The Annual Banquet.
A special car attached to one of the Interurban trains leaving the city yes-terday morning carried some three dozen employees of the Southern Public Utilities company and the Piedmont and Northern Lines, who make their headquarters in this city. They were bound to Charlotte, where the annual banquet was held last night of the employees of the Duke interests which embraces the Southern Power company, the Piedmont and Northern Lines, the Southern Public Utilities company. Heretofore it has been the custom to banquet the employees of these three companies separately and in different cities, but this year it was decided to bring the employees of all companies together in one big ban-

Anderson Folks

Saw a Fox Hunt.

Few Anderson folk had ever witnessed a fox hunt until yesterday, when scores of them saw the real thing. This one, however, was on a motion picture screen. It was none the less realistic, though, and just as enjoyable as the sure enough hunt doubtless is. The picture was staged liero in Anderson by an Atlanta firm and Col. James T. Roberts furnished the "dope." The film was shown at the Payamount theatre yesterday and last night and will be shown again Mon.

The last few days have been exceptionally busy ones with Magistrate W. C. Broadwell, and in one line particutracts, that of drawing up labor con-tracts, he has been rushed beyond all comprehension. On Thursday he drew up 40 such papers. How many he drew prior to that date is not known, but the number will probably exceed a hundred. Farm laborers are being promised all the way from $8 to $15 per month. The average price, however, is $12 per month, the laborer agreeing to feed himself.

Vo Recorder's Court

On Christmas Day. There was no session of the recorder's court on Christmas day. Consequently those mortals who were lock-ed up Thursday night and did not get out on bail were forced to languish in prison throughout that night and all day Friday night and until noon yesterday, when court was held. The majority of those who were locked up Christmas eve managed to obtain ball in some manner, leaving but a few who were forced to spend the Yule Tide in the city prison.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF FAIR PLAY TROUBLE

THIS REPORT STATES THAT NECROES WERE BEATEN UNTIL DEAD.

WERE DRUNK.

Story from Walhalla To a Greenville Paper Goeos Into Detail.

The following account of the recent trouble at Fair Play when two or more negroes were killed and several wounded and some four or five white men wounded was sent out from Walhalla and published in the Greenville Daily Piedmont of last Thursday:

No official information has as yet been given out as to the deplorable tragedy that took place near Fair Play during Sunday as the result of which two negroes, Green Gibson and his son George, Green Gibson and his son George, are dead and a third. Tom Spright, is said to be seriously injured, having been beaten up. Spright is in the hands of Sheriff Sidney Johnson of Hart county, Georgia, who is keeping him safely until the trouble at Fair Play blows over.

Detailed information regarding the horrible affair is hard to get and there horriole analy is used to get and there are many rumors concerning the trouble. From sources deemed reliable, this information is given:

It seems to be the general opinion that whiskey is at the bottom of the whole ghastly affair. While the killing of Green Gibson took place in the ing of Green Gibson took place in the afternoon of Sunday the beginning of the trouble was early it the morning when Woodrow Campbell, who lives when Woodrow Campbell, who lives near Townville, went to the home of Tom Spright, awakening him and telling him, "Get up from there and let's go to Georgia." The negro demurred, but he was taken anyway and it is said that the white man compelled three negro men to go along and do the beating of Tom Spright. The crowd seemed to increase in size as the party moved toward Georgia. While the angry crowd wa's standing in the road near Knox bridge, George Gibson and his brother came along in a buggy and asked the white men to let them pass. They informed the negroes that they knew when to let them go on. About this time one of the white men walked up to the luggy in which the negroes was the they knew when to let them this position, but the papers issued in the appointment of Mr. Yeargin stat-ed that Mr. Milam had failed to quali-WE BUY PEAS and pay the cash. About this time one of the white men walked up to the huggy in which the negroes were riding and said: "We want this one," !crking George Gibson from the buggy and hitting him over the head with pistols. He and Tom Spright were carried. You know crop is dangerous. And you should also know the sense of security that comes from always hav-He and Tom Spright were carried across the bridge to the Georgia side security that comes from always having Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house, It cuts the thick mucus and clears away the phlegm, stops the strangling cough and gives easy breathing and quiet sleep. They would whip one while and make the other stand aride and rate are as they said and the white get sore, as they said, and then whip him again. Finally both negroes fell exhausted.

The negroes were carried by white The negroes were carried by white friends to the barn of Mack Crawford, about a quarter of a mile away, but died some time during Sunday night. Spright also spent the night in Mr. Crawford's barn. In the meantime, the young Gibson negro, who was accompanying his brother George, turned his buggy around and went turned his buggy around and went back for his father, Green Gibson, who lived on Allen Marret's place. The boy and his father soon returned with shot guns to the bridge, where the men were still engaged on the opposite side of the river in beating George Gibson and Tom Spright. Green Gibson, the father of George Gibson, and his younger son opened fire on and his younger son opened fire on The longest way round is the sweetest way home; so it is said. And Manager Pinkston of the Palmetto Theatre says that every attraction billed at the Palmetto is better than the one and his younger son opened fire on the crowd with shot guns while they were still beating George Gibson. Some 25 or 30 shots were exchanged between the Gibsons, who were under the bridge and the white men on the Georgia side. The Gibsons fin-ally retreated from the bridge. The white men followed in pursuit and late in the afternoon Green Gibson was shot to death on the place of Magistrate McClure and his body was was shot to death on the place of Magistrate McClure and his body was seen by numbers of people who passed, lying out in a cotton field on the McClure place. His shot gan had been taken away from him and beaten to pleces over his head and was lying broken by his rigid form. The body remained where it fell until Monday night or possibly longer. The white men who received injuries in the fray are reported as follows: Magistrate McClure, who is said to have about 30 shot in the face and head; Woodrow Campbell and Marcit, both only slightly wounded by acattering shot, and John McDonald, who is said to have one eye shot out.

Sheriff John W. Davis, of Ocenee, has been on the scene now for the pest 48 hours, but no word has come from him save that at present all is quiet in the Fair Play section.

Tom Spright farmed with Woodrow Campbell the past year in Anderson county and is said to have made a good crop and had on hand at the time he was taken to Georgia 17 bales of cotton. Green Gibson and his boy are said to have been hard-working peaceable negroes.
