her mind has become impaired. In this household, it was stated, the ghost of poverty stalks as fearfully as in the other home. The widow referred to, it was stated by the lady, received a cow from a son who lives in the country. But the cow is all but useless to the poor widow, for she has no food for the animal. Yesterday she sent to a nearby store to get some meal and hulls for the cow, but was denied the same because she did not have the money to pay for the food. Having a cow and no money for food for the animal and no money with which to get it, it was stated, is worse than ever, because it brings suffering to another, though it is a dumb brute. Need Immediate Help. These two families, the lady stated, are in need of assistance immediate. They need not only clothing, food and fuel, but they need money with which to purchase necessities for those who are lying seriously ill. The Intelligencer received yesterday the sum of $7.60 in contributions for the "Belgians in Anderson." This money will be distributed among families that are in need of immediate assistance. Woody certainly is the guy that put the "sage" in message.—Anniston (Ala.) Star. The censors seem to be immune to writer's cramp.—Wilmington Dispatch.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR IMPROVEMENT TO SOUTH STOREROOM OF C. A. REED BUILDING ON MAIN ST. BEGIN JANUARY 1 Improvements Will Be Made by Mr. J. L. Masters—Fine Cafe to Be Opened. The contract for the remodeling of the south storeroom of the old C. A. Reed building has been awarded to Mr. J. L. Masters by Mr. G. H. Balles, the owner of the property. Work upon the improvements will begin January 1. An entire new front will be placed in the store room. The ceiling will be raised some two feet. A tile floor will be put down and steel ceiling put up. In the rear a stairway will be constructed leading to the floor above. The improvements will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000, it is stated. As generally known, Augustus Antonakos, proprietor of the Piedmont cafe, has leased the property that is one of the most up-to-date restaurants in this section of the State. Mr. Antonakos, it is stated, has contracted for some $4,000 worth of new fixtures for his new place. Among the improvement will be a new front of rough red brick. The upper portion of the front will be of white stucco. A plate glass front will also be installed. On the interior of the building the wainscoting will be some 10 feet high and this will be mounted on a marble base. The wainscoting, tables, counters and other fixtures will be of mahogany finish. The counters will have marble tops. The pantry and kitchen will be in the rear of the place and the sanitation of the entire building will be most modern. It is the intention of Mr. Antonakos to fit up private dining rooms on the second floor of the building, but this will not be done at present. The exterior improvements will be made by the owner of the building, while Mr. Antonakos will have the interior improvements made. The building is 22 feet in width and when finished will make one of the neatest and most attractive eating places in the upper section of the State. They also propose to put in a general line of merchandise and will sell goods as cheap as they can be bought anywhere. C. M. Martin will move his shingle mill to this section as soon as the holidays are over and will be glad to do work for all who wish such work done. He has recently purchased a new outfit and will do first class work. G. B. Cobb and family will soon move from this section to their farm near Beaver Dam. The many friends of Dr. J. E. Allgood are sorry to learn of the accident that happened to him while hauling wood last Saturday which necessitated an operation which was performed by Drs. Harris of Anderson and Watkins and Day of Pendleton. Emory Williams is moving to his home recently purchased from W. H. Tucker near Walker-McElmoyle. The patrons of Rural Route No. 1 out of Williamston are very indignant over the removal of Frank Ellison as carrier by the fourth assistant postmaster general. We think he was removed without just cause and had rather see the route discontinued as for Ellison to lose his job unjustly. Many blame Congressman Alken in the matter and will remember him in the hereafter for it. W. C. B.
