"IDEA IS A SHADOW THAT DEPARTETH, SPEECH IS FLEETING AS THE WIND-READING IS AN UNREMEMBERED PASTIME; BUT A WRITING IS ETERNAL."-TUPPER.

VOL. 1.

CHERAW, S. C., NOVEMBER 15, 1856.

NO. 22

. L. T. PRINCE. PRINCE & MALLOY. TERRSI

THE PER DES HERALD is published every TUESDAY, at $2 por year, structly in abrance. ADVERTISEMENTS

OC 60.00 1 at our dollar for a slock insertion; one square continue seventy five cents for the first, and fifty conts for each subsequent Insertion. Renowal or change twenty cents Advertisements inserted monthly or guarterly, one dellar nor aquare ; semi month by, saventy five cents per square. The following deductions will be made to favor of standing

One square, for three months,
do for six months,
do for one year.
Two squares, for three months,
do for six do
do for one year.
Three squares for three mont s,
do for six do
do for one year.
Four squares, for three months,
do for six do	1
do for met yest.
Five squares, for oue year.
Beef stand and bedress Carls & 00 nin as

All advertisements for less than rather NONTRS CASH. there MUST be PAID FOR MONTHLY. If THE SUMMER of Insertions is not specified, in writing, dwertisements will be costinuted till ordered out, and CHARGED ACCORDENDED. 2.48 TEAN & POURTS

MISCELLANEODS

THE VILLAGE PRIZE.

In one of the loveliest villages of old an old man whose daughter was declared by universal consent to be the loveliest the maiden, he left the ground. maiden is all the country round. The muscular above his fellows; and his breast, his coat. where he aiways wore them, could show the adorament of three medals, received inchesfor his victories in gymnastic feats when a young man. His daughter was now the spectators, 'you have tried hard for and Annette. eighteen, and had been sought in marriage | the acres and homestead." by many suitors. One brought wealthanother that. But they were all refused by the old man, who become at last a by word of the village and neighborhood.

At length the nineteenth birth day of Annette, his charming daughter, who was as amible and medest as she was beautiful, arrived. The morning of that day her father invited all the youth of the Aunotte, by her farther's command, had Many refused to enter the lists altogether.

over his fellow athletor.

The arena allotted for this hymenial general murmur, plied its place.

The father of the lovely, blushing, and, withal, happy prize, (for she well knew Annette, with interest, his youthful arder rode forward to meet and escort to his house and one inch.

young men stepped into the arena.

Virginia there lived in the year 175-, tual student But what had intellect to with a troubled brow and an angry eye, barrasament at length became evident to Ite building.

Dick Boulden, nineteen feet.' Dick Harry Preston, nincteen feet and three

Well done, flarry Presston,' should

Harry also laughed, and swore he only another a fine person-another this and jumped for the fun of the thing. Henry peated with surprise by the spectators, ry of the past scemed to be revived as he was a "attle brained fellow, but never | who crowded around the victor, filling the gazed, while the lady rove impulsively from thought of matrimony. He loved to walk air with congratulations, not unmingled, her chair, and bending eagerly forward for his obstinacy among the young mea and talk, and laugh and roomp with An- however, with loud murmars from those over the tea urn with clasped hands and his head. He only jumped for the fun of happiness of the lovers.

the thing. He would not have said so if The old man approached, and grasping he was sure of winning.

Hurrah for Charley! Charley'll win!' cried was a prince. Physical activity and strengh country to a hay making and frolie. Sev. the crowd, good humored. Charley Simms were the old leaper's true patents of noenteen handsome and industrious young was the elecerest fellow in the world. His bility. men assembled. They came not only to mother advised him to stay at home, and Resuming his cost, the victor sought make hay, but also to make love to the told him if he ever won as ife, she would with his eye the fair prize he had, elfair Annette. In three hours they had fall in love with his temper, father than though nameless and auknown, so fairly filled the father's barns with newly dried his legs. Charley, sowever, made the won. She leaned upon her father's arm, to the imagination of the reader. grass, and their own hearts with love = triat of the latter's capabilities and lost. pale and distressed.

Othins u Now,' cried the villagers, det's see "Now, my boys, said the old keeper of Henry Carroll. He ought to beat this ; and

J. R. MALLOY [ such athletic achievements were the size | remarking the manner in which the oye and noble hearted himself in presented himself in have a back tooth qua non of man's eleverness, this was no of the stranger seamed the areas. (If overflowing bampers of rustic beverage. drawn.

contest, was a level space in front of the . Is it for intere amusement you are pur-ous exercises of a similar kind, and a hard of our village maidene, b. t. be the res Gen. Washington and suite, informing him tried the turnscrew, exerting his utmost a prown horse, and I wants you to show surface of sand, more belitting for the ward of the victor,' cried one of the jud- that he should crave his hospitality for the strength, but the tooth would'nt stir. me how you knows how olt he is ?'

"Are the lists open to all?"

who would win,) with three other patri. rising as he surveyed the proportions of the distinguished guest, whom he had to decide upon the claims of several com- is the bride of him who outleaps Henry same widely extended army. petitors. The last time Carroll tried his Carroll. If you will try you are free to That evening, at the table, Anoette, skill in this exercise, he cleared - to use do so. But let me tell you, Harry Carroll now become the dignified matronly and daughter, sir, look at her and make your her oyes from the face of her illustrious lever, pully, wheel and axle inclined door, dismounted, and requested Jake to The signal was given, and by lot the trial. The officer granced upon the visitor. Every moment or two she would trembling maiden about to be offered on steal a glauce at his commanding features, -Edward Grayson, seventeen fect,' cried the altar of her father's unconquerable and half doubtfully, balf-assuredly, shake out one of the judges. The youth had monomania, with an admiring eye. The her head and look again to be still more doue his utmost. He was a pale, intellec- poor girl looked at Herry, who stood near, puzzled, Her absence of mind and emco in such an arena ? Without a look at and then cast upon the new competitor an [ her husband, who inquired affectionately if imploring glance.

Placing his coat in the hands of one of veteran in his youth had been athletic and with a laugh turned away, and replaced the judges, he drew a sash he wore be- who had been some time, with a quiet, south it tighter round his waist, and tak, meaning smile, and observing the lady's ing the appointed stand, made apparently ourious and puzzled