OL. 51, NUMBER 4

PICKENS, S. C., MAY 19, 1921.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 PER YEAR

ICKENS LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Harvey LaBoon, of Greenwood, spent the week-end at home.

J. D. Chappell, of Timmons, paid the Sentinel office a pleasant call will be used. Saturday.

lightful visit to friends in Anderson night and stole seven tacks of flour last week.

Mrs. B. Lewis visited her brother, will lead to arrest. Mr. Will Mauldin, in Greenwood, last

Miss Mary Morris had as her weekend guest, Misses Inex Morris and Carol Smith, of Liberty.

Miss Emma Herd, who has been in Greenville for several months, is at home for the summer.

Fannie Finney.

Mrs. Sallie Sutherland returned to picuic and fishing party. her home at Salem Sunday after visiting relatives and friends here.

business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hendricks were Greenville visitors Saturday. While there, enjoyed a ride in an airplane.

mother.

Monday for Clayton, Ga., where he a store here several years before he sired effect.

his family told us that two additional cemetery at Greenville Tuesday. members arrived about three weeks ago, twins, Alma and Alton.

Married Sunday evening, May 15th, at probate judge's residence, Freeman entertained a number of Lucius Blandon and Viola Byrd (colored), both of this county. Ceremony performed by N. A. Christopher.

The Pickens Township singing convention will meet at the Tabernacle in Pickens Sunday at 2:00 o'clock, and at Bethlehem the fourth Sunday in June. Come and bring song books.

We are requested to announce that Rev. O. L. Clayton will preach at Salem Methodist church every fourth Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

C. Lloyd McCrary, optometrist, will be in Easley at the Palmetto field, has been appointed by J. Clif-Pharmacy on May 24th, and at T. L. Benson & Co., Pickens, May 27th. Careful tests of the eyes and satisfaction guaranteed.

Ed Young appeared before Magistrate Porter one day last week charged with stealing a hive of bees. He was found guilty and sentenced to serve 30 days on the gang or pay a fine of $75. Stung!

The Rev. E. T. Hodges, of Columbia, was a guest in Pickens several days last week. Mr. Hodges was pas tor of the M. E. church last year and has a host of friends in Pickens who were delighted to have him visit Children's Day and Home Coming Day, will be observed at Antioch M. inson, U. S. A., which event occurred . church next Sunday. Special in that city Monday night. Capt. music will be a feature. Dinner Robinson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. speaker. All former members of the has many friends in this city who Bring your hams and eggs. Will pay holds the position of assistant general Expect our fellow man to be. church are especially invited. The will learn of his marriage with inpublic also has a cordial invitation. terest.

Revenue officers and rural police have destroyed five stills in Pickens county during the past week. Four on Crow Creek and one on Eastatoe.

There will be old folks singing at Sammson Mill church in Greenville Harmony and Temple Star song books

Burglars broke into J. T. Flynn's Miss Malinda Porter enjoyed a da. warehouse in Easley last Sunday beside considerable other stuff. Officers have evidence that they believe

> One hundred and thirty applicants twod the county teachers examination at the court house May 7. This is nearly three times as many as have stood at one timme before. There were twenty-eight white men and ninety-five white women. Three ture the assertion they will not be colored men and four colored women.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Bolt, Mr. and Mrs. E. f., Bolt and family, Mr. and Miss Rose Holcombe, from near Mrs. Wade Bolt and family, Mrs. J. Easley, spent Thursday with Miss Milton King, Dr. J. L. Valley and family and T. L. Bivens and family spent Tuesday at Table Rock on a

In a closely contested game of baseball at Liberty last Saturday the Mr. Argus Looper, mail carrier on Pickens team made its initial appear-Easley R. F. D. 6, was in Pickens on ance in the Pickens County League and defeated Liberty by a score of 5 to 4. Pickens plays Glenwood on the Pickens ground next Saturday.

> Mr. Prue Hendricks, of Furman University, and Miss Cleo Hendricks, Joe Ellenburg, of Furman.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brezele left known in Pickens, having conducted ual efforts, would accomplish the decemetery. Taylor-Colquitt Tie and Pole com- by four sons and his widow, who was more forcibly the strenuous "hard count of the death of Mrs. Mitchell's nie and Selma Medling. a Miss Ward, of Pickens county. He times" of the past months. Why mo ber, is also survived by eight brothers should not provisions have been Our good friend Roark Powell, of and six sisters and his mother. His made for the completion of this road route three, upon being asked about body was laid to rest in Springwood the same as for the Central-Calhoun

> The Old Hickory Inn was the scene of a delightful social event Friday evening when Miss Nellie her friends. Dancing and card playing were indulged in until eleven o'clock. Delicious punch was served throughout the evening. Those who enjoyed Miss Freeman's hospitality on this occasion were the Misses Sarah Farmer, Thelma Lewis, Bertha Cantrell, Mary Morris, Lucia Ellison, Pati Porter and Edna Porter, Messrs. Armstrong, G. G. Christopher, Van Clayton, Casey Porter, Bowen Parsons, Mack Christopher and Dr.

