DAD AND THE PAPER

My father says the paper he reads ain't put up right. He finds a lot of fault, he does, perusin it all night. He says there ain't a single thing in it worth while to read And that it doesn't print the kind of stuff the people need. He tosses it aside and says it's strictly on the bum-But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He reads about the weddin's and he snorts like all git out; He reads the social doin's with a most derisive shout. He says they make the papers for the women folks alone. He'll read about the parties and he'll fume and fret and groan. He says of information it doesn't contain a crumb-But you cught to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He's always first to grab it and he reads it plum clean through He doesn't miss an item or a want ad- that is true. He says, "They don't know what we want, the durn newspaper guys. I'm going to take a day sometimes an' go and put 'em wise; Sometimes it seems as though they must be deaf, blind and dumb-But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

DEATH OF GOOD WOMAN

Mrs. H. C. Young Died At Her Home Near Liberty

In the afternoon of December 28, 1921, the wife of Mr. H. Cooley Young passed into that great "bourn from which no traveler e'er returns."

Julia Townsend Young was born April 25, 1884, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry Townsend, of the Flat Rock section. She and Mr. H. C. Young of Liberty were married December 23, 1903. He, with eight children-four boys and four four girls, the youngest an infant son of thirteen days-survive her; and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. A. A. Adams of Easley, Mrs. Frank Sheriff of Cateechee and J. H. and T. E. Townsend of Liberty.

She joined the Flat Rock Baptist church in her girlhood.

We cannot understand just why so devoted a wife and mother should be thus called, but to the trusting soul comes the assurance that "He of meeting her again "beyond this vale of tears."

The day following her death the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Anderson of Easley at the Flat Rock church, after which her remains were laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Lois, the eldest child, and her sister Marie are students in the Liberty high shool, Lois having won the Improvement Medal of the school last year. A deep sympathy goes out to these girls from both teachers and students. Likewise, the entire community extends sincere sympathy to this bereaved family.

ANOTHER OLD SOLDIER GONE

Mr. Phillip Chapman Died At His Home Last Sunday

One by one the old Confederate soldiers answer the last, long roll call and more frequent summons come as the years go by making the ranks thinner.

Last Sunday, January 8, Mr. Phillip Chapman died at his home in Eastatoe after a few days' illness of pneumonia. Mr. Chapman was in his eighty-fifth year of life. He was a lifelong citizen of Pickens county, a splendid man and a member of Antioch Baptist church. He enlisted in the Confederate army May 1, 1862, in Co. A, Orr's Regiment, and served until the surrender April 9, 1865. In more than one way he was a remarkable man. He made a good crop last year and worked up until a few days before his death.

His wife, who was a Miss Hinkle before marriage, preceded him to the grave about eleven years. He is survived by the following children doeth all things well"-and the hope Waddy Chapman of Indiana, Elijah Chapman of Central and Misses Mat tie and Anna, who lived with their father. Mr. Chapman was an uncle of Mrs. Walter Langston and the Hinkles of Pickens.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday by Rev. H. F. Wright and the body was laid to rest by the side of the grave of the wife in Antioch cemetery.

FIRE IN PICKENS

Oil Mill Seed House Burned Early Saturday Morning

The cotton seed house of the Pickens Oil and Fertilizer Co., together with about 180 tons of cotton seed, fifty tons of hulls and usual seed house machinery, was destroyed by fire which was discovered about 3:30 o'clock Saturday morning too late to control. The loss is estimated at about $8,000, partly covered by insurance. Origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to have been caused by spontaneous combustion of seed.

But for the recent wet weather the fire would undoubtedly have spread to other buildings. As it was the Pickens Inn was set on fire several times and only heroic work of neighbors saved it and probably other buildings.

PICKENS SCHOOL NEWS

Pickens High School is trying to put itself on the map in athletics. The girls are new beginners, but are showing that they are made of material necessary for a good team, and expect to be able in the near future to meet any opponent. Like everything else they will have to have funds to meet the expense of equipment, and they solicit the same. The names of those on the first team will be announced in the near future

TO PETITION LEGISLATURE

Will Ask That All Bootleggers Be Sent to Jail

The Pickens W. C. T. U. placed in circulation Tuesday petitions for people of Pickens county to sign asking that our county legislative delegation use its efforts to have the state liquor laws changed so that convicted violators would have to serve sentence on chain gang instead of given the privilege of paying a fine.

Following is the wording on the petition:

To the Senator and Representatives of Pickens County:

We, the undersigned citizens and voters of Pickens county hereby respectfully petition that you use your best efforts and endeavors to so amend the liquor laws of this State as to eliminate and abolish a fine as part of the sentence imposed.

We are of the opinion that the laws as administered today are ineffective to prevent the illegal traffic in liquor and do not believe conditions will improve until the laws are so changed as to make every violation a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment only, and this we earnestly and respectfully ask that you do at the approaching session of the Legislature.

WYATT JENNINGS MARRIED

A marriage which is of interest to Sentinel readers was that of Mr. Wyatt Jennings and Miss Nell Powell, the event taking place in Columbia on December 24.

Mr. Jennings is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jennings of Pickens, a man of sterling character and unusual personality. He is a traveling salesman with headquarters in Columbia.

The bride is well known in Pickens. having been milliner here for Heath Bruce-Morrow Co. several years ago and proving a most attractive and accomplished lady. Sho is a native of Maryland and for the past season conducted a millinery establishment in Columbia.

The Sentinel joins with many other Pickens friends in extending con gratulations and best wishes.

MARRIAGE AT SALEM

PICKENS STEAD-ILY GROWING

That the town of Pickens is surely and steadily growing is proven by substantial evidence on every hand. .The fact that every inch of office space in town is taken up is a good

Several new residences are now being built. The handsome new house of Mr. "Zade" Cox on Hampton avenue is nearing completion. Hansell Bivens has commenced the erection of a modern home next to his father's home on Glassy Mountain street, and Miss Elinor Knight is having a pretty bungalow built just opposite Mr. Biv-

The Presbyterians of Pickens expect to build a new church house here at an early day.

The waterworks system will be in operation within a week or two. Every business house in town and most of the residences are having water fixtures installed.

Much work is being done on the streets of Pickens and as soon as the weather permits all the streets will be put in tip top shape.

The addition of Edwards & Darsey to the mercantile field of Pickens will add much value to Pickens as a trading point. They carry about $15,000 worth of goods more than was carried by their predecessors. One who has not visited their store will be surprised at the enermity and variety of the stock carried.

The rest room being installed by Folger, Hendricks & Co. will also add to the attractiveness of Pickens as a trading point for the ladies of the community.

The Pickens Inn is being remodeled and its yards beautified, and many other minor improvements are being made all over town. All of which goes to show that our people are awake and optimistic.

PICKENS BANKS IN FINE SHAPE

Meetings of stockholders and directors of both the Pickens banks were held this week and both banks showed splendid reports.

The meeting of the Pickens Bank was held Monday and the following officers of this institution were elected: J. McD. Bruce, president; Frank McFall, vice president; J. H. Bruce, cashier, J. E. Boggs, assistant cashier; Directors, J. McD. Bruce, W. M. Hagood, B. A. Hagood, I. M. Mauldin, Frank McFall, J. H. Bruce, Sydney Bruce. The Pickens Bank paid a 10 er cent dividend last year.

The Keowee Bank held its meeting Tuesday and all old officers were reelected as follows; J. P. Carey, president; J. C. Carey, cashier; Directors, J. P. Carey, A. J. Boggs, J. C. Carey. This bank paid 8 per cent dividends last year.

Both Pickens banks are unusually well managed and considering size are among the very strongest financial institutions in the state,
