LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The city authorities have had some excellent work done dragging the streets.

We hear that seven members of the family of S. M. Jones of route 6 have measles.

Mrs. Ora Mauldin and Miss Francis Mauldin were shoppers in Greenville Saturday.

J. L. Thomas, a substantial citizen of Murphy, was at the county seat on business Monday.

John Wilson of Camp Jackson, Columbia, spent the week-end with his parents near Liberty.

Most good citizens of Pickens county read The Sentinel. All of them ought to read it. Subscribe today.

R. E. Yongue, who is attending Federal court at Greenwood as a petit juror, spent Sunday with his family here.

Mrs. J. P. Carey, Jr., is on a visit to friends in Miami, Fla. Mr. Carey accompanied her as far as Jacksonville.

Ex-Magistrate Henry Williams of Peters Creek, has bought a large farm in Greenwood county and moved there.

Miss Mae Jones, a teacher in the Roanoke school, spent the week-end with the family of W. C. Keith near town.

Mauldin Lesesne, a student at Wofford college, visited the family of his aunt, Mrs. W. T. McFall, in Pickens last week.

Frank Kirksey, who recently accepted a position as street car conductor in Greenville, spent Sunday with home-folks in Pickens.

Sanders Partridge, of Norcross, Ga., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. G. R. Hendricks, and brother, Troupe Partridge, in Pickens.

Everybody interested in a Sunday school at Oolenoy are requested to meet at the church next Sunday, when one will be organized.

John Chastain of Camp Sevier is spending several days with his father, A. B. Chastain, of the Holly Springs section, who is seriously ill.

Louie Thornley, a member of Uncle Sam's navy and at present stationed at Norfolk, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Thornley, in Pickens.

A little stranger boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Anderson of Pumpkintown about two weeks ago. They have decided to keep him and call him Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cantrell and wife were visitors in town one day last week. Mr. Cantrell helped to build the building now occupied by The Sentinel and is a good friend of the paper.

Folger & Thornley's advertisement this week is especially interesting to farmers. All who are familiar with the situation seem to think as Folger, Thornley & Co. about the fertilizer situation.

Many friends in Pickens of Rev. L. E. Wiggins, who is now stationed at Columbia, were glad to see him here last week when he ran up from Easley and spent a few hours. He came to Easley to officiate at the Anderson-Holroyd wedding, the bridegroom being a nephew of Mr. Wiggins.

The pupils of the Pickens high school are arranging to publish a school paper. It will be called The Eagle and will be issued monthly. Many of the more progressive schools have papers written by pupils and it is great training for them as well as benefit for the school and town. It is expected to place the paper in every home in Pickens and business men will be asked to advertise.

J. K. Lewis, a native of Pickens county, died at his home in Leasburg, Mo., January 12, 1918. Mr. Lewis was born in this county January 6, 1845, and lived here until he entered the Confederate army and served through the war. In 1871 he went to Missouri and married. He is survived by his widow and six children. A. B. Lewis of Pickens county, is a brother, and Mrs. N. D. Parsons and Mrs. J. M. Porter, also of this county, are his sisters.

In the paragraph intimating that Job might have lost his patience if he had ever tried to get Easley over the telephone line from Pickens which appeared in The Sentinel last week we did not mean to imply that the Pickens "central" operators were to blame for the line being busy all the time. We always have a good word for the good work of our splendid operators, who are not only efficient, but sweet-tempered and accommodating and give the best service possible under the circumstances. They are the best in the state. The unsatisfactory service between Easley and Pickens evidently is caused by lack of the telephone company to furnish necessary equipment.

W. H. Rigdon

William Harrison Rigdon died suddenly at his home in the Ambler section of Pickens county last Wednesday night, February 6. The cause of his death is not definitely known, as he lived only about an hour after being stricken and died before a doctor could be secured.

Mr. Rigdon was a Confederate soldier and served through the entire period of war. He was a good citizen, a good neighbor and member of the Baptist church. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Mary Simmons before marriage, and the following children: Mrs. Bob Hunt, Messrs. Norman Fields Rigdon, Jesse Rigdon, W. H. Rigdon and Bob Rigdon.

Funeral services were conducted at Oolenoy church Thursday by Rev. J. E. Foster.

MAN MAKES DISCOVERY WHILE DIGGING DITCH

Owner of Land Made Rich, Digging Ditch Cured of Tenacious Disease

STORY A ROMANCE
People With Stomach, Kidney, Blood, Rheumatic or Skin Affections Relieved

Acid Iron Mineral (non-alcoholic, natural iron) is taken from a great deposit found upon a poor farmer's place near Hickory, Mississippi, and the story of this great gift of nature's, which made the farmer rich and the medical world richer, and makes it possible for people to quickly treat stomach, digestion, kidney, blood and rheumatic complaints at home, makes interesting reading.

An old man while digging a mill race on the Horn Farm, ran across it. He was afflicted with an old fever sore and blood troubles which were considered incurable. During the several weeks digging his feet and legs were wet each day as water gathered and he noticed that this water turned and he noticed it caused by mixing of water with the vein of peculiar looking mineral, almost like powder, which had apparently laid for centuries encased in a marble-like casing of rock and clay.

The sore on his leg began to heal and by the time his work was completed his leg was sound and well. This was considered so very remarkable by the people of that section that an investigation was made and it was found to be like radium, gold, platinum and other wondrous secrets of nature—a natural compound containing inimitable properties in proportions no chemist has attempted to duplicate though a large sum was offered he who could accomplish this. Today, like radium, which is used in curing cancers, x-ray work, and illuminating watch dials, so Acid Iron Mineral, its many uses being a remarkable remedy used externally or internally and anyone troubled with blood diseases, eruptions, rheumatism, kidney, bladder, or stomach disorders of any sort may wisely visit the nearest store and procure a bottle. A twelve ounce bottle sent prepaid on receipt of $1.00 by the Ferrudine Chemical Corp., Roanoke, Va., or send stamped envelope with letter telling what your trouble is for folder telling more about this great iron preparation, Acid Iron Mineral.

The Right Time to Build

Never before would your pound of cotton, bushel of wheat or corn buy as much lumber as now. It takes only about half as much farm produce to buy the same amount of lumber now as it did in 1914. The right time to buy is when you can get Standard Value at an unusually reasonable price. That time is now if in need of lumber. Let us supply your needs.
