THE TRIUMPH OF RIGHTEOUSNESS Millions New Living Will Never Die.

Mr. C. A. Wise of Brooklyn, N. Y., one of the speakers for the International Bible Students association will lecture at the Barnwell Court House at 7:30 p. m., Friday on the above topic. One of the texts discussed will be that of St. Paul to the Corinthians, "For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death."—1 Corinthians 15:25, 26.

It is very apparent that the Lord meant His disciples to understand that sometime God's will shall be done on earth as it is done in heaven, else He would never have taught them so to pray. We cannot suppose that persons die in heaven. It follows that the time will come when they will not die here.

A strange impression has gotten abroad that in some unexplained way death is really a friend and not an enemy; but the Scriptures do not so present the matter. Viewing prophetically the death of the children that would be slain by Herod's soldiery at the time of the slaughter of the babes in Bethlehem, the prophet Jeremiah says:

"A voice was heard in Ramah (a suburb of Bethlehem,) lamentation, and bitter weeping: Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. Thus saith the Lord, Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy."—Jeremiah 31:15, 16.

We know how it is that those who are in the land of the enemy, in the sleep of death, are to come forth from that land. It will be through the resurrection power of our Lord, even as He said: "I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell (the grave) and of death."—Revelation 1:18.

The possession of the keys of death and the grave implies their use, and we know the use that will be made of them, for the Master said, "The hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth."—John 5:28, 29.

In symbolical language the same thought is expressed in the Revelation when St. John says: "Death and hell were cast into the lake of fire." (Revelation 20:14.) The lake of fire simply signifies destruction. Hades (the grave) will be destroyed when all the dead in it have heard the Lord's voice and have come forth. But "death" will still have hold upon these, since every ache and pain and every mental and moral imperfection is a part of the inherited Adamic penalty.

The millions awakened will be still under condemnation, still in death; but in proportion as they render obedience to the terms of the New Covenant, progress will be made toward health, perfection and life, and at length all their imperfections will have been removed, either by lifting the one-time sinner up to perfection or in mere blotting him out for ever, thus bringing in everlasting righteousness on a permanent basis.

At the I. B. S. A. lectures the seats are free and there are no collections.—Adv.

C. Dennis in general sessions court. The sentence, the judge explained, is an indeterminate sentence, with the minimum seven years and the maximum term 14 years, the lighter term depending entirely on the good behavior of the prisoner. It is understood that the convicted man will serve his term on the county chain gang.
