WILL ROGERS

Another "Bull" Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld Folies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

What Good Does It Do You to Know Something?

Advertisements in all Papers and Magazines are all trying to appeal to the intelligent. Now this one is for the great majority. Reliable authority, in fact it was the Draft Boards during the War, figured out that the intelligence of the average Adult of this Country was that of a 13 year old Child. (Now that is giving us the best of it because a 13 year old Child is about the smartest thing we have in this Country), but the 13 year old Child they referred to was one who had been raised on the milk of human Kindness (which is mostly Water) and weaned on a Hard Boiled Egg. You know the smarter the Man the more dissatisfied he is, so cheer up, let us be happy in our ignorance. What do we care how little we know if we get what we want? "Bull" Durham needs no Literacy Test, it is with minority in quality, and with the majority in usage.

P. S. This last sentence is all that saved the add.

P. P. S. There will be another piece here two weeks from now. Look for it.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO!

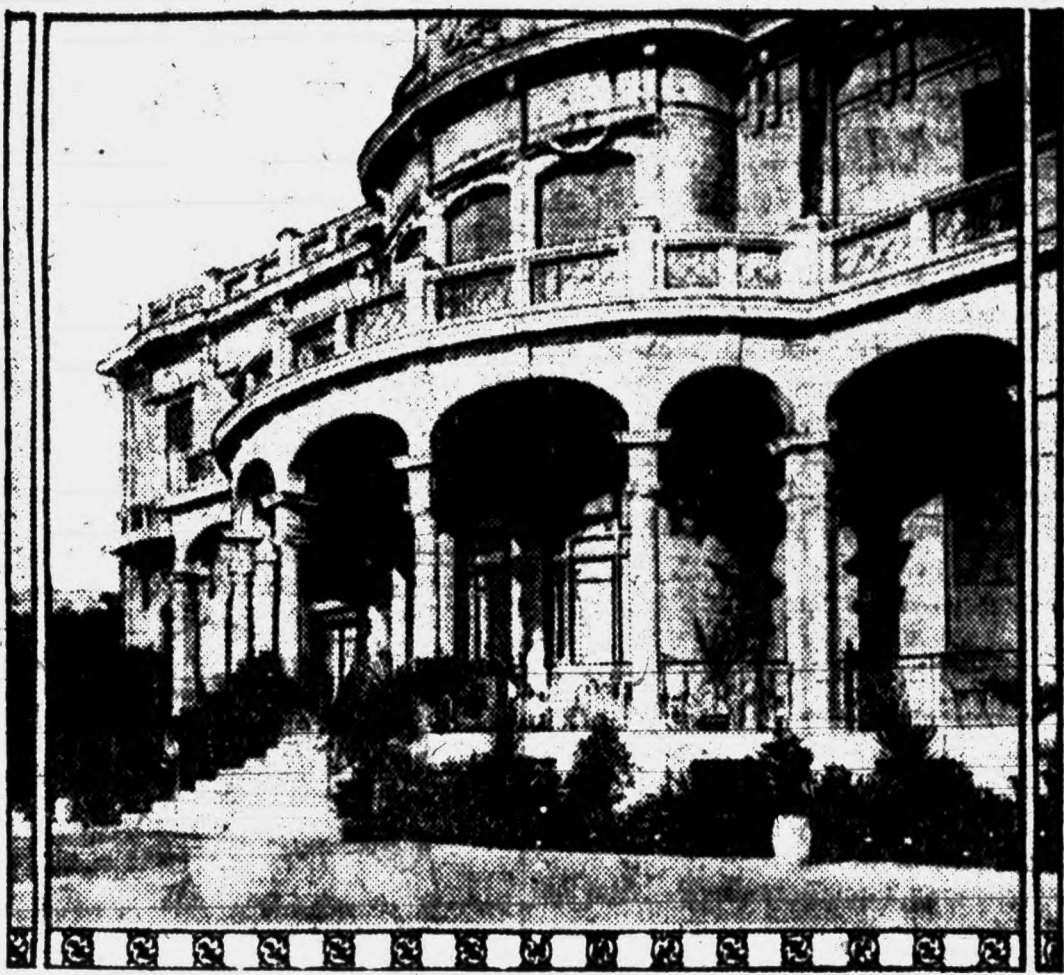

In 1860 a blend of tobacco was born—"Bull" Durham. On quality alone it has won recognition wherever tobacco is known. It still offers the public this—more flavor, more enjoyment and a lot more money left at the end of a week's smoking.

Trotsky Buys Castle in Italy

Entrance to the beautiful Castle Devacian in Italy which, it is said, has been bought by Leon Trotsky, Russian Bolshevik leader, for a large sum. The castle, which housed one of the first peace conferences in 1920, was built by the Englishman Lord Mesboughe and contains many historical treasures.

