LIBERTY NEWS

Saturday Dec. 9, 1922, the infant spirit of J. Warren Smith, Jr., was wafted on the bosom of our Great Father who both gave and hath taken away. This very promising little son was seven weeks old, and although here so short a time, brought great love and inspiration into the home and hearts of this family. But heaven is now a sweeter place by the addition of this another little tender one; for "of such is the kingdom of heaven" ever beckoning a following in the path where the Good Shepherd with his little lambs leads.

Funeral services were held from the house on Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. E. W. Mason, assisted by both the other pastors, Rev. Sims and Rev. Knox, after which the little body was laid to rest in West View cemetery. Four young boys acted as pall bearers, D. H. Kenner, Jr., Henry Finley, Parker Mauldin and Wallace Cantrell; while the flowers were borne by four little girls, Mamie and Jane Hunter, Elizabeth Richbourg and Pauline Boggs, making a beautiful and impressive scene, J. M. Abbott being funeral director. A deep sympathy from the community goes out to this bereaved family.

Miss Willie Parsons left last week for an extended visit in California and back via Texas for a visit there also.

Young Misses Louise and Nan Bowen of Seneca, were recent visitors with their aunt, Mrs. J. F. Bannister who entertained the younger set in their honor one evening while here. Games and conversation offered a joyous good time, when the hostess served a delightful salad course.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stilwell, of Columbia, were recent guests of his uncle, Mr. C. E. Bush.

Mrs. Jas Robinson of Dacusville, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. Warren Smith.

The Pruitt Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. G. Hunnicutt. The Missionary program was in charge of Mrs. J. W. Hunter. The subject "Fulfilling the Royal Law," was very interestingly given. Mrs. T. N. Hunter gave the Royal Law and The Individual and the Golden Rule was read by Mrs. J. L. Mills. A beautiful poem "Inasmuch" was read by Mrs. D. H. Kenner. After this program a business session was held which was in charge of Miss Carrie Hutchins, the chairman. Mrs. Hunnicutt assisted by Mrs. D. H. Kenner served a sweet course.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Richbourg and children of Gaffney and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Richbourg of Greenville, spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Richbourg.

Misses Mary and Frances Lawrence visited their sister in Ware Shoals last week.

Misses Ellen Freeman, Eleanor Boggs and Pett Chapman, Messrs. W. C. O'Dell, Homer Freeman and Ki Shirley, Jr., spent Thanksgiving day at Wathrop.

Mrs. Stella Griffin and children, spent the week end with relatives in Gastonia and Charlotte.

Misses Nannie and Louise Bowen of Seneca are visiting their aunt Mrs. W. F. Banister.

There will be a Christmas tree and also a special Christmas exercise at the Baptist church, Christmas night at 7:00 o'clock (sharp). Please be on time, and lets begin early. Everyone invited.

Mrs. R. L. Henderson raised two right nice hogs this year. She had them killed last week and they lacked three days being nine months old. One weighed 333lbs and the other one 275lbs and got 15 gallons of lard by rendering up one middling and half of another one.

DEATH OF MRS. SALLIE FARR MAULDIN.

Mrs. Sallie Farr Mauldin, wife of E. E. Mauldin, of Easley, passed away after a lingering illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Cunningham, on the Cedar Lane road in Greenville county, at 11 o'clock, Tuesday December 12.

She is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. W. L. Cunningham, of Greenville; Mrs. H. O. Williams, of Easley; Misses Elizabeth, Frances and Deborah Mauldin, and the following step-children, Mrs. A. M. Morris, Mrs. B. Lewis, Mrs. B. T. Freeman, Mrs. G. F. Hendricks, of Pickens; Mrs. L. S. Grandy, of Atlanta; W. A. Mauldin, of Greenwood; and E. E. Mauldin, Jr., of Texas.

DEATH OF T. N. STONE

On Nov. 23, the soul of Toliver Stone went out to meet the great beyond. He was laid to rest the following day at Six Mile cemetery. He was about 49 years of age, and a member of the Wesleyan Methodist church. He leaves a wife and six children, names as follows: Walter, Ida, Mae, Eunice, LeRoy, and J. B. two brothers, three sisters and other relatives and friends to mourn his death.

The entire family have the sympathy of the community, in their sad bereavement.

DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE W. HOLCOMBE

On November 25th the death angel visited the home of Geo. H. Holcombe and claimed for its victim his loving wife. She had been in declining health for several years. She was struck with paralysis about eighteen months ago. For the past year she could not walk being rolled about in her chair.

She was 53 years of age the day of her death, having died on her birthday. She leaves a husband and three children, Mrs. Grady Holcombe, Mrs. Carr Glazener, Mrs. Allen Raimcy, and a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chappell, several brothers and sisters as follows: Mrs. W. A. Holcombe of Salem, Messrs. Cam and Bob Chappell all of Eastatoe; Mrs. William Dodson of Little Eastatoe section, Mr. Ed Chappell of Catechee, Misses Essie and Anna of Twelve Mile, ten little sweet grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn her departure.

She had been a member of Toxaway Baptist church for thirty six years, and was a true, faithful member, always doing what she could for Jesus. On Monday following her death the funeral services were held at Toxaway church, conducted by Rev. W. O. Holcomb, and her pastor Rev. Judson Cern. She was laid to rest at the Toxaway cemetery Monday evening to wait the great resurrection.

MARRIAGES

A marriage of much interest was solemnized on December 15 in the Probate Judge's office when Miss Viola McCrary became the bride of Mr. T. C. Cox, formerly of Easley. Mrs. Cox is from Travelers Rest in Greenville County and has a number of friends in Pickens. She is the sister of Mrs. F. D. Waldrop of this place, and is a very attractive young lady.

Mr. Cox has just finished serving an enlistment in the Navy of three and one half years and has resigned for a period of four more years. His rank is ship cook, 1st Class. He will be stationed on the U. S. S. Case on his return to the Navy.

Hudson-Chappell

On December 14th Miss Fannie E. Hudson became the bride of Mr. M. D. Chappell. Judge N. A. Christopher officiating. We wish for this popular young couple a prosperous and happy life.

GARVIN-CRAIG

A wedding of much interest to a large number of friends was that of Miss Pearl Eleanor Garvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Garvin of Pendleton and Mr. Olin L. Craig which was solemnized Thursday afternoon at four o'clock.

The wedding was a quite affair; attended only by a few members of the immediate families. The impressive ring ceremony being performed by Rev. J. A. Bledsoe, pastor of the Methodist church.

The bride wore a handsome going away suit of blue Point Twill, with hat, shoes and gloves in the new combination brown and toast shade. Her flowers were a lovely bouquet of narcissus and fern tied with tulle. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Craig left for Jacksonville, Daytona and other points of interest along the east coast of Florida. After January 1st they will be at home in Catechee, S. C.

The bride is one of Pendleton's most popular young ladies.

The groom is a prominent young man of Pickens county and holds a responsible position with the Norris Manufacturing Company, and also has farming interest in the same county.

SINGING

The Pickens Township Singing Convention will meet at Pickens View church next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Let everybody come as it is time to elect officers for the coming year.

SANTA CLAUS LETTER

Liberty, S. C.
Dec. 15, 1922.

Dearest Santa,
For fear you might forget me a little girl six years old, I want you to please bring me, a doll carriage, a doll, a dining set, table and chairs, a tea set, a iron, red checked hair ribbon. Please don't forget my little sister, Clara Lee. Bring her a small wagon and a doll, candies, fruits and all nice things for babies.

Be sure to remember our nurse, "Ollie Belle" she wants a sweater and necklace of red beads.

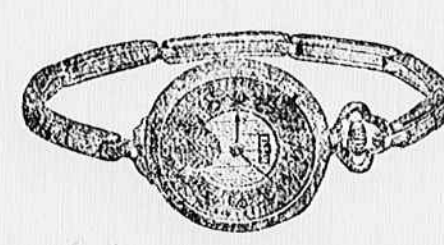

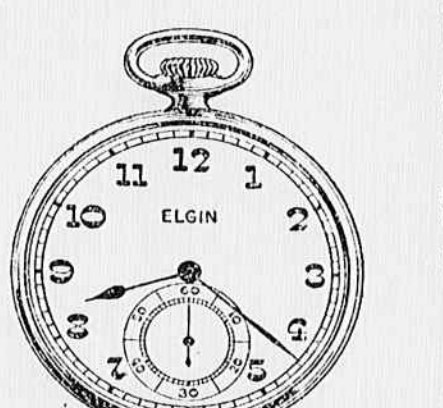

Please don't forget aunt Lee, Mother and Daddie.
Wishing you a Merry Xmas,
Eileen Stewart.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS
