Fire Destroys Dwelling.
Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the home of Mr. C. S. Creech, a progressive farmer who lives a few miles East of Barnwell, on Tuesday afternoon of last week, together with his household furniture, clothing, smokehouse, wagon shed, one bale of cotton, 800 bundles of fodder and several pigs. The fire was discovered about three o'clock by some of Mr. Creech's relatives who were at work in a field nearby. Before they could reach the house it was wrapped in flames and it was only by hard work that the barn and stables were saved. It is thought that the blaze started in Mr. Creech's bedroom. He was having some cotton ginned at Barnwell at the time and his children were at the home of a neighbor. The loss, amounting to over $2,000, is a heavy one, as Mr. Creech had no insurance.

Death of Mr. C. H. Hartzog.
Blackville, Aug. 25.—On Tuesday, July 21st, Mr. C. H. Hartzog, affectionately known as "Uncle Charlie," passed to his eternal reward at the advanced age of 84 years. He was a Confederate Veteran and fought bravely in the War Between the States. He is survived by three daughters, Mesdames J. I. Hutto, Carrie Martin and Mamie Dyches; nine sons, Messrs. Elias, Charlie, George, John and W. H. Hartzog, of Blackville, Jim and Jake Hartzog, of Denmark, Curtis and Bernie Hartzog, of Newark; 64 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his death. His body was laid to rest in the Double Pond Churchyard, the funeral services being conducted by his pastor, the Rev. L. H. Miller. Mr. Miller paid a high tribute to Mr. Hartzog's memory and exhorted his hearers to be prepared for the final summons, as none knew when he or she would be called to meet the Heavenly Father. He felt, said Mr. Miller, that "Uncle Charlie" had gone on to fill that vacant room which God had prepared for him.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our midst
Which never can be filled.
Gently the casket was lowered,
One last look and 'twas gone;
Heaven's gates were opened
And through them entered one.
One Who Loved Him.

Pains Very Severe

"I suffered from womanly troubles which grew worse and worse as the months went by," says Mrs. L. H. Cantrell, of R. F. D. 9, Gainesville, Georgia. "I frequently had very severe pains. These were so bad that I was forced to go to bed and stay there. It seemed to me my back would come in two."

CARDUI For Female Troubles

"I taught school for a while, but my health was so bad I would have to stay out sometimes. This went on till I got so bad I didn't know what to do." "One day I read about the merits of Cardui, and as I had some friends who had been helped by it, I thought I would try it. I began to get better after I had taken half a bottle. I decided to keep on and give it a thorough trial and I did. I took in all about 12 bottles and now I am perfectly well. I do not suffer any pain and can do all my housework."
