BARNWELL GIRL WILL GO TO SAVANNAH THIS MONTH

MISS GRACE HOGG WINNER-OF FREE TRIP.

To Represent Barnwell County at Savannah Water Carnival.—Judges Unable to Select.

Miss Grace Hogg will go to Savannah this month as "Miss Barnwell," representing Barnwell County at the Water Carnival to be held in the Georgia city July 16, 17 and 18 in connection with the formal opening of the new bridge over the Savannah River. This selection was made as the result of "the bathing beauty contest" held at Dyches' Swimming Pool Friday evening under the auspices of the Barnwell Chamber of Commerce, which had been asked to send a representative to Savannah.

There were eight contestants for the honor of attending the Water Carnival as "Miss Barnwell"—one from Blackville and seven from this city—and the judges, who were the Rev. Howard Cady, Messrs. Solomon Blatt, M. C. Best and W. L. Cave, were unable to make a final selection from the bevy of pretty girls. However, they narrowed their choice down to two young ladies—Miss Hogg and Miss Sarah Stone, of Blackville—and these two decided to let the Goddess of Chance render the final decision by the simple but effective method of "drawing straws." The straws were duly prepared and an agreement was made whereby the one getting the longest straw would be the choice of the judges. Luck smiled on Miss Hogg and she was named as the official representative of Barnwell County. The other young ladies in the contest were Misses Frankie Harley, Emily Kirkland, Zelma Diamond, Lavinia Moore, Mary Francis Moore and Annie Moody.

The winner of the contest is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hogg, of this city. As stated in last week's issue of The People-Sentinel, she will represent Barnwell County as the guest of the Savannah Water Carnival, receiving railroad transportation and hotel accommodations during her stay in the Georgia city. In addition, she has a chance to win a prize of $100 in gold, offered to the young lady who has the largest number of automobiles from her home county in line behind her float in the parade that opens the carnival. The People-Sentinel congratulates Miss Hogg, while regretting that it was impossible for the judges to send each and every one of the young ladies who entered the contest.

Engineer Hurts Hand.

Balbock, July 4.—A. C. Wingo, engineer on freight No. 94 on the Charleston and Western Carolina Railroad, which passes through here about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, was painfully though not seriously, injured when a grease cup exploded in his hand. His hand was broken and the hand and arm were badly burned. Both eyes were scorched and he received other burns and some cuts. He was given first aid at the store of J. C. Calhoun, here, and a physician was summoned from Allendale, but before he could arrive it was decided to send the injured man to Augusta on the passenger train No. 45, which passes here about that time. He was taken to an Augusta hospital, where he received treatment, and he is now convalescing from his injuries.

Entertains S. S. Classes.

Jennys, July 4.—Mrs. J. D. Jenny entertained about 20 members of the Intermediate and Junior Sunday school classes Tuesday afternoon.

Franny Jenny has returned to his home at Pittsburg, Pa., after a visit with friends and relatives in this community.

The Jenny chapter of the Eastern Star held its regular meeting Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Allen and family of Sycamore visited Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Loedholt Sunday.

Death of Mrs. J. A. Cave.

Mrs. Carrie J. Mathis Cave, wife of Mr. Josh A. Cave, of Mt. Pleasant, died Saturday evening at her home. The funeral services and interment were held at Elko Monday afternoon. The many Barnwell County friends of Mr. Cave will sympathize with him in his deep bereavement.

"Some" Potatoes.

There are no "small potatoes" in the farming lexicon, of The People-Sentinel's good friend, Mr. John R. Ray, who lives at his home a few miles from this city and boards at the same place. Friday he brought the editor four "spuds" that tipped the scales at 3½ pounds. The variety is Irish Cobbler and Mr. Ray says that he grew a sufficient quantity on a small plot of land to supply the needs of his family until Fall.

Mr. Ray is a progressive farmer and grows other crops equally as well as he does potatoes. If more of Barnwell County's farmers raised their own food and feed crops this would indeed be one of the most prosperous sections in the world.

Three Auto Accidents Near Barnwell Sunday

On Sunday afternoon three automobile accidents occurred near Barnwell, the cars in each instance being almost total wrecks.

