Probable Course of German Ships That Bombarded British Towns.

This map shows the location of the towns and cities on the east coast of England which were bombarded by German cruisers, and the probable course of the cruisers to the attack across the North Sea. Scarborough, Hartlepool, West Hartlepool, and Whitby were among those into which shells were thrown by the German cruisers. It was believed by the naval experts that the cruisers left the vicinity of the Kiel Canal or Heligoland and made their way up the coast of Denmark to a point on the coast of Norway northwest from Christiania and that then they shot southwest across the North Sea to Scarborough. The report that they made their way directly from Kiel to Scarborough which would, of course, have taken less time than the trip north, is discredited because this part of the sea is believed not only to be patrolled by British gunboats but to be covered with mines.

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Giving of Noses Checks Charged. A colored citizen by the name of Lawrence Walker was arrested yesterday by Deputy James Williams on charges of issuing bogus checks and locked in the county jail, where he will remain until given hearing in the court of Magistrate Broadwell. The giving of bogus checks has gotten to be quite a common offense, says the magistrate, as he now has several hundred stored away in a big bill fold which he keeps for the purpose. He has bogus checks in his possession ranging in size all the way from $100 down to $1. "I am going to get a good start some of these days," said Magistrate Broadwell yesterday, "and have a general cleaning up of this matter."

Large Indulgence College Folk. Practically every train coming into Anderson yesterday brought in its quota of college folk, coming home to spend the holidays with parents or other relatives. Perhaps every college in the State, or at any rate a large majority of them, were represented by the students arriving during the day. Representatives of institutions Numbers of those coming in were Anderson young men and young women who are teaching schools away from home. Today will see others coming in but not so many of these will be college folk. They will be members of Anderson families living elsewhere who are coming to spend Christmas with loved ones.

Gore in Washington Thanksgiving. and that he heard Senator Gore tell Congressman Johnson of Spartanburg of his intended visit to Anderson. Senator Gore has been engaged to appear on the chautauqua platform in 22 States and deliver his well known temperance address, and it is while making this tour that he contemplates visiting Anderson. The grandfather of the revenue agent who was here yesterday and the grandfather of the United States Senator were brothers. Senator Gore's wife was Miss Nina Day, whom he met in West Texas.

Georgia Sheriff Is Coming Here. Sheriff Sid Johnson of Hart county, Georgia, is expected to arrive in Anderson today for the purpose of talking back to Georgia a white man by the name of Will Keys, who is wanted on charges of having eloped with his step mother-in-law. The man Keys was arrested in this city Tuesday night by a policeman. Keys was taken to the county jail, where he will be held until the arrival of the Georgia sheriff. It seems that the charges against Keys are the result of a family feud. Sheriff Johnson was expected to arrive either last night or today, but as he had not communicated with any of the city or county officials until a late hour last night, it is presumed that he did not arrive.

Christmas Weather Is a Real Puzzle. Even the weather prophets are puzzled as to what manner of weather Anderson is going to have for Christmas. The rain and sleet of Tuesday broke off about midnight, but it remained cloudy throughout the night. Yesterday the day dawned partially clear, but later clouds gathered and for a while it looked very much as though snow would come. The day was not altogether a comfortable one, one expressed it, the cold was "snapping." It got hold of a fellow and he shivering ere he realized that really was cold. Everyone is hoping that the weather on Christmas day, least, will be clear, crisp and bracing. In fact, prophets have ventured to predict that such weather will extend "then there is many a slip 'twixt cup and lip."

Of this amount 20,000 will be purchased for the Equinox mills and the balance for the Gluck mills. This number of bales will constitute a two year's supply. Other storage arrangements will be made to take care of the larger purchases.

Cuts Up Seven Innocent "Stills." Thomas H. Gore, special agent of the United States revenue department, yesterday destroyed seven copper stills at the county jail which Sheriff Ashley and his deputies had collected during the past several months. The stills destroyed yesterday were those captured from George, Ernest and Will Williford, negroes, who are charged with operating several mills north of the city, from George Williford, who is charged with operating again west of the city, from a place on the river; from down near Craft's old ferry on Mr. Manning's place; from a farm west of the city where two men are charged with having operated, and two stills which were captured down on Savannah River. The agent spoke highly of the work done by Sheriff Ashley in suppressing the illicit distilling of whiskey in this county and stated that Mr. Ashley should receive the usual compensation of $10 for every still destroyed and $50 for every conviction for violation of the law against the manufacture of whiskey. The agent intimated that he might be sent back here with a deputy marshal for the purpose of making cases against parties who are thought to have operated the stills.

School Children Freed Yesterday. Yesterday at noon over 3,000 children were dismissed from the city schools for the Christmas holidays. Glad to be free from the labors of the class room for such a long period, the youngsters gave vent to their feelings in shouts and yells that were audible for blocks about each school house and along the streets through which they passed on route home. The schools will resume work Monday, January 4, 1915. Teachers in the city schools who live away from here left yesterday afternoon for their respective homes.

Between now and the last of January annual meetings of stockholders and directors of banks and cotton mills and other corporations will be in order.

Says Senator Gore Is Coming Here. Thomas H. Gore, a special agent of the United States revenue department, who came to Anderson yesterday on official business, is authority for the statement that United States Senator and Mrs. Gore of Oklahoma are going to visit Anderson county in the near future. Mrs. Gore, it is stated, has an only uncle, a Mr. Day, who is said to be living in this county, and it is for the purpose of visiting this relative that they are coming here. The revenue agent who was here yesterday stated that he dined with Senator

No Recorder's Court Yesterday. In the absence of cases on the police docket, there was no session of the recorder's court yesterday. And judging from the appearance of the docket at a late hour yesterday afternoon, there will be nothing for Recorder Russell to give his attention to today. Up until a late hour in the afternoon not a single arrest had been made by the city police. If the record is kept up through today, this will prove one of the most orderly Christmases Anderson has ever known.
