ILLINOIS COMPLAINANT EX-GENERAL BOER WAR

Government Officials Find Similar Suit Was Instituted During Boer War.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—State and Justice department officials today discovered that a suit exactly similar to that filed in the Wisconsin state court by Samuel Pearson seeking to prevent war munitions being exported was brought by a person of the same name in New Orleans during the Boer war.

In that suit Samuel Pearson, a refugee Boer General sought to prevent the exportation of American mules for British use. In the Wisconsin suit Samuel Pearson seeks to elicit from the president of the Allis Chalmers Company facts on which to base proceedings for alleged conspiracy to violate the United States neutrality law. Officials believe the complainant is the same in both cases.

MRS. HOLLEMAN TO CLOSE OUT BUSINESS

HAS CONDUCTED LARGE AND FASHIONABLE STORE FOR LADIES

RETIRING SALE

Opens Monday Morning and Greatly Reduced Prices Will Prevail.

Mrs. J. C. Holleman announced Saturday that she is going out of business and that she will close out her stock of goods as soon as possible. Her fine line of goods will be placed on sale on Monday morning at greatly reduced prices, and she will close them out without delay.

Mrs. Holleman stated that she regrets having to give up her store for she is very fond of the work and loves to deal with the ladies of Anderson, but that recently the business has become so large she is unable to keep up with all the work by herself.

Mrs. Holleman began her business career in Anderson some 7 years ago, on South Main street. She began with a small millinery parlor, and now she has one of the prettiest women's stores in the State of South Carolina. Many Anderson women will regret that she is to retire from business.

BUSINESS IN BANKING AND FERTILIZER GOOD

President Vandiver of Phosphate Company and Bank Has Good Reports.

Mr. J. R. Vandiver, president of the Anderson Phosphate and Oil company and of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, stated yesterday in reply to a query from a representative of The Intelligencer regarding the sales of fertilizer during the month of March, 1915 exceeded the sales for the corresponding month of the preceding year by something like $16,000, and that the deposits in the Farmers and Merchants Bank are larger at this time than they were this time last year.

Mr. Vandiver stated that he was of the opinion most of the fertilizer concerns figures on a 50 or 60 per cent business this year on account of general business depression, and that he expected such a business on the contrary he found that the business this season was 85 per cent of the business done last season.

The fertilizer plant west of the city is closed down at present for certain minor repairs, but will be ready for operations about July 1. The directors of the company recent met in special session, when they expressed themselves as well pleased with the year's business. At the meeting Mr. W. Frank Farmer was elected secretary of the company.

ANDERSON'S NEWEST HOTEL IS A BEAUTY

ST. JAMES OPENED YESTERDAY MORNING AND MANY REGISTERED FIRST DAY

ELEGANT DINNER

Will be Served Every Sunday Especially Though Cuisine at Times Will Be Good.

The St. James hotel, Anderson's newest and latest of hostilities, was thrown open to the public yesterday morning and quite a number of regular boarders were on hand for breakfast, the first meal served. Under the management of Messrs. J. C. Pressly and J. B. Earle it bids fair to rank among the best in the Piedmont section.

No expense or effort has been spared to make it attractive and homelike, and an inspection of the whole building shows it to be in beautiful order, new furniture, linen, curtains and everything else to make it a thoroughly up-to-date and modern hotel.

"A home for the travelling man" is the slogan for this new hotel, and a home it will be in every sense of the word, convenient to the business center, and yet away from the noise of Main street. It has every advantage to make it a real home for the man with the grip.

Mr. W. L. Minus of Gainesville, Ga., was the first travelling man to register, but he was quickly followed by others, among whom were: S. W. Welber, New York City; David Rosenfeld, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Florence Ballenger, Westminster.

On Friday evening Mr. Earle and Mr. Pressly gave an opening reception and invited their Anderson friend and the public in general to inspect the building. The Anderson theatre orchestra furnished the music for the occasion which was a splendid success, about 200 people calling during the evening.

The management expects to make a specialty of Sunday dinners and each day an elegant menu will be served for 50 cents. Both Mr. Earle and Mr. Pressly have had experience in the hotel business and that the St. James will be a credit to Anderson is already assured. The menu for dinner today is as follows:

- Carolina Consomme Soup
- Pickles Olives Young Onions
- Lettuce en Mayonnaise
- Roast Chicken Chicken Pie
- String Beans Beets Cream Potatoes
- Sliced Tomatoes
- Corn Bread Butter Milk
- Steam Rice Asparagus Tips
- American Cheese Wafers
- Layer Cake Ice Cream
- Ice Tea Coffee Milk

LITTLE ACTIVITY IN COTTON DURING WEEK

Diminishing Spot Demand Causes Decline—Steadied Somewhat By Weather Reports.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Cotton has been less active the last week, with prices showing a tendency to work lower under realizing and reports of diminishing spot demand. At a decline of about 30 to 35 points from recent high records, however, the market has been steadied by reports of unfavorable weather south, indications of continued activity at advancing prices in the domestic goods market and the prompt stopping of May notices by local spot or banking interests.

Homes with Wall Street connections have been much less active in the market and it is supposed that many of their clients have turned their immediate attention from cotton to stocks. Some of the larger trade interests have been credited with selling new crop months, while there has also been considerable selling of those positions for Liverpool. Notices so far issued against May contracts have amounted to more than 30,000 bales, but scattering near month liquidation has been well absorbed at a discount of about 25 to 30 points under July, and it is reported that all tenders of cotton not yet passed upon by the department of agriculture are to be appealed in order to get certificates from the government classes. Heavy rains reported southwest have been accompanied by reports of damage to all crops, with delay to preparations and planting, while continued dry weather east of the river has led to complaints that rains were needed to cause germination.

Many traders consider it still too early for any serious apprehension as to ultimate yields, however, and bullish crop reports have failed to create any general aggressive demand, although they have restricted selling and encouraged more or less investment buying on declines.

There has been little change in local estimates as to probable exports or domestic mill requirements for the season and private reports on acreage have shown reductions of from 14 to 16.6 per cent.
