

PICKENS BAPTIST ASSOCIATION MET

The annual meeting of the Pickens Baptist association held with Secona church October 26-27 is said to have been the best held by that body in many years. The reports and discussions were all good and uplifting and the affairs of the association are in better shape than before the meeting.

Rev. F. T. Cox preached the introductory sermon, after which routine business was taken up, such as reports and discussion of missions, orphanage, education, both common school and denominational, the 75 million campaign in its different phases, etc.

The second day was taken up with work more closely confined to the association, such as reports of committees, revision of the constitution so as to include woman's work and allow women the same privileges as men in the association, digest of church letters. At this session the question of law enforcement came up and was vigorously and most interestingly discussed and by a rising vote the congregation almost unanimously said they would personally take a greater interest in law enforcement and do what they could to see that it was rigidly enforced.

The next meeting will be held with Oolenoy on the fourth Sunday in September, 1922, and Friday and Saturday before.

Officers of the association are: Moderator, W. E. Findley; clerk, B. F. Freeman; executive committee, C. E. Robinson, A. A. Moon, F. T. Cox, A. P. Hammond, R. T. Hallum; steering committee, R. T. Hallum, W. H. Stewart, J. R. Connelly.

BAPTIST DAY NOVEMBER 13

At the meeting of the Pickens Baptist association at Secona last week it was decided to observe Sunday, November 13, as Baptist Rally Day throughout the association. A steering committee was appointed to provide services in all the churches at 11 o'clock at which time the membership of each church will meet for fellowship of praise and prayer and gratitude to God for his blessings upon the denomination and its achievements.

The day will culminate in an association-wide rally meeting to be held at the Pickens Baptist church at 3:30 p. m., which will be addressed by Rev. S. P. Hair, pastor of the First Baptist church of Fountain Inn, on some phase of stewardship. It is expected that there will be a number of representatives from each church of the association and from churches throughout the county to attend this meeting. Four or five hundred people are expected.

Rev. Mr. Hair has been very much in demand at associational meetings of this kind throughout the state this fall and has a strong message to bring to the people of Pickens' association. Do not fail to hear him.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, November 13, will be observed as State-wide Baptist Day by the Baptists of South Carolina and there will be an exchange of pulpits all over the state. Rev. S. P. Hair, pastor of the First Baptist of Fountain Inn, will occupy the pulpit of the Pickens Baptist church that day, and he has been invited to address the Baptists of the Pickens association in a big rally meeting to be held in the local Baptist church in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. Hair will remain in Pickens a few days and conduct a series of meetings with the Baptist church here.

Mr. L. J. Corzine, Rural Baptist Sunday School Superintendent of South Carolina, is expected to be in Pickens November 9-11 to conduct a Sunday School Institute at the Baptist church. The meeting will begin Wednesday, night, November 9, and continue through Friday. All Sunday school teachers and workers throughout the Pickens association are urged to attend. These meetings will be helpful to all Christians and an invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

THE STRENGTH OF THE HILLS

(The Sentinel Editor likes this one by Odell Shepard. Maybe you will like it)

Let me sleep among the shadows of the mountains when I die,
In the murmur of the pines and sliding streams,
Where the long day loiters by
Like a cloud across the sky
And the moon-drenched night is musical with dreams.

Lay me down within a canyon of the mountains, far away,
In a valley filled with dim and rosy light,
Where the flashing rivers play
Out across the golden day
And a noise of many waters brims the night.

Let me die where glinting rivers ramble down the slanted glade,
Under bending alders, garrulous and cool,
Where they gather in the shade
To the dazzling, sheer cascade,
Where they plunge and sleep within the pebbled pool.

All the wisdom, all the beauty, I have lived for unaware
Came upon me by the rote of highland rills;
I have seen God walking there
In the solemn, soundless lair
When the morning awakened wonder in the hills.

I am what the mountains made me of their green and gold and gray,
Of the dawnlight and the moonlight and the foam,
Mighty mothers far away,
Ye who washed my soul in spray,
I am coming, mother mountains, coming home.