On the Snelling road the car of Mrs. V. A. Eates, containing Mrs. Bates and several children, was run into by Bitha Meyers, negro employee of Mr. Perry Harley, both cars being wrecked. Mrs. Bates two small children were thrown out and Mrs. Bates was thrown against the windshield with such force as to render her unconscious for a short time. Mrs. Bates and children were brought to town by a passing machine and given medical attention. Both children were severely bruised and lacerated, the little girl suffering internal injuries.

On the road from Millette to Allendale the car of Mrs. Meyer, wife of the Section Foreman at Milletteville, was run into by Mr. Charlie Boyles, of Allendale. Fortunately no one was injured but both cars were badly damaged.

Mrs. Fannie Wall, of the Dunbarton section, was returning from Bamberg on Sunday afternoon when her car collided with a buggy containing several negroes. The buggy was demolished, the horse crippled and the automobile damaged but fortunately no one was injured.

Scholarship Exams. Held Here Saturday

Three young ladies stood the scholarship examinations for Winthrop College held in the Court House here Saturday. They were Misses Willie Bush Deason, of Barnwell, Kate Odiorne and Gladys Thompson, of Williston.

Messrs. Aubrey Harley and Albert Cornell, both of this city, stood the examination for Furman University.

Attention is again called to the scholarship examinations scheduled to be held here this week. Tomorrow (Friday) examinations will be held to fill two four-year scholarships and one two-year scholarship to Clemson College. At the same time a scholarship examination to the University of South Carolina will be given. On the same day, a four-year scholarship to The Citadel will be decided as a result of a competitive examination.

Last but by no means least, an examination for a vacant scholarship to the College of Charleston will be held tomorrow.

These are all excellent opportunities for young men who desire a college education and it is to be hoped that none of them will be allowed to go elsewhere by default.

May Get Pension Money.

The People-Sentinel has been requested by the local U. D. C. Chapter to announce that Mrs. Cornelia Jane Ready and Mrs. Martha Hutto, widows of Confederate Veterans, have failed to call for their money. If these two ladies are sick and unable to come to Barnwell for the money, they may send reliable parties for same. Any reader of this paper living in the same community with either Mrs. Ready or Mrs. Hutto are asked to kindly notify them in regard to this matter.

PERSONAL NEWS OF BLACKVILLE

Blackville, July 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Judson Birt motored to Ellore recently to visit relatives. They were accompanied by their nephew, Mr. Randall Birt.

Mrs. Ellen Smith and two children, from Gastonia, N. C., who are on an extended visit to relatives here, and her mother, Mrs. Alice Still, have returned from a visit to Messrs. Luther and Howard Still, at Blythe, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buist and Mrs. J. Lang Buist and daughter, Mrs. S. H. Rush, were among the shoppers in Augusta last week.

A delightful rain fell here last night, which was very much needed.

Many people are attending the Presbyterian Revival tent meeting to include all the churches, which is going on in Denmark, and report a wonderful time, great preaching and wonderful singing. Let everybody go who can.

Three hundred and eighty-six cars of Kukes were shipped from here during the season, and many cantaloupes are being shipped now.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ladd and little daughter, of Charleston, are visiting Mrs. Ladd's parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Whaley.

Mr. and Mrs. Somers Buist Pringle, have returned home after a visit to relatives in Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Free, former Blackville residents, but now living in Columbia, are the guests of Mrs. C. R. Kelly for several days. They are receiving cordial greetings from hosts of friends.

Mrs. C. W. Kearse and children, Mary, Dorothy and Charles, are visiting Mrs. Kearse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Halford.

The Ladies Aid Society was delightfully entertained by Mrs. C. S. Buist Monday afternoon.

Friends of Mrs. Ellen Izlar will be interested to learn that, though a "great grandmother," she decided to part with her tresses Monday and has had "her hair bobbed." Mrs. Izlar is quite modern in her ideas, but wants it thoroughly understood that she took this step in order to be more comfortable instead of "more beautiful."

Mrs. Mamie Cauley, of Wagener, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Essie Bates.

