You Noticed It, of Course,

You noticed, of course, that The Barnwell People-Sentinel was the ONLY newspaper in Barnwell County that published BOTH sides of the recent controversy between the County Delegation and the Board of County Directors, and also that—

The Barnwell People-Sentinel was the ONLY newspaper in Barnwell county that published last week the news that the County Directors had tendered their resignations. And you noticed, of course, that—

The Barnwell People-Sentinel, week after week, gives its readers MORE news of county-wide importance than any other newspaper in Barnwell County. And that—

The Barnwell People-Sentinel gives its readers each week special features that no other paper in the county publishes.

"There's a reason" for the growing popularity of this newspaper and, to paraphrase the motto of a well-known automobile manufacturer, "When a better newspaper is published in Barnwell County, The People-Sentinel will publish it."
