

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful to-night and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

We Can Raise Your Salary!

That is—by making your money go farther in the purchase of good meats. We cut meat and we are also cutting the prices; read these prices.

Commerical and Financial

Stocks and Bonds.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—That the supply of securities continues in excess of the demand was again demonstrated by the heavy course of today's dull movement on the stock exchange.

United States Steel assumed its old position as leader, falling in the early dealings to 48 3/4; from which it rose fractionally, only to decline again in the final hour.

In early trading Reading and Lehigh Valley had not evaded the anti-trust laws in its relations with some of its subsidiaries.

Bethlehem Steel preferred was another instance of strength partially as a result of a rumor to the effect that the company had secured more large orders from abroad.

Latest war news was productive of a more cheerful feeling in London, where reports of a re-opening of the exchange early in the coming year were revised.

Bonds were irregular with free selling of the active group. Total sales, par value, were $1,575,000.

United States government coupon 3's advanced 2-4 per cent. on call.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—There was a further broadening of trade and investment buying in the cotton market today and prices made new high ground for the movement with the close firm at a net gain of from 15 to 17 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 5 points, with active months selling at 9 points net higher shortly after the call. There was heavy realizing at this advance for over the holidays.

The scattering demand through wire and commission houses became more active than at any time since the reopening of the market, and all months made new high ground for the day.

It is reported that German interests have been heavy buyers on futures here during the past two weeks and have also been heavy buyers of spot cotton, which is being stored at the ports and larger interior towns awaiting better shipping facilities.

Cotton, spot, quiet; middling upland 7.65. Sales 200 bales. Futures closed firm.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 22.—Heavy buying of cotton forced the market today to an advance of almost a dollar a bale for the most active months. It was the largest advance since the resumption of business.

Buying was stimulated by the export situation. The day's exports were 46,500 bales. There also were stories of heavy bookings of ocean room by cotton shippers in the South and the large number of vessels listed to sail from gulf ports during this month and January.

Spot markets generally were very steady and higher. It was reported from several States that owing to bad roads shorts were unable to transport purchases made at small interior points and were being forced into the larger markets in order to cover commitments.

Spot cotton firm. Sales on the spot 775 bales; to arrive 2,560.

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 22.—Cotton, spot, fair business; prices firm; American middling fair 5.32; good middling 4.71; middling 4.47; low middling 4.00; good ordinary 3.58; ordinary 2.92; sales 12,000 bales, including 5,000 American and 2,500 for speculation and export. Receipts 31,000 bales, including 30,700 American.

Futures closed very steady. May-June 4.25; June-July 4.81-1/2; July-August 4.35-1/2; August-September 4.31-1/2; September-October 4.42; October-November 4.47; November-December 4.49; December-January 4.51; January-February 4.52 1/2; February-March 4.25 1/2.

Dry Goods

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Cotton goods markets were steady today with a moderate business passing. The demand for wool products for war purposes was active. The silk market was steadier and broadened. Export cotton goods markets showed a slight gain.

Cotton Seed Oil

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—After starting higher, cottonseed oil eased off under pre-holiday liquidation, but the list firmed up again near the close in sympathy with the strength in lard and cotton and light crude offerings. Final prices were 1 to 6 points net higher. Sales 4,900 barrels.

IVA NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Swan of Boston and Mr. Horton of New York on their return trip from Cuba stopped in Greenville and came over to Iva on last Thursday and spent a few hours visiting the Jackson Mills. Messrs. Swan and Horton are connected with the A. J. Tower Co., of Boston, well known makers of oiled clothing and other cotton fabrics and have been large purchasers and users of the Jackson mills product for several years and these gentlemen wanted to see the making of this cloth in all its processes from the raw cotton to the finishing and packing. They were well pleased with their visit and their hearty approval of the Jackson mills and its workings was expressed without stint.

