ATTRACTIVE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Mack Christopher has arranged an attractive window display at the Benson & Co. store in Pickens, giving a practical demonstration of the increasing purchasing power of a dollar. In one window he has placed a suit of clothes which sold last July for $65, and in an adjoining window he has placed exactly the same kind of suit and many other articles, all of which may be bought now for $65. For the $65 one would have paid for one suit of clothes last year one may now buy the same suit and the following articles in addition: Hat, three shirts, three pair socks, two ties, four union suits, one belt, one pair oxfords, six handkerchiefs, one pair cuff buttons, five collars, one pair garters.

DEATH OF WILLIAM H. GILSTRAP.

Mr. William H. Gilstrap passed away at his home in Pickens county soon Sunday morning. Although he had been in feeble health for over a year, the death of this good man was a shock to his many friends here and elsewhere. He had been a member of the Methodist church for thirty three years.

A large crowd gathered at Friendship Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock where funeral services were conducted by a former pastor, Rev. Charlie Anderson.

The many beautiful flowers and the large gathering show in a way the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. W. H. Gilstrap was born Nov. 10, 1852, and died July 3, 1921. April 5, 1876, he married Mary Bethie Gravely. He was the father of seven children, of which the following survive:

Mrs. Minnie Cogdal, of Addie, N. C.; Mrs. Mary Powell, of Pickens; Mr. Luther Gilstrap, of Pickens; Mrs. Lillie Gilstrap, of Pickens; Mr. Benson Gilstrap, of Pickens; Mrs. Nettie Harper, of Pickens; Mr. Hermon Gilstrap, of Pickens.

Mr. Gilstrap was reared to manhood's estate on a farm in Pickens county.

No one can say that "Grandpa" ever said an unkind word of any one. He was an affectionate husband and devoted father. It is hard to give him up, and oh, how he will be missed.

A Friend.

Misses Grace and Lucile Farr.

Mrs. J. P. Farr and daughter, Miss Lucile, and Miss Eva Holcombe motored to Greenville Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Middleton spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. McAdams.

Miss Grace Farr spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. L. B. Williams and Miss Lydia Gossett.

BOB JONES TO SPEAK IN EASLEY

An overflow crowd is expected to hear the famous evangelist, Rev. Bob Jones, who is to speak at the Presbyterian church of Easley at 10:30 a. m. Sunday, July 17th. Mr. J. L. Blair is chairman of arrangements for the meeting and all denominations are expected to attend.

Easley is considered fortunate in being included in the thirteen places which are to be visited by this famous evangelist in his tour of the state, which is being made under the auspices of the South Carolina Sunday School Association in the interest of Sunday School Evangelism.

"Bob" Jones, it is said, stands among the foremost evangelists of the world and is president of the International Evangelist Association of America. Mr. Jones, although a comparatively young man, is well known throughout America having held huge tabernacle meetings in over half the states of the Union. He was chosen from all America to give the daily evangelistic message at the great Methodist Centenary Exposition at Columbus, Ohio.

It is expected that a number of persons from counties adjoining Pickens will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this noted evangelist as well as many Pickens county people.

While in the state Mr. Jones is working under the auspices of the Evangelism Committee of the South Carolina Sunday School Association whose chairman is Dr. W. L. Ball, pastor of the First Baptist church of Spartanburg and secretary, Dr. Robert S. Truesdale pastor of the Main Street Methodist church of Columbia.

RAIN AND HAIL STORM.

This section was visited by local showers last Monday afternoon after a dry spell lasting several weeks. The rain was accompanied by severe wind and electric and hail storm. Right in Easley the hail was very light, but in the Pickensville section was even more severe. In the path of the hail storm crops were damaged from 10 to 95 per cent. Some of the farms damaged were those of F. V. O'Dell, J. M. Garrett, T. N. Smith, Harmon Williams, Raymond Williams, Walker Ellison and W. D. Spearman.

Crops in a section about two miles square extending from the Southern Railway near Beverly south to the farms of Walker Ellison and Will LaBoon were almost a total wreck.

Tuesday afternoon a general rain fell throughout the county.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

Gov. Cooper and Senator Dial Expected in Pickens Saturday.

There will be a meeting of the trustees at Pickens court house Saturday morning, July 16th, 10:00 a. m. All trustees are urged to be present. The subject of adult schools will be discussed and a plan worked out for the summer work.

Another subject that will be discussed is the compulsory education under the new law. The enforcement rests this year on the shoulders of the trustees and it is very important that every trustee should be present.

Governor Cooper, Senator Dial and Dr. Reed Smith are expected to be present and address this meeting. The public is invited to attend.
