

Evangelistic Meeting Starts in Blackville

The Evangelistic meeting at Blackville started on Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. In spite of the intense heat a large and attentive audience was present at both that and the 8:00 o'clock service. The choir, under the leadership of Mr. Farrar, is giving a song service at every meeting.

On Monday at close of school Mrs. Perkins met with the young girls of the town and a very happy time was spent. Wednesday afternoon the ladies met with her at the Baptist church to formulate their plans of work. Next Friday night is to be a special rally night for everybody, especially for all young men and women and everybody else under the age of 99. Mr. Farrar, the Chorister, is training a large Sunshine Choir of boys and girls and they will give the crowd on Friday night the benefit of their special choruses and selections.

On Saturday night at 8 o'clock a special meeting will be held for the colored folks. All colored people for miles around are invited to the tent to be addressed by the Evangelist. Bring your choirs and singers and be ready to sing for the Evangelistic Party and all other visitors.

On Sunday there will be two great services. The first will be held at 10:30 a. m. and the Rev. Mr. Stevens' subject will be: "The greatest need of Blackville and South Carolina—What is it?" Sunday school will be held in all of the churches at 9:30, closing at 10:25 and then everybody is to come to the tent. At 7:30 p. m. it is expected the tent will be filled to overflowing with people desirous of hearing the Evangelist's stirring subject: "Christianity vs. Infidelity," and Mr. Stevens will give the last words of Tom Paine, Voltaire, and other noted infadels. Every skeptic, agnostic, infidel and modernist is

Old--But True
Big Oaks From Little Acorns Grow

The old saying that "Big Oaks From Little Acorns Grow" applies with exceptional triteness to the accumulation of a Savings Account. As small an amount as ONE DOLLAR may be used as the acorn from which seed you may grow your own oak tree of Savings. And in later life its sturdy growth will protect you from the storms and its spreading branches will shelter you from the burning shame of old age poverty. We want to help you get started saving—let us tell you about the different plans we have for your use.

"If you have money, we want it." "If you want money, we have it."

Pupil of Barnwell School Ranks High

There's no getting away from the fact that Barnwell boys and girls invariably "make good" no matter where they go nor what they do. Particular reference is made in this instance to Miss Frances Lemon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lemon, of Barnwell, who entered Coker College at Hartsville this year from the tenth grade of the Barnwell High School. Last week the students of that institution were required to stand a test on a number of subjects and it is no surprise to Miss Lemon's friends to know that she led the entire Freshman Class and was one of the ten best out of the entire student body. This latter group was composed of one Freshman, two Sophomores, six Juniors and one Senior. Miss Lemon's splendid showing speaks well for the training she received at the local school, as well as for the manner in which she applied herself to her studies.

W. T. Ussery Dead.

Williston, Sept. 20—Williston lost one of its oldest citizens in the death about 5 o'clock this afternoon of William T. Ussery, a native of Barnwell County, connected with the large and well known Ussery family of this part of the State. Mr. Ussery had been in failing health for some months and in a serious condition for the last ten days. Death came peacefully after he had been in a coma for about 24 hours.

Funeral services, to be conducted by the Rev. W. R. Davis, will be at the Williston cemetery 10 o'clock Monday morning, followed by interment there.

Mr. Ussery many years ago joined the Healing Springs Baptist church. He is survived by two brothers, S. M. Ussery and J. F. Ussery of Williston, and numerous nephews, nieces, and other kinsmen.

Sheriff Seizes Still.

Sheriff B. H. Dyches captured a still and 1,500 gallons of mash on the farm of Mr. I. W. Rountree, near Dunbarton, Monday. No arrests were made.

Mack Keck and Pearl Blackwood, white, were arrested Saturday afternoon by the Sheriff on a charge of violating the prohibition law. Blackwood served a short while on the chain gang some time ago, five months of his sentence being suspended during good behavior.

G. M. Holly, also white, was arrested at Kline Saturday on a similar charge.

Johnson Hagood Chapter to Meet.

On Friday afternoon, September 25th, the Johnson Hagood Chapter, U. D. C., will hold its first meeting of the Fall at the home of Mrs. B. L. Easterling at five o'clock. This promises to be a very interesting meeting by reason of the fact that Crosses of Honor will be bestowed upon three of Barnwell County's Confederate Veterans, Messrs. Henry J. Croft, Jimmie S. Creech and Darling P. Lancaster, and every member is urged to be present on this occasion. An interesting program has been arranged and a delightful afternoon is anticipated.
