LOCAL BREVITIES

Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

Mr. James H. Hunt, of Dacusville, was among the visitors in the city last Monday.

J. R. and John Foster, of the Peters Creek section, were in the city last Monday.

Hon. B. A. Morgan, of Greenville, spent last Sunday in the city with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bowen.

Mr. Arthur Jones, of Easley, was in town last Saturday and advanced his subscription for another year.

Rev. J. E. Ashmore, of Greenville, will be the pastor of Cross Roads church next year, and will begin his labors in January.

Messrs. Frank C. Carey and Thurman Cochran, of Calhoun, spent last Sunday in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boggs.

Rev. W. R. Corder, of Greenville, has been called to the pastorate of Griffin church for next year, and will begin his work there in January.

Next Thursday, the 30th inst., will be Thanksgiving day. Do not forget to give thanks to the giver of all good gifts, and also remember the poor.

Mrs. T. J. Mauldin and Miss Eleanor Knight left last Tuesday to attend the state convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy at Greenwood.

Rev. S. G. Sloan has moved up the date of his subscription to this paper. He leaves this week for Woodruff, S. C., where he will make his future home.

The rains are interfering very much with the farmers getting in their small grain. It is hoped they may have fair weather plenty to enable them to sow a large quantity of wheat and oats.

Capt. J. T. Taylor was called to Atlanta last week to the bedside of his son, A. B. Taylor who is in a hospital there with pneumonia. He recovered sufficiently to be brought home last Tuesday.

Willie M. Stansell and family left last week for Miami, Texas. He will locate near Mr. J. R. Bowen, who went from this county a few weeks ago. We sincerely regret to lose our good citizens.

Misses Lucile Cox, Nannie Burns and Hannah Morrell accompanied Miss Meda Boggs home last Saturday and spent Sunday in the city. All of these young ladies are students of F. C. Greenville.

Mr. N. R. Kennemore, from near Six Mile, one of the leading and prosperous citizens of the county, was in town last Saturday with his friend, Mr. Landrum Smith. They were on their way to see the old home of Mr. Smith and other places and people he knew in his boyhood.

Mr. B. D. Stewart is on a visit to his father, Maj. J. M. Stewart. Mr. Stewart has a position in Washington in the department of printing and engraving, where the paper money is made, and this is his first visit to Pickens for several years. His friends were glad to see him.

Mr. John D. Edens, who was captured some time ago by the officers, was tried before Magistrate Jameson of Easley and acquitted of the charge of handling and transporting illicit liquor. The trial was had more than a week ago, and the next day he was before U. S. Commissioner J. P. Carey for the same offense and was discharged.

Mr. Landrum Smith, from near Los Angeles, Calif., is on a visit to relatives and friends in this county after an absence of forty-one years. He left here when quite young and cast his lot in the land of gold and soon succeeded in establishing a lucrative business in growing lemons. He was born in this county near Cross Roads church, and the last time he saw Pickens was when they were laying off the town and preparing to build the first courthouse. He is a nephew of the late William Smith, who lived near Carmel, and is notified

Mrs. Wm. Hayden, of Rutherfordton, N. C., is on a visit to the family of ex-Sheriff J. H. McDaniel.

The ginner's report just out shows 11,269,986 bales of cotton ginned up to Nov. 13th as against 8,780,433 same date last year.

Mr. Paul Boggs is again among his Pickens friends. He has accepted a position with the Pickens Drug Co., where he will be pleased to serve some of their many customers.

Dr. Z. T. Cody, editor of the Baptist Courier at Greenville, will preach at Six Mile the first Sunday in December, at 11 a. m. It is hoped this will be a good day and that he may be greeted by a large congregation.

The many friends of Mr. R. A. Bowen will sincerely regret to hear of his illness. He has been confined to his bed for more than a week. It is hoped that he will soon recover and be among his friends again.

They are coming back—we mean our good citizens who got Georgia-struck last year. They have found out there is no better place than Pickens county. Mr. R. S. Porter, who went to Lincolnton, Ga., last year, has moved back, and others will follow his good example soon.

A pleasant call to this office was made by Mr. C. M. Mauldin, of the western side of the county. Mr. Mauldin is one of the prosperous citizens of the county, and showed his appreciation of our efforts to make the Sentinel the best paper in the county by advancing his subscription another year.

