On account of the inclement weather and the general demoralization caused by the recent slump in the price of cotton, the Board of County Directors decided to defer selling ten of the county's mules that were advertised for sale Monday.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

At the regular meeting of the County Board of Directors at Barnwell on Tuesday, November 3, 1925, the following resolution was adopted:

"RESOLVED, That it is the sense of the County Board of Directors that, inasmuch as there is considerable loss to the county in the buying of supplies, caused by each county officer purchasing supplies for his office, hereafter, in the interest of economy, all county officers re-counting and drawing supplies shall make their requisition for them to the County Board of Directors, whose Clerk is charged with keeping a record of and purchasing, under the direction of the Board, all such supplies for the county for all purposes. Unless purchases are made in accordance herewith, such claims will be disapproved.

News of Blackville

Blackville, Oct. 31.—Friends of Mrs. Judson V. Matthews will regret to learn that she is in a Columbia hospital for the removal of her tonsils.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts visited their niece, Mrs. Leroy Kennedy, who is in a Columbia hospital for treatment, last Sunday.

Horace Ray, of the Springtown section, is a new comer in Blackville. He is employed by the telephone company and is boarding at the Rush house, which is now run by Mr. and Mrs. Breedin.

A good many Blackville people will attend the Hallowe'en entertainment at the Elko school, given by the School Improvement Association there.

Friends of Henry W. Jones, Sr., one of the Confederate Veterans who attended the State Fair at Columbia, will regret to learn that he was among the number who were victims of the "pick pockets," who are abroad in the land on occasions like that. Fortunately Mr. Jones carried only a small amount—$7 or $8 and his railroad ticket, and the ticket agent gave him another ticket, as the State veterans transportation and every-veterans transportation and everything free on Wednesday.

The Francis Gyles Missionary circle held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. D. P. Martin last week. Mrs. Daisy Walker presided, in her usual efficient manner. Quite an interesting program was enjoyed.

The Blackville people feel that the North Augusta folks have shown much wisdom in securing the services of Rev. L. H. Miller to carry on a revival there, and they may depend on wonderful results. Not only is Mr. Miller a good preacher, but he also possesses the "gift of song," and the people here admire his voice very much and the "famous Blackville trio," consisting of Rev. L. H. Miller, Virgil Nevils and W. B. Johnson.

Mrs. W. C. Turrentine entertained the Thursday afternoon bridge club quite recently and a delightful time was spent.

Mrs. Somers Buist Pringle won the first prize, a hand embroidered towel, and the consolation, a bottle of bath salts, was won by Mrs. Dorothy O'Gorman.

The Joseph Koger D. A. R. chapter was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Hutchinson Still this month. Several important business matters were discussed, and they decided to send a box to Ellis Island at once.

Mrs. J. B. Strobel has returned from a visit to Mrs. T. R. Jones, in Augusta.

Mrs. R. Bowman Still and Mrs. J. V. Matthews were appointed delegate to the convention to be held in Dillon soon. A very interesting historical program was given. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess, and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

News that little Stewart Rich, who has been critically ill, is now on the road to Wellville has caused rejoicing in the hearts of everybody in the town and section.

Mrs. W. H. DeWitt is visiting relatives in Columbia. Friends will regret to learn that her daughter, Mrs. Leroy Kennedy, of Denmark, is in a Columbia hospital, where she has just undergone serious surgical treatment.

Ray Carter, Ph. D., who has been employed at Epp's Pharmacy for some time, and who has made many friends here, has accepted a position in Savannah.

So Weak Couldn't Stand

"My wife's health broke down and for years she was just a physical wreck," says Mr. Thomas Glynn, of Gibson, La. "We did everything we knew, yet she seemed to get worse and worse. She was so weak till she couldn't stand, and had to be carried like a baby. It looked like nothing would save her that had been done."

CARDUI For Female Troubles

"I began looking around. I knew that Cardui was for women. I decided to try it for her as all else had failed. She couldn't eat, she couldn't sleep, and I was desperate. After taking a few doses of Cardui, we were so glad to note that she wanted something to eat, and with each bit of nourishment, and each day's doses of Cardui, she grew stronger and got up out of bed. She is now able to cook, and stronger than in a long time."

Cardui has been in successful use for nearly 50 years in the treatment of many common female troubles.
