President Coolidge has made it perfectly plain to everybody, except perhaps to Senator Fess, that when he does not choose he means he does not choose.

Grand Champion Among Essay Contestants work for the past four years. Miss Sparks chose as her subject "The Marketing of Cotton in My Community" and in a very sound practical manner outlined the principles of successful cotton marketing in general and as it is applied to Carroll County in particular.

In recognition of her achievement Miss Sparks won an expense-paid trip to the Southeastern fair, a gold Stone Mountain Memorial medal and the grand prize, which was a trip to the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago.

The picture illustrates Mr. Hollins N. Randolph, president of the Stone Mountain Memorial Association, and L. H. Beall, general manager, of Atlanta, presenting Miss Sparks with the gold memorial medal.

Miss Sparks has been a consistent winner in all 4H club activities, having won first honors in every class at the club camp, Camp Wilkins, Ga., in the contests sponsored by the Georgia State College of Agriculture during the past summer.

Where The S-4 Went Down

Between the "Vuican" and "Lark," shown at anchor in the harbor off Provincetown, Mass., lies the ill-fated submarine S-4, sunk by collision with the Coast Guard destroyer Paulding. Insert shows Lieut. Commander Roy Kehlor Jones, in charge of the S-4, on which were four officers, 34 enlisted men and two visitors connected with the Navy Board of Inspection and Survey, according to the official list.
