

Selected Poetry.

WATCH! MOTHER.

We do not know when we have met with a more touching and beautiful poetical morsel than the following. It breathes a sentiment of holy inspiration which touches every chord of the heart. Read it:

Mother, watch the little feet, Climbing o'er the garden wall, Bounding through the busy street, Ranging cellar, shed and hall. Never count the moments lost, Never count the time it costs, Guide them mother, while you may.

Mother, watch the little hands, Picking berries by the way, Making houses in the sand, Tossing up the fragrant hay. Never dare the question ask-- "Why to me the weary task?" The same little hands may prove Messengers of Light and Love.

Mother, watch the little tongues, Prattling, eloquent and wild; What is said and what is sung By the joyous, happy child, Catch the word while yet unspoken, Stop the vow before it's broken; This same tongue may yet proclaim Blessings in a Saviour's name.

Mother, watch the little heart, Beating soft and warm for you; Wholesome letters now impart; Keep, O! keep that young heart true. Extirpating every weed, Sowing good and precious seed, Harvest rich you then may see Ripen for eternity.

ANSON INSTITUTE.

THIS Institution has been in operation about two years and a half. It is pleasantly situated on an eminence about one-half of a mile Southwest of the town of Wadesboro', commanding an extensive view of the surrounding country. There is a dwelling house connected with the institute and occupied by Rev. Elijah J. Morrison, one of the Teachers, who is prepared to take eight or ten boarders, to whose comfort, instruction and moral training every necessary attention will be bestowed.

The institution is now under charge of Prof. Silas C. Lindsey and Rev. E. J. Morrison, gentlemen who have considerable experience in teaching. Mr. Morrison, who has charge of the English department, is a graduate of our University, and has taught a classical school for many years. Mr. Lindsey, who has charge of the Latin and Greek department, is a graduate of Princeton; was, for several years, Professor of Languages in the Caldwell Institute, while situated in Greensboro', in this State, and has devoted over twenty-five years of his life to the instruction and training of youth.

Both of these gentlemen are eminently qualified, in every respect to fill their respective positions, and to discharge the responsible trusts confided to them.

It is the only high Male School in the county; it has been built by the liberality and public spirit of the citizens of Anson county. Why then should it not be patronized? Young men of this and the adjoining counties may here obtain a first rate English education, or may be prepared for admission into the Freshman or Sophomore classes of our University or any other institution.

The Fall Session of this Institution will commence on Monday, the 14th instant, and continue five months.
