Dr. Cecil B. Ray was called to Orangeburg Tuesday as a witness in court, which is now in session. Mrs. Ray and children; Cecil B., Boyd and the baby, accompanied him and while there will visit Miss Esther Boyd, a sister of Mrs. Ray and a member of the Orangeburg High School faculty.

Messrs. A. A. Lemon and Lloyd Plexico enjoyed a day's outing on Little Saltketchie, Thursday, even though trout and jackfish were not "striking"—in fact they seemed to be on a strike. They amused themselves by catching a large number of that species of perch known as "starkys."

Col. and Mrs. Harry D. Calhoun returned home Thursday morning after a delightful tour of Florida. While away they visited and invested in real estate at Hollywood, a new city that is being built in the land of flowers. They give glowing reports of the beauty and progressiveness of Florida.

It will be gratifying to the many friends of Mr. James A. Best, formerly of this place, but now of Atlanta, to know of his recent promotion. He has been connected with the Associated Press in Atlanta for less than a year, but in that short time has risen to the position of night chief operator of the Southern Division.

R. A. Ellis, Esq., has returned from Greenville, where he attended a reunion of his classmates at Furman University. Of the 15 original members, only seven or eight are now left. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed, giving them the opportunity, after many years of separation, to meet again and exchange reminiscences.

Uneasy Tight Feeling

"I used Thedford's Black-Draught first for constipation," said Mrs. C. E. Buntin, of R. F. D. 5, Starkville, Miss. "I would feel dull, stupid, and have severe headaches, even feverish. I had an uneasy, tight feeling in my stomach. I read quite a bit about

BLACK-DRAUGHT

Liver Medicine

I began using it and soon my bowels acted regularly and I was greatly relieved. I used it every once in a while for about 18 years.

"About two years ago I found I was having indigestion, a tight smothering in my chest, then severe pain, especially after eating sweets. I commenced taking just a pinch of Black-Draught after meals, and by doing this I could eat anything.

"I gave Black-Draught to my children for colds and headaches. I can certainly recommend it." Black-Draught is used, with satisfaction, by millions. Get Thedford's. Sold Everywhere