The Rev. F. H. Funderburk, pastor of the Elko Baptist Church, and a former Blackville pastor, and the Rev. Nungezer, of Columbia, were in Blackville for a while Monday, en route to their homes, after carrying on a very successful revival at Elko.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Weyer have returned to their home at Lockhart after a visit to Mr. Meyer's sister, Miss Marie Meyer.

The death of Mrs. Carrie Mathis Cave, wife of Mr. Josh A. Cave, who died at their home at Mt. Pleasant Saturday night after a lingering illness, brought sadness into many hearts in this section. Mr. and Mrs. Cave are both originally from Barnwell County, and Mrs. Cave was the sister of the late Mrs. W. B. Johnston and Mr. Charlie Mathis, of Blackville, and had endeared herself to hosts of friends here, while visiting her sister and brother. Her body was brought to Elko Monday, and interment took place in the family burying ground there. Much sympathy is felt for the entire family in their sorrow.

"The melon 'colic' days are here, The baddest of all the year."

The Korn and Kotton crops in this section look perfectly splendid and the future outlook for prosperity seems very bright right now. But we are keeping in mind the fact that "Paul may plant, and Apollas may water, but God giveth the increase."

An occasion of much importance to the younger social set occurred here last week, when Mrs. A. H. Nirstein entertained about twenty boys and girls in honor of the fourteenth birthday of her son, Albert Nirstein, Jr.

An interesting contest was enjoyed in which Miss Etta Mathis and Ruby Martin were winners of the girls prize, and Laurie Buist won the boys prize. The decorations for the occasion were pink and white.

Progressive conversation and other merry games were played, and everybody who had the privilege of enjoying the party, pronounced it a grand success, and their best wishes were very cordially extended to their young friend, that he would live to celebrate at least a hundred more birthdays like this one, and that they would be able to attend each one.

WEEK SEES DROP IN COTTON PRICES

New Orleans, July 5.—The government report on condition and acreage, as well as the indicated crop, was the leading factor in the past week's cotton market. An acreage increase of 8.9 per cent, or 46,448,000 acres planted, was so much larger than popular expectations that this sharp break in prices followed publication of the report.

While the condition average of 75.9 per cent of normal was higher than the trade expected, it would not, without the sensational increase in acreage, have justified the decline which took place. The indicated yield of 14,338,000 bales, exclusive of linters, was necessarily the result of the acreage total given.

Prior to publication of the report the market had shown some disposition to improve owing to deterioration in condition and the more moderate acreage increase estimated by private reports.

Prior to the announcement of the government's figures, October traded at 23.54 and before the end of the session, after the publication of the totals, October dropped to 22.30, a decline of 124 points.

At the lower levels of Thursday more or less trading demand developed, and with the disposition of shorts to cover in advance of the double holiday, caused a mild rally. This steadier tone at the close of the week was helped by the fact that the drought situation in Texas was still unrelieved.

A sustaining factor was the improvement in the demand for cotton goods as shown by the liberal sales both in New York and Fall River. The latter center reported sales of print cloths for the week would probably exceed 200,000 pieces.

Watch Us Grow.

Two more new subscribers joined The People-Sentinel family of satisfied readers this week—Mr. U. B. Hammett, of Barnwell, and Benmie Bennett, a colored farmer, who lives near this city.

Several subscribers have also brought or sent in their renewals, as follows:

A. T. Beard, of Augusta, Ga.
Moses Morris, of Ashleigh.
Mrs. M. M. Still, of Blackville.

The editor thanks these good friends and expresses the wish that many more will follow their example. If you, dear delinquent subscriber, are one of those who think that "the laborer is worthy of his hire," send in your renewal TODAY. The People-Sentinel has made a contract with you to furnish you with the news of Barnwell County at a cost of less than three cents a week. This paper is fulfilling its part of the agreement—are you doing likewise?

Balbock News.

Balbock, July 4.—The young folks of this vicinity enjoyed a motor ride Friday night in honor of Miss Lillian Calhoun, who left Tuesday for Newberry, where she is attending summer school.

