BOYS' CLUB WORK IN PICKENS COUNTY TAKES ON NEW LIFE.

Boys' Club work in Pickens county seems to be taking on new life and spirit. In visiting several of the schools in the county together with R. T. Hallum, county superintendent of education, and B. O. Williams, assistant State Boys Club agent for South Carolina, we met with unusual success. The boys gave their most careful attention and practically all the boys in the schools within the ages eligible to membership joined. Of course these boys have not gotten the consent of their parents as yet, but it is to be hoped that no parent will object to his son enlisting in the work, which means so much to his life on the farm and to the development of a first class, intelligent farmer when the boy reaches maturity.

It was not possible to visit all, or even a majority, of the schools in the county, but we endeavored to select representative schools in different sections. I shall be very glad to enroll any boy in the county as a club member if he will send his name into me at Pickens.

In the schools which we visited the boys were organized into a club with officers elected by the members from their own ranks. These boys will meet at their school houses once a month when a program will be carried out, but will the county agent attend.

Something during the summer months, and after crops are raised, the club boys from all over the county will go on an encampment for two or three days to White Water Falls, or some other convenient and attractive place. They will carry their "rations" with them and will have a good time, the like of which has never been known by country boys of Pickens county. Some of their parents will go along and enjoy the occasion "as boys with the boys."

Mrs. Martha Ann Johnson, colored, wife of Elbert Johnson, of Pickens, died Tuesday and was buried in the colored cemetery at Secona church Wednesday afternoon.

This chapter is composed of ladies of Pickens, Easley and Liberty, being a county chapter. The subject for the afternoon was Rebecca Mott and Gen. Francis Marion, and Mrs. T. J. Mauldin, regent, gave an interesting talk on these characters. A paper on Gen. Marion was read by Mrs. Wayne Mauldin and Mrs. Alexander read a poem entitled Marion's Mill. Black and Mrs. Ernest Porter entertained Circle No. 3 and Mrs. Stella Griffin Circle No. 4. All had a large number present and carried out interesting programs.

Mr. T. M. Elliott, of near Pickens, tells us that it has been reported that he is the author of the poem entitled "An Ode to the Girl," recently printed in this paper, and he fears the report is damaging his reputation as a public singer and song writer. We take pleasure in correcting the report, and cannot understand why any one could lay the authorship of the poem to Mr. Elliott, who devotes his poetic talent entirely to writing verses for religious songs. We are sure that he never saw "An Ode to the Girl" before it was printed, and so far as we know he hasn't seen it yet.

PICKENS SCHOOL NOTES.

The students of the High School are very enthusiastic over the prospects of winning the county cap in the county contest to be held at Clemson College this coming Saturday. DEATH OF MR. PERRY DURHAM.

The friends of Mr. Durham were shocked to learn of his death Sunday night, the 12th. He died at his home near Tarpein Crossing. Mr. Durham had an operation on his head two weeks before he died and seemed to be improving the first week and was brought home from Greenville. He leaves a wife (who was Miss Ada Goudlock) and two children, a little ten-year-old girl and a little boy. His father is Mr. James Durham, of near Six Mile. He only had one brother and one sister, Mr. J. W. M. Durham, of near Six Mile, and Mrs. Lula Cochran, at Mountain View. Mrs. Durham was buried at Fair View church on Monday at 2:00 o'clock.

We know he has gone to a world where there is no night there. About two hours before his death he called his loved ones to his bed side and told each one what he wanted them to do. He told his little blind daughter to go on to school until she finished. He then said, "I am going to live with Jesus."

Oh, how we shall miss you as on through life we roam, but we shall be more anxious for that home, knowing that you are there.

The Hurricane Township Singing Convention will meet with the Norris Baptist church the 2nd Sunday in April at 2 o'clock. All other conventions are especially invited.

ALONG LIBERTY ROUTE THREE

Dear Sentinel and Readers: Noticing from last week's issue, I see we have Editor Gary Hiett with us again. From an editorial viewpoint (don't mean to give the editor conspicuous publicity) I don't see how we, the readers and The Sentinel itself, can do without his co-operation when it comes to publishing a paper. In my estimation there is always a missing link whenever his name fails to appear as head of the best reading paper in the county.

Now for a few items.

The bright little fellow, age five years, was only sick about a week, and when he was only three weeks old his mother died, leaving him under the care and guardianship of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bell.
