TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

We want a good live correspondent in each community in the county to write the news for the Sentinel. And we want to emphasize the word "news." Ideas as to what news is vary, but ours are it consists of that class of events and happenings which is out of the ordinary and usual trend, something which would be really information to the public at large.

The public generally is not interested in such as "John Smith called on Miss Sallie Jones last Sunday," or "Buster Brown has bought himself a new buggy," or "Richard Roe took supper with John Doe Saturday night." Such as this usually happens every day or week in every community.

The kind of news we will be glad to get and publish is such as deaths, marriages, serious accidents, etc. We will be glad, also, to publish the views of any of our correspondents or citizens thoughts and expressions on religious, social, moral or political subjects which tend to build up and strengthen our citizenship.

We beg, therefore, that our correspondents will keep these suggestions in mind and write us the news.

Promptness shall be our chief aim.

Miss Canada re-uses to be Uncle Sam's affinity.

The fair is over. Now read the Sentinel and be happy.

We want to publish some news about the schools in the county. Will not the superintendents or teachers of each school send us a short article?

Who says Pickens county is not growing when taxable property increases in one year two hundred and fourteen thousand, five hundred and fifty-seven dollars!

Law and Order League doing some effective this county judging from the small amount of crime being committed. We have not tried a single criminal case in the court of sessions since last February. In fact, our June term of court only lasted one day and the fall term was called off altogether.

The first day the new management took hold to begin operating the Sentinel the editor and printers counselled together and inaugurated three rules to be observed in the conduct of the affairs of the office, to-wit:

- No Drinking, No Smoking, No Swearing.

The Sentinel promises to improve. Last week we had a great deal of straightening out to do, new advertisements to put in and other hindrances, and could not give as much reading matter as we would liked to have given. But notwithstanding these drawbacks the paper came out on time and was in the postoffice Thursday morning.

Supervisor J. B. Craig has purchased for the county a rock crusher and a large gasoline engine to run it with. He expects to utilize this machinery in filling mud holes, building concrete piers and macadamizing the roads. He has also purchased a quantity of corrugated galvanized piping to be used across the roads in gulleys and small streams and for culverts.

Last Monday was saleday but nothing was sold. The crowd was quite small in town as the people had waited to come to the fair.

Rev. J. E. Foster after filling his appointment at Mountain View last Sunday spent the remainder of the week visiting the members of that church and to attend the association which convened there today (Thursday).

Dr. and Mrs. Hallum have the sincere sympathy of all their friends in the long and severe illness of the latter. At the time of going to press improvement was noted in her condition, which her friends will be delighted to know, and they will join us in hoping for her speedy recovery.

Sam N. Hyde, the man who a few months ago killed his wife and her father and convicted at the last term of court at Anderson, has repented of his deed and joined the First Baptist church of that city and will be baptized soon by the pastor, Dr. Vines. Announcement is made in the daily papers of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Katherine Shields Douthit, of Atlanta, and Mr. Claud Pryor Gentry of this County. Miss Douthit is a daughter of the late Judge Douthit of Greenville but now living in Atlanta, while Mr. Gentry is one of our prosperous farmers near Liberty. The marriage is announced to take place Nov. 1 next in the Pendleton street Baptist church, Greenville, S. C.

Mr. W. H. Williams, of the Peters Creek section, went to Atlanta last week on an excursion train. When the train reached Cornelia the train stopped to take on another car. He was standing in the aisle and the jar in coupling threw him across the arm of a seat. He was badly bruised, so much so that he had to be carried to a hospital for treatment. He recovered sufficiently to be brought home Friday, and his friends hope for his speedy recovery.

At the last Term of court each year six members of the grand jury panel are drawn to hold over for the next year. While we did not have any fall court this year this duty was performed by Clerk of Court Boggs the first day court was scheduled to convene, and the following members of the panel was drawn to serve for next year: J. F. Harris, J. P. Findley, S. F. Keith, A. M. Mauldin, John W. Thomas and O. P. Field. The other twelve of the grand jury for next year will be drawn just before the next term of court.

The children of Hon. and Mrs. G. S. Legare accompanied by their friend Mrs. Allen and servants left for Charleston last Thursday so that they might enter school on time.

Jones Bros. Big Show had a three-day stand in Pickens this week, and played to big crowds, day and night. The show is a good one, from every standpoint—clean, attractive and entertaining. The trapeze—a main feature of the aggregation—is as good as you will see with Barnum & Bailey; the clowns furnish their quota of fun-making and kept the crowd in a good humor. The dog and pony feature is fine—in fact the whole show is worth more than the price. Go out and see them.