Cohen Smith has returned to his home here after a visit with his cousins near Grays.

Alex Smith has returned to his home near Grays after spending some time with his son, C. C. Smith.

Mrs. C. C. Smith and children and her brother, Eddie Anderson, spent Thursday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Anderson, at Varnville.

Bryant Calhoun has been spending several days in Allendale with friends.

The Fourth in Barnwell.

The Glorious Fourth passed very quietly in Barnwell, there being nothing to distinguish it from any other Saturday in July except that the two local banks were closed for the day. That night, several boys celebrated the birthday of the nation by exploding fire-crackers and shooting roman candles. The stores of the city were closed Monday in order to allow the merchants and their clerks to enjoy a holiday.

To Confer M. M. Degree.

There will be a special communication of Harmony Lodge No. 17, A. F. M., at Barnwell (Thursday) evening at eight o'clock, for the purpose of conferring the Master's Degree on Fellowcraft Newman Connor. A cordial invitation is extended to visiting brethren.

VIRGINIA-CAROLINA CLUB WILL HOLD TRIALS HERE

Celebrates Fine Crops.

Mr. W. B. Norris, a farmer of the Siloam section, celebrated his good health and fine crops on the Glorious Fourth by entertaining about 45 relatives, friends and farm hands at a mammoth barbecue dinner with all the trimmings. Two carcasses, a hog and a goat, were prepared and everybody, from the oldest to the youngest thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Mr. Norris states that his crops at this time are the best in many years and that his health could hardly be better. The People-Sentinel congratulates him on both and hopes that he will continue to enjoy good health and make bumper crops for many years to come.

Building and Loan to Open New Series

At a meeting of the directors of the Barnwell County Building and Loan Association, held here Tuesday afternoon, it was decided to offer a new series of stock to the people of this city. This series, which is the 19th to be issued by the association, will be limited to 50 shares, of which 25 have already been subscribed. Only 25 remain, therefore, and anyone wishing to buy stock for an investment or to borrow money to build a home should get in touch immediately with Mr. A. A. Lemon, the president, or Col. N. G. W. Walker, the secretary.

This association was organized some 20 years ago, the promoters being G. M. Greene, Esq., Mr. J. G. Moody, Sr., and Mr. Marshall Moore, who at that time was superintendent of the local schools. During these years of its existence, the association has helped a large number to realize their ambition of becoming homeowners and has also helped others to save small amounts that would otherwise have been thrown away. Not a penny has been lost in that time and a report submitted to the directors Tuesday afternoon shows that the affairs of the association are in a most flourishing condition.

The association affords an easy method of saving and many people have gotten a start in the world through such an organization. Elsewhere in this issue will be found an announcement of the new series.

Luncheon Is Enjoyed By Barnwell Ladies

Bamberg, July 6.—Special. One of the most elaborate social functions of the summer was the lovely bridge luncheon given last Friday morning by Mrs. C. J. S. Brooker, at her home in honor of Mrs. John Wright, of Johnston. About forty guests were invited including visitors from Barnwell and Aiken. Mrs. Brooker's lovely home was beautiful for this occasion. The spacious parlors were thrown open and decorated in red cannas and red zinnias. Before the game a sumptuous luncheon was served; the following being the menu: Tomatoes filled with chicken salad, potato chips, pickles, olives, beaten biscuit, stuffed peppers with cheese, sliced ham, and an attractive calla lily formed from a wafer with whipped cream and iced tea.

The favors were little red baskets filled with red cherries and salted almonds. On the handles were tied miniature fire crackers. The color scheme in the decorations and refreshments carried out the sentiment of Independence Day.

The high score prize was won by Mrs. Harry Calhoun, of Barnwell and she was presented with a bottle of perfume. The consolation falling to Mrs. John Williams, of Aiken, she received a box of imported powder. The honor guest was given a lovely hand made handkerchief.