STATE COTTON GRADER LOCAT-ED IN EASLEY.

Robt. S. Long, formerly of Edgeton Rivers, state warehouse commissioner, as district cotton grader for the counties of Anderson, Greenville, Oconee and Pickens. The headquarters for this district will be in Easley. As recently announced, the state has been divided into twelve districts, each district to have an expert grader, who will have charge of the warehouses in his district. Mr. Long is a practical and experienced cotton man. For the present he has established his headquarters in The Progress building. He is a son-in-law of Rev. D. W. Hiott.

CAPT. PAUL ROBINSON MAR-RIED.

A telegram was received today (Wednesday) from Chicago announcing the marriage of Capt. Paul Robwill be served on the ground. In the W. Robinson, of Easley, and is now afternoon there will be a special stationed at Camp Grant, Ill. He

CATEECHEE LETTER.

A marriage that was quite a surprise to the many friends of the con- is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. tracting parties was solemnized at T. B. Smith. the residence of the officiating offie- Mr. and Mrs. W. . Parsons, of Maner, J. Alonzo Brown, N. P., on last chester, Ga., are visiting their parthe fifth Sunday in May. Christian Sunday, the 15th inst., about 2:00 p. ents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Parsons. is a son of the late Sam Maw and is Vanchan, in Greenwood. a prominent young farmer of Central, umbers her triends by the score, logge.

This happy young couple has said the happiness of the matrimonial week-end at home. bliss is rather to be chosen than the Prof. E. B. Hallman was the dinsorrews of the calibacy and we ven- ner guest of Waiter Long Sun lay.

God said when he made Adam that it was not good for man to live alone and we believe every word he said That is why the old matrimonial miller hangs so close around the "hopper" of the little mill seven days of any assistance he can to those who believe in the divine injunction.

or night and you will always find the old maller on duty.

ROAD AGAIN.

THE PICKENS-PUMPKINTOWN

of G. W. C., spent the week-end with are in the mud again. This is not supervisor and every one clse who friends. Miss Mary Alexander, of Washing- "Doc" F. Pace died at his home on that they have any desire, wish or > road? We do not like to complain. The people have never been an agsirable than through the fills, where of their marriage with interest: you "stick" until you are pulled out.

doctor to venture out after a shower; Daily News of Wednesday: the mail man has quit using his car; ing to be done about it?

MRS. H. C. SHIRLEY DEAD.

Died at her home near Libberty on the 15th inst., Mrs. Mary Brook Shir- Dr. C. H. Nash officiating. ley, the beloved wife of Mr. H. C. Shirley. Mrs. Shirley had passed her fifty--ninth year. Thirty-seven years very beautiful and impressive in its past few weeks. ago she was married to Mr. H. C. Shirley at her home in Central, S. C. By this union two sons were born C., Jr. Mr. John Brock and Mr. honeymoon. Joseph Brock, of Central are her living brothers. Mrs. Shirley was a and Mrs. J. A. Robinson, of Easley, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dickard and most excellent woman and will be S. C., and is a most charming and ac- samily, of Easley, visited relatives missed in the community. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. W. Hiott at the home, and inter- She is an alumna of Converse Col- and Miss Pauline Reeves visited at ment took place in the Liberty cemetery.

Loving friends and skillful physicians did all they could but to no avail. It was a sad sight to see the wife and mother carried out of the home, leaving husband and sons to their lonely lot. May God in His popular among a broad circle of col- as their guests Saturday night Mr. goodness comfort and strengthen them in their bereavement.

H. WANTED-Chickens. Highest E. Luske, Pickens.

LIBERTY LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. B. C. Givens, of Fountain Inn,

m., when Mr. Robb Henry Maw 12d Miss Addie Davis, who has been to the hymeneal altar Miss Maggie teaching at Williamston, S. C., this Poweil and after a very impressive year will return home this week. and lengthy ceremony, were pro- Since the close of her school she has

Mr. and Mrs. Febr Boggs, Misses, while the bride is the beautiful and Counte Thackston and Lillie Boggs. inclining young daughter of Mr. and of Pencleton, recently visited the Int. at 2300 o'clock. Mrs. Een Powell, of Liberty, and ter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G.

Miss Saffie Mae Chambin and by their massing that they believe thurn Wilson, of G. W. C., spent the

Mrs. Jesse Martin, of the MeElmoyle section, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Black, last week.

Mrs. Dora Robinson visited her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Elrod, in Easley Sunday.