Mrs. Thomas Bollin was found dead in her bed last Wednesday morning about 6 o'clock. She seemed to be unusually well and cheerful the day before, and did considerable work preparing to move into town. At three o'clock she was awake and well, or at least made no complaint and falling asleep again died without disturbing anyone between 3 and 6 o'clock. Her body was cold when found. She leaves a husband and two children. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at this place today (Thursday.)

Death of Mr. J. P. Smith.

Mr. Jephtha P. Smith, one of the prominent and leading citizens of the county, died at his home at Liberty last Friday, the 17th inst. He was about 59 years old, and is survived by his widow and three children.

Mr. Smith was widely known in business circles, having at one time been connected with Clemson College, and later became president of the Liberty cotton mill. About three years ago his health began to fail him, which was caused by the strain of so many business cares, and he was forced on this account to retire from business life and resign as president of the cotton mill. Since that time his health has been gradually giving away.

He was a brother of Dr. R. F. Smith, Mr. W. C. Smith and Mr. L. J. Smith, of Easley, and of Mrs. Amanda Glenn and Mrs. John C. Watkins, of Anderson.

In his death this county loses one of its best citizens and the Presbyterian church, of which he was a member, one of its strongest pillars.

The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at Liberty last Sunday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. B. P. Reid, his former pastor, and his remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

The large concourse of sorrowing friends who attended the obsequies testified to the high esteem in which he was held.

Sunday School Convention.

The fourth annual session of the Pickens County Interdenominational Sunday School Convention will be held at the Presbyterian church at Liberty, December 6th.

An interesting program has been arranged for the meeting, and no doubt it will be a profitable one.

Space will not permit us to publish the program in full, but Prof. J. M. Hancock, Rev. I. E. Wallace, Miss Grace Vandiver, ex-Gov. Ansel and others will make addresses, and this means a rich treat is in store for those who attend.

Each Sunday school in the county is entitled to send two delegates, and homes will be notified if Mr. A. ... is notified

Keowee Supply Co.

"We make no secret of the fact that we want and are determined to have more business," says Sam Craig. "We don't conceal our ambition behind well-rounded phrases, but come right out and say we want you to come to our store and see whether we sell such goods as you want, at such prices as will save you money."

No firm is meeting with or deserving of greater success than the Keowee Supply Co. This firm believes in the systematic and judicious use of printer's ink—hence their large business has been built up, in no small sense, because of publicity. Aggressive, pushing, reliable, trustworthy, accommodating, Sam Craig has contrived to make this store a place where one can trade with pleasure and profit.

Judge Newbery Kept Busy.

Judge Newbery is about one of the busiest officers in the court-house. Until the first of last July he was not so closely confined to his office, and his duties were not so exacting, but since the marriage license law became operative the Judge has not had many idle days. And as the year nears its end and the Christmas holidays approach his services are more and more in demand.

During the first three days of this week he has sent three happy couples out on the road of conjugal bliss and made them rejoice with Eden gladness.

On last Sunday, 19th inst., he joined in happy wedlock Miss Lula A. M. Powers and Mr. J. F. Mauldin.

Last Tuesday he bound together in indissoluble bonds the lives and hearts of Miss Tilda Findley and Mr. K. Kelley.

On the same day Cupid accomplished another task and had the Judge to tie the chords of love so they could not be broken, and bound together Miss Minnie L. Dillard and H. P. Williams.

All of these young people live in this county, and to whom the Sentinel extends hearty good wishes.

Death of J. Silas Williams.

Mr. J. Silas Williams died at his home near Peters Creek church last Thursday, 16th inst., aged about 67 years. Mr. Williams had been in declining health for more than a year, and his death has been expected for some time.

He was a brave Confederate soldier, having served four years in the conflict between the states, and a substantial citizen. He leaves a widow and three children and a large circle of friends. His children are W. H. Williams, Mrs. B. A. Foster and Mrs. Thomas Sammons.

His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Peters Creek church, of which he had been a leading member for many years, on the day following his death the funeral services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Raines, assisted by Rev. J. E. Foster.

The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in their sore affliction.