The guests were: Mrs. E. V. Camp, of Bartow, Fla.; Mrs. Frances Bamberg, of Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. R. B. Cole, Fort McPherson, Ga.; Mrs. Cherry, Iowa. From Barnwell were: Mrs. H. D. Calhoun, Mrs. Lonnie M. Calhoun, Mrs. Charlie Brown, Mrs. Wilhemina Dicks, Mrs. Bush, and Miss Virginia Mosely. Aiken guests were: Mrs. B. D. Brooker, Mrs. Plunkett, Mrs. Mosely, Mrs. Ernest Brown, Mrs.

EVENTS WILL RUN WEEK OF NOVEMBER 30.

Officials Met Here Thursday and Announced Decision After Visiting Proposed Grounds.

The annual meeting of the Virginia-Carolina Field Trial Association will be held at Barnwell this year, according to an announcement made Thursday by Col. R. T. Steadman, of Winston-Salem, N. C., president of the V.-C. Club, after he had inspected the grounds offered to the club by the local Chamber of Commerce in behalf of the citizens of Barnwell, who had received the generous consent of the owners of the property for this purpose. Col. Steadman was accompanied to Barnwell by Mr. Tracey S. Comstock, secretary of the Virginia-Carolina Club, of Thomasville, N. C.; Dr. E. M. Wilder, secretary of the Georgia Field Trial Association, of Augusta, Ga.; Mr. Mark D. Brainard, secretary of the Southern Field Trial Association, of Union Springs, Ala.; Mr. R. R. Hickson, local secretary of the V.-C. Club, of Cheraw, and Mr. Houston, a member of the Board of Governors of the Georgia Association. They all concurred in the opinion that the proposed grounds are the finest for the purpose that can be found anywhere in this country.

After looking over the grounds, the visitors agreed to the proposition to make the V.-C. Club a Big Circuit Trial, the Circuit now being composed of five associations—the American Field Futurity and the Southeastern, both of which are run at Vanita, Okla., the Georgia Association, which will be run at Waynesboro, Ga., the Southern, which will be run at Union Springs, Ala., and the Virginia-Carolina, which will be run here. Dates were also arranged to complete the Southern Circuit, beginning in Barnwell on November 30th. The following week the Georgia Association will hold its trials at Waynesboro, while the Southern meets at Union Springs Dec. 15th.

It is believed that the finest dogs in the country will be drawn to Barnwell, as the purse of $3,500 offered at Barnwell and Waynesboro can be competed for with little extra expense to the handlers. It is estimated that there will be about 150 visitors, including some of the country's biggest sportsmen, and about 200 of the finest dogs in the United States. The Georgia Club will furnish mounts for both trials. This club, together with the Southern, has shown a beautiful spirit of cooperation with the V.-C. Club and Barnwell is very grateful for the consideration which was received at their hands. And it might be remarked in passing that it was mainly through the efforts of the Rev. R. W. Humphreies, and Solomon Blatt, Esq., of this city, that the trials are to be held here.

A little later on, the Chamber of Commerce will be notified by the Club as to the approximate number of visitors to expect and the following steering committee has been named to perfect plans for the meeting in order that it may be a success from every standpoint: The Rev. R. W. Humphreies, Messrs M. C. Best, J. W. Paterson, W. J. Lemon, Solomon Blatt and Perry A. Price.

Needless to say, the citizens will cooperate in every way possible and The People-Sentinel can assure the members of the V. C. Club that there will be no occasion to regret their choice of this city.

Sheriff Arrests Negro.

Sheriff Bonell H. Dyches and his deputies raided the home of Arthur Green, a negro, at Walkers Station Saturday afternoon and found a complete still, together with some maah, in the house. Green was brought to Barnwell and lodged in the county jail on a charge of violating the prohibition law.

Solomon Blatt, Esq., was a business visitor in Olar Monday.

John Williams, Mrs. Herbert Gyles, Mrs. Cleve Thomas, Bamberg guests were: Mrs. G. F. Bamberg, Mrs. F. B. McCrackin, Mrs. J. W. Price, Mrs. L. P. Tobin, Mrs. L. D. Keel, Mrs. G. F. Hair, Mrs. H. J. Stuckey, Mrs. Carl Kirsch, and Mrs. W. A. Camp and Misses Nell Bamberg and Mildred Rice.