R. F. Horton and little daughter, Elizabeth, of Belton, spent Sunday and nights to the week in order to be with the family of Dr. W. M. Long.

C. E. Hamilton died late Monday afternoon after an illness of several So bring on your "turn" either day months. He is well known over Pickens county and has many friends who will be grieved to hear of his at this writing. death. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Annie Boggs. Funeral services will be held from the home at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, in- family were the guests of Mr. and terment following in West View Mrs. A. L. Dillard Sunday. cemetery. Mr. Hamilton was a mem- Mr. Leo Holliday gave the young Oolenoy, May 16 .- (Special) -- We ber of the First Baptist church.

J. D. Stansell, of Pickens, route 2, their parents in Easley. They had a new story. We have told it before, day morning after an illness of seving. and R. E. Whitlock, of Liberty, route as their guests Misses Christine Coop- We have told it to our lawmakers. eral weeks, though her death came Miss Alleen and Grace Porter were We have told it to our road builders, as a shock to her loved on has given us the lightest impression before her marriage, and besides her 1 10 O day, was in I wish and the ton, and Claudia Alexander, of B. M. Malberry street in Greenville last inclination to see us in better shape Ki, she is survived by two brothers, Mrs. J. J. Lee, Friday afternoon.

I., were at home last week on ac- Monday morning, age 48. He suf- in the road question. We have had J. A. and J. C. Brock, of Central. count of the death of their grand- fered a stroke of paralysis several the good wishes of all. But what we Funeral services were held at the of Mrs. Edna Peek Sunday. years ago and had been helpless for would appreciate more is material home Monday morning at 11 o'clock Mr. Roy McCall has returned home some months. Mr. Pace was well help which, united with our individ- and interment was in West View for a few day's visit.

ROBINSON-HUNTER WEDDING.

The many friends of Miss Jennie gressvie people. They have accept- Robinson and Mr. W. J. Hunter were ed what has been meagerly handed surprised last Tuesday afternoon to them in the way of road improve- when a message was received from ments. This has amounted to a lit- Greensboro, N. C., announcing their J. A. Davis, who is attending the tle more than the worst mud holes marriage, which occurred in that city convention at Chattanooga, Tenn. being filled with pine brush or rocks, at noon Tuesday, Miss Robinson But the situation is worse than it was on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Fred has ever been. The road in places Singletary, in Greensboro when the was left unevenly graded with the wedding took place. This popular this place the fourth Sunday at 4:00 slanting side toward deep ravines, young couple have many friends p. m. Travel over these places is less de- throughout the state who will learn

The following account of the wed-

"A wedding of wide interest and the rural policemen have abandoned the announcement of which will the section entirely. What is go- doubtless come as a surprise to the son one day last week. many friends of the contracting par-Miss Jennie Lucile Robinson became Mrs. F. R. Crane and Misses Annie the bride of William Joseph Hunter, Mae Crane and Early Rogers, witnessed the ceremony which was C., where he has been working for the simplicity.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter left for Ashe-

"Mrs. Hunter is a daughter of Mr. Mile. complished young woman, having a here Sunday. lege, where she graduated with dis- the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. tniction as a pianist.

"The groom is a son of Mr. and He is a young man of splendid worth the week-end visiting relatives in urged to heed it. and fine business ability, being a Easley. graduate of Clemson College, and is Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Waldrop had as captain in the 81st division of the and Mr. and Mrs. Wash Waldrop. American expeditionary forces, during the world war.

market price paid for fryers-cash. Lynchburg, Va., where Mr. Hunter If we were half as good as we $2.00 bushel in trade for peas. E. manager of the Consolidated Textile 3t-pd Corporation."

REVIVAL MEETING.

Rev. D. P. Montgomery well known evangelist of South Carolina who has held meetings throughout the United States, will begin a series Frances Chapman Paled in Peculiar of meetings at the Tabernacle in Pickens next Sunday morning. The first service will be at 11:15 o'clock, at which time Mr. Montgomery will old daughter of Mr. and Mr. S. C. preach. He will preach again at 4 Chapman, of the Lenhardt section, o'clock and the night service will be nounced man and wife. The groom been visiting her friend, Mrs. Roy gir at 8:15. The place of the meet- death about seven o'clock Wedness use of the township singing conven- day evening, being dragged by a calf tion has been changed from Bethles at the end of a rope for more than ; hear and will preet at the Tabernacle 120 hundred yard . finally hittingsa > to invitation of the ministers of the ran to her reache and picked her up, Santist demonituation of this com- bat(Ith was about roge. She line prophe of the county. The trustees of the relieved of the received when manife, the meeting is for all theof the Tabe nacle have kindly con- fee bady was sective amigled and ented for the accordings to be heigh her neck was broken. here to accommodate the crowds who will want to hear this famedis father and brother with the chores

Well known singers will take part in the singing and this will be a feature of the services. Anno meement! will be made Sunday about the hour! of services to be held throughout the

SIX MILE.