Mr. J. T. Bowman of Lowndesville was here a few hours Monday on business. Miss Lulu Finley, who has been attending the Sacred Heart Academy of Greenville, is home for the holidays. Dr. J. N. Land and J. B. Leverett of Starr were here a few hours Saturday on business.

The Missionary and Aid Society of the First Baptist church met on last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Marshall Jones at her home on Main street. There was a splendid attendance and the afternoon was spent in readings from Miss Nancy Pearson, Miss Cora Howell, Mrs. Cliff D. Coleman, Mrs. Bill Schrimp, Mrs. B. A. Watt, Mrs. Henry Wakefield and Miss Selma Simpson. During the social part, Mrs. Jones served a sweet course.

Miss Essie Cook was hostess at a party at her home on Friday evening to the members of the Iva high school. The occasion was a pleasant one and the young folks enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

Mrs. Preston Adams of Latimer was among the visitors here Saturday.

Mrs. E. B. Willis who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. McDonald of Anderson has returned home.

Mr. E. C. Williamson of Abbeville spent a few days here last week on business.

Mr. Feaster Jones of Starr was among the visitors here Saturday.

Mr. Clem McGee of Anderson spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Jane McGee.

Miss Sarah Gilliland, a student of Anderson College, came home Saturday for the holidays.

Rev. T. C. O'Dell, presiding elder of the Anderson district, preached in the Methodist church here Sunday morning from the text, "Remember them that are in bonds as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body." On account of the inclemency of the weather the congregation was small.

Mr. Joe Sherard was in Anderson Monday on business.

Mr. James Watt of The West is on a visit to his brother, Mr. Reese Watt. The Philathea class of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Miss Georgia Felle Baskin Tuesday, the 29th, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Swift Maret, who is a student in the A. and M. Institute at Athens, Ga., is home for the holidays.

NEWS FROM STARR

STARR, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Claude Jones and Mrs. Feaster Jones entertained the Stephen D. Lee chapter, U. D. C., on last Saturday afternoon at the home of the former. Although the weather was so bad there was a good number of the members with some visitors present to enjoy this unusually pleasant meeting. Mrs. Jones' beautiful new home with its bright Christmas decorations and glowing grates presented a striking contrast to the wind and rain without. After a few items of business were disposed of an interesting program was carried out. A selection, "The First Christmas After Freedom," was read by Miss Annie Shirley and a paper, "Is the Christmas Spirit Dying Out," by Mrs. A. S. Bowie. Two duets were well rendered by Misses Annie Halford and Mabel Jones and were very much appreciated and enjoyed.

A chorus, "The Homespun Dress," was sung by a number of the ladies, and this completed the program. The genial hostesses served a delightful salad course during the social hour. Mrs. L. O. McCalla will entertain the chapter in January.

Misses Jessie and Nele Smith, Bethia McMahan and Roselle Chickalee of Limestone College are at home to spend the Christmas holidays.

Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Dean and little Carey left yesterday for a visit of two weeks in Louisiana.

Miss Mildred Goode left Saturday for Shelby, N. C., to spend the holidays with her parents.

Mrs. Emily Davis Clark of Detroit, Mich., is visiting her sisters here, Mrs. B. H. Hodges and Mrs. Will Carlisle.

Miss Annie Halford has gone to her home in Blackville to spend Christmas with her parents.

Miss Lella Stuart received a telegram on last Saturday bringing the sad intelligence of her father's death at Fountain Inn and she left immediately for her home.

The Rev. J. Andrew Smith, synodical evangelist of South Carolina, conducted a ten days meeting here which closed on last Tuesday night. Mr. Smith is a strong and forceful speaker and it was a rare treat and an inspiration to hear him.

The Starr high school will give an entertainment on next Tuesday evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The small admission fee of 15 cents will be asked the proceeds to go to the School Improvement Association.

Misses Lula Dean and Jessie Smith will be the supply teachers in the high school during the absence of Misses Goode and Stuart.
