"The Blue Label Appears."

Col. E. O. Calhoun, of Teague, Texas, a brother of Col. Harry D. Calhoun and Mr. L. M. Calhoun, of Barnwell, writes as follows:

"The blue label appears. 'Thinking I would pay you a visit this month, but the time has about gone. Therefore, I will settle by mail. Wishing you all health, wealth, happiness, peace, prosperity, peas, pop 'corn' and potatoes."

As a result of his letter and accompanying check, the blue label appears.

Big Airship Wrecked.

The giant dirigible, "Shenandoah," was wrecked Thursday morning over Ohio, with a loss of 14 men. The big airship encountered a terrific storm and was broken into three parts, falling to the ground from a great height. Among those who lost their lives was Captain Landsdown, commander of the ill-fated aircraft.

Col. William Mitchell, who attracted attention to himself several months ago and incidentally suffered demotion for criticizing the air service, launched another broadside at the department following the disaster, charging incompetency and criminal negligence. As a result he seems to have gotten himself "in bad" with the war department again.

Baseball Players Killed.

Emil Huhn, manager and first baseman of the Augusta baseball club, and Frank Reiger, catcher and outfielder on the same team, were killed Saturday night at 9:30 o'clock when the automobile in which they were returning from Charlotte, N. C., turned over near Camden. Five other players escaped with more or less serious injuries. Among them was Harry Smythe, who pitched superb ball for Williston in the days of the Tri-County League. Smythe, who was sold recently to the Philadelphia Nationals, suffered a broken collarbone. A patched-up team played and lost two games to Macon Monday. The South Atlantic closes this week and it is planned that Saturday's game in Augusta will be a benefit game for the families of the dead players.

BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

I began using it and soon my bowels acted regularly and I was greatly relieved. I used it every once in a while for about 15 years.

"About two years ago I found I was having indigestion, a tight smothering in my chest, then severe pain, especially after eating sweets. I commenced taking just a pinch of Black-Draught after meals, and by doing this I could eat anything.

"I gave Black-Draught to my children for colds and headaches. I can certainly recommend it."