BARNWELL BAR ASSOCIATION MOURNS DEATH OF MEMBERS

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF THE HON. JAS. E. DAVIS AND THE HON. J. O. PATTERSON, JR., WERE ADOPTED LAST WEEK.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the Hon. James E. Davis and the Hon. J. O. Patterson, Jr., were adopted at a meeting of the Barnwell Bar Association last week and presented to the Court of General Sessions while in session here. These resolutions, which record the sense of loss felt by the members of the local Bar and pay a high tribute to the deceased members, are as follows:

Hon. James E. Davis

Whereas, Death has removed from our midst the Honorable James E. Davis, a distinguished member of this bar;

Now Be It Resolved by the Barnwell Bar Association, in regular meeting assembled, that in the death of Mr. Davis the bar of the State of S. Carolina has lost one of its prominent members; a lawyer of comprehensive vision; of fine legal ability, and one of the ablest practitioners at this bar; a natural-born lawyer, and an advocate of unusual force and logic; he had a wonderful personality and a suave and seductive manner of presenting his case to the Court and Jury, with a grasp upon the facts of his case which brought him preeminent success in obtaining verdicts from the jury. He had a wonderful hold upon the people, and from the commencement of his career in 1880, when he was admitted to the bar, he enjoyed a varied and extensive practice, and although in the latter years of his life, he was a victim of great suffering, yet maintained himself with the indomitable fortitude which was one of his splendid characteristics.

Be It Further Resolved: That these resolutions be presented to the Court at its present term presided over by the resident Judge of this Circuit, the Honorable Hayne F. Rice, and that the Court be asked to adjourn its duties in respect to the memory of our departed brother, and that a page upon the records of the Court, inscribed with these resolutions, and dedicated to his memory, be ordered engraved by the Clerk of this Court, and that a copy of the same be transmitted to the bereaved family of the deceased and also printed in the county newspapers.

C. C. Simms,
President,
R. C. Holman,
Secretary.

Hon. J. O. Patterson, Jr.,

Whereas, for the second time within a period of a few months, Death has again invaded the ranks of our profession and removed from his labors our brother, James O. Patterson, Jr., a valued member of the Barnwell Bar Association;

Now Be It Resolved by the Barnwell Bar Association, in regular meeting assembled, that in the death of Mr. Patterson this bar has sustained a distinct loss; the community a young, virile, active citizen, who had dedicated his life, to a large extent, to the building up of his community and to the relief of those who sorrowed and who suffered in mind, body and estate, and one whose life was given up to the relief of the poor and needy.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Bar mourns his untimely death, in the zenith of his young and vigorous manhood, and in the midst of his active engagements of his profession, and the performance of his every duty to his family and to his friends, and that the Bar bears will testimony to his ability as a lawyer; his earnestness of purpose; his aggressiveness in his legal fights, and to the eminent success that he has attained in his profession.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Court be asked to adjourn its present term in respect to his memory, and that a page in the minutes of the Court be inscribed with these resolutions, and that a copy suitably engrossed be transmitted to his bereaved family, and be printed in the newspapers of the county.

C. C. Simms,
President,
R. C. Holman,
Secretary.

Interesting Budget of News from Snelling

Snelling, June 1.—Mrs. M. M. Moore is spending some time in Allendale with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Patterson.

Mr. James Cook, of Bamberg, spent several days here last week.

Messrs. W. C. Birt and Byron Bolen of Williston, were visitors here Saturday.

Mr. W. C. Cook, of Williston, spent Friday here with his uncle, Mr. H. M. Cook.

Mr. P. M. Hair and Mrs. J. E. Hair, of Williston, spent last Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Ella Rutland.

Several parties of fishermen from here visited the streams of the lower part of the State last week and report very good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Heyward Anderson and little daughter, Maggie Lou, of Dunbarton, were visitors here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cook and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Birt, of Williston, Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Kitchings Dead.

Mrs. Bettie Louise Kitchings, wife of J. Brantley Kitchings, prominent farmer of this county, died in the University Hospital, at Augusta, on Tuesday night of last week, after an operation following an illness of about two weeks. The body of Mrs. Kitchings was carried to Williston Wednesday morning and funeral services, conducted by the Rev. W. R. Davis and the Rev. Mr. Baughnigh, were held at Williston cemetery at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The men's chorus furnished appropriate music. The large attendance and the beautiful flowers attested to the love and esteem in which this splendid Christian wife and mother was held throughout that section. She was a loyal member of the Williston Methodist Church and will be greatly missed.

The profoundest sympathy of the community goes out to her bereaved family, consisting of her husband, three sons, Llewellyn, Robert, and Smith Kitchings; two daughters, the Misses Lula Belle and Katherine Kitchings, and her mother, Mrs. Lena Fanning, who resides in Union. Mrs. Kitchings is also survived by one brother, George W. Fanning, of Macon, Ga., and one sister, Mrs. G. L. Kirby, of Union.

Mesdames L. P. Tobin and Charlie Brooker, of Bamberg, were visitors here Friday.

THE SOUTHERN SERVES THE SOUTH

Whose interest in the Southern is greatest?

We who are devoting our lives in the service of this railroad like to call it ours.

The investors who have put their faith and money into it to make it an efficient transportation machine—they speak of it as theirs.

And you who travel on it, whose goods it carries, and whose business depends on its regular service day in and day out—are you not entitled to call it yours?

We all have a feeling of pride and proprietorship in the Southern, and it is through the cooperative efforts of all of us that it has come to be the great railway system that it is.

