MISS PEACOCK GIVEN BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Anna Peacock, an honored member of the Mary G. Harley Sunday School class of the local Baptist Church, was given a real surprise birthday party on Saturday when a number of the members of the class gathered at her home and showered her with lovely and useful birthday gifts.

JUNIOR-SMART SET BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Lessie B. Easterling was hostess to the members of the Junior-Smart Set Bridge Club last week. The high score prize for club members, a cigarette box, was won by Mrs. H. J. Phillips, while the high score prize for guests, an ash tray, was awarded to Mrs. J. Norman Anderson. Mrs. Angus Patterson cut the consolation and was presented with a vase. After cards had been laid aside the hostess served a delicious sweet salad course with coffee. Those playing other than club members included Mrs. J. Norman Anderson, Miss Rosalie Spann of Sumter, Mrs. R. L. Bronson, Mrs. W. J. Lemon and Mrs. E. Brown Towles.

MRS. KIRKLAND ENTERTAINS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS.

Mrs. Frank Kirkland was hostess to the members of the Young Ladies' Bible Class of the local Baptist Church on Thursday evening of last week in the church parlors. Thirteen out of the nineteen active members were present and a delightful evening was spent.

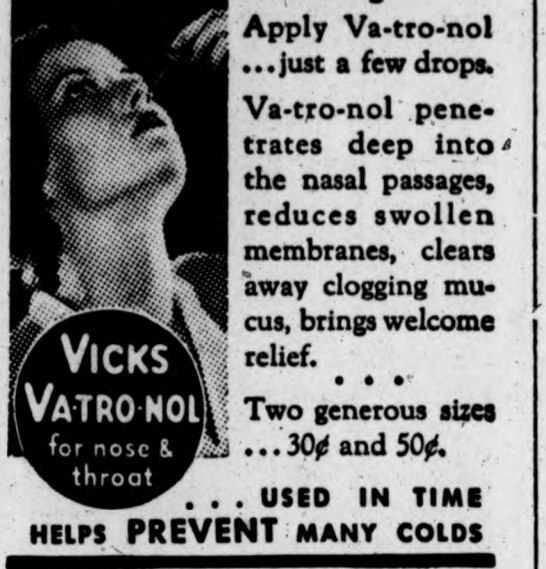

During the business session officers were elected as follows: Miss Maud Brabham, president; Mrs. Willie Holland, 1st vice-president; Miss June Milhous, 2nd vice-president; Miss Edith Mahaffey, secretary-treasurer. Group captains: Misses Carey Martin and Margaret McAllister. Mrs. J. A. Estes is teacher of this fine group of young women and much good is being done through this class.

During the social half hour the hostess served a delicious salad course, with iced tea.

"It Pays to Advertise."

Mrs. G. M. Greene, county service officer, says that she is more firmly convinced than ever that "it pays to advertise." Since the notice in last week's county papers about the bonus applications being filled out without the veteran having to have his discharge, pink slip, etc., veterans have been coming from all parts of the county stating that they had lost both discharge and pink slip and did not know what to do in order to obtain the bonus. Quite a few have never made application for the adjusted service certificates and all of this is being done by the service officer for the veterans and their dependents.

W. M. Kincaid.

Barnwell County friends of William Mortimer Kincaid, 49, a former resident, of Kline, will learn with regret of his sudden death, which occurred March 6th at a hospital in Columbia. Funeral services were conducted at his late residence in Maxton, N. C., Saturday afternoon, March 7th, by his pastor, the Rev. James Appleby.

Mr. Kincaid was the son of the late J. J. Kincaid. He is survived by his wife, who was before marriage, Miss Lottie Sanders, of Kline; two small sons, Joe Mott and Billy; his mother, Mrs. J. J. Kincaid, and one sister, Miss Bessie Kincaid.

Mrs. F. T. Sanders and Mrs. H. C. Creech, of Kline, and Miss Bonita Browning, of Barnwell, attended the funeral.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, J. S. Hair, who departed this life one year ago, March 5, 1935:

Dear husband from us you have gone; But memories linger still; And to oppress the thoughts to all. Those memories always will. The ones we love; we must give them up;

For those we cannot keep, We have to sip at that bitter cup; When we placed you at Jesus feet. You suffered much; you murmured not,

We watched you day by day, And then at last, with breaking hearts, We saw you pass away

For the Lord who gave, had called you, And to his Will we all must bow. You are free from pain and suffering.

Not a care can reach you now. The hands that did so much for us, Lie folded on thy breast,

For the Lord said "Come, I'll take you home." For Heaven is the place for rest. The midnight stars are gleaming Upon a silent grave,

Where sleeps without dreaming, The one we could not save. Now we feel that you are with Him, And with Him you will stay.

We hope to meet you, dear husband, On Judgment Day. Wife and Children.