Health in this community is good

Mrs. Nora Parson spent last week with friends and relatives at Central, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Atkerson and people a singing Saturday night and Mrs. H. C. Shirley died early Sun- all present seemed to enjoy the sing-> the guests of Miss Aileen McCall Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Burlie Lewis were guests of her parents, Mr. and

Miss Lizzie Henson was the guest

Misses Nora and Leila Satterfield Rev. and Mrs. B. P. Mitchell were had for their Monday guests Misses holds a lucrative position with the moved to Greenville. He is survived No section of the county realizes called to Abbeville Monday on ac- Ethel, Lizzie and Flora Henson, Van

> Mr. Jessie Glaspie, of Six Mile, has recently been visiting Rices Creek. Look out girls for that little red car. ay Bee.

RICES CREEK NEWS.

In the absence of our pastor, Rev. the services were conducted here

Sunday by Rev. Burts, of Six Mile. Rev. Bob Nelson will preach at J. B. Powell visited his sister, Mrs.

Ernest Waldrop, one night last week. Messrs, John and Connie Hughes It is almost impossible to get a ding is taken from the Greensboro and Ernest Waldrop went fishing in Saluda river one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Roper visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gib-

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gantt had as ties, occurred at high noon yester, their week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. day at the First Baptist church, when Clyde Bolding, Mrs. W. M. Gantt,

Mr. Roy McCall arrived here Sun-"Only a few very intimate friends day afternoon from Chesterfield, S

Several from here attended the "Immediately after the wedding singing at Enon Sunday afternoon,

Miss Belle Roper had as her guests and are now young men, John and H. ville, where they will spend their Sunday Miss Aileen McCall and cousin, Mr. Jessie Gillespie, of Six host of friends throughout the states. Mrs. Cora Lee Gillstrap and children

Rogers Saturday night and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Roper and two Mrs. John Hunter, of Liberty, S. C. children, Josie and Clarence, spent lege mates and friends. He served and Mrs. Charlie Gantt and family

We would be welcome by the Lord "They will make their home at And we would reap a great reward

Sal and Suc.

CHALD MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH

Manner.

Little Brances Chapman, eight year met a horrible and almost instant tive, the force of the blow breaking While Mr. Montgomery comes at the rope. Her falle, and brothers

> The little girl was beining her about the house and was watering the calf. She had wrapped the rope about her wrist and when the calf became frightened and began to run she was unable to free herself. Funeral services will be held this afternoon (Thursday) at four o'clock at Mr. Tabor church.

The many friends of this family sympathize with them in the tragic leath of their child.

ALONG PICKENS ROUTE FOUR.

Most of the farmers are having to plant their crops over on account of old weather.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams visited Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hendricks.

Miss Mary Lee Trotter visited Miss Ethel Hayes Sunday.

Miss Norah Trotter spent Sunday with Miss Ena Anthony. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alexander my Water sen wisited Mr. and Mrs. John Childs one night last week. The little son of Mr. Jim Hendrie's who fell from a free several weeks ago and broke his arm and threw his hip out of place is improv-

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Dodgen and little daughter, Bernice, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G.

Hendrix, one night last week. Miss Luck Dodgens spent Saturday night with her sister, Mrs. Walter Hayes.

Mrs. J. E. Coope and three visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hendrix last week-end.

Mr. Summey filled his regular appointment Sunday afternoon. Mama's Darling.

LIBERTY R. F. D. 3.

Mr. Homer Nations, Mr. Floyd and Guy Atkinson, of Idberty, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Melton Reid, of Belton recently.

A fishing party consisting of V. M. Nations, Homer and Loye Nations, J. D., W. B., J. T. and Truman Ellenburg and J. C. Sidell, spent a day and night on Little river fishing last week.

THE PICKENS ASSOCIATION S. S. CONVENTION.

Attention is again called to the Sunday School Convention to be held at Cross Roads Baptist church the 28th and 29th of this month. If the church and Sunday schools of all the churches in the Pickens Association have not yet elected delegates, do so next Sunday. Elect one set from the church and one from the Sunday school. Let twice as many be elected as to the association:

Each superintendent and secretary is expected to be present both days, The program appeared in this paper two weeks ago and quite a number have been sent to the churches. Every one on the program is expected to be present.

This is the last notice that will be given and everybody interested is

AMBLER.

County Agent T. A. Bowen will meet with the boys of the Ambler school clubs on next Saturday afternoon. He will also consider with the citizens of this place the organization of a community fair. Miss Lois Watkins, district agent, of Greenville, will also be present. She will speak to the women and girls. A full attendance is expected.