This spirit will build a greater South—ern to serve a greater South.

Ford

Easy to handle

In the press of traffic, the driver of a Ford experiences little strain and effort.

He finds that its simplified control and quick get-away enable him to thread the crowded thoroughfares with an ease that only a Ford can give.

He finds that the problem of parking, which proves so serious in a large city, is of little consequence to him because of the simplicity with which a Ford may be maneuvered back and forth into a very small space.

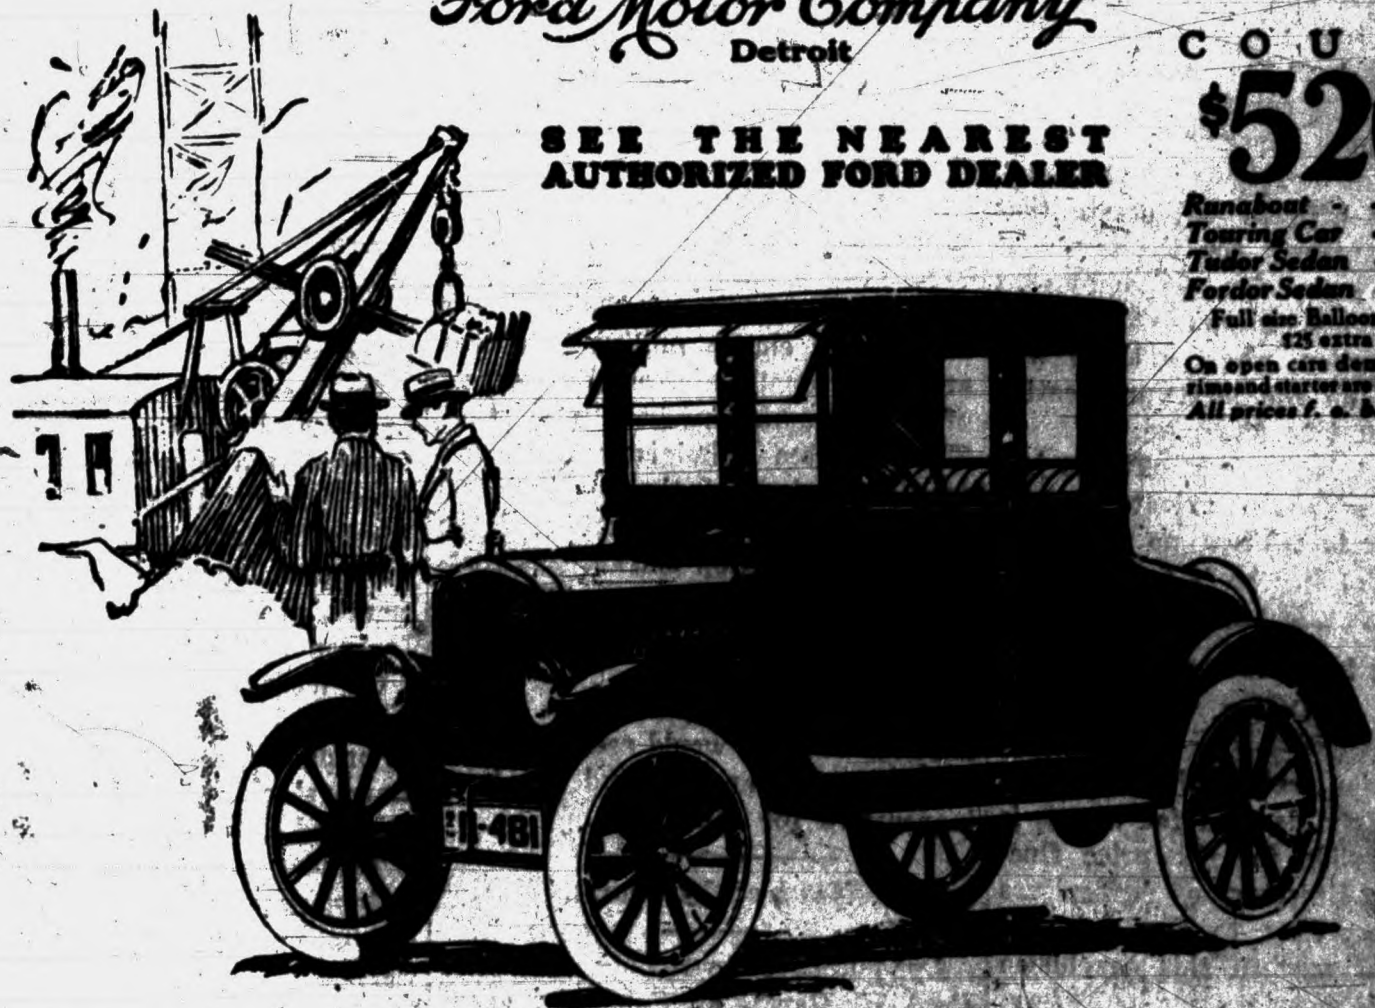

Many owners of larger cars use a Ford for daily city driving because of its easy control. Good will towards this car is increasing year after year because it has proved to be a sound motoring investment for everyone.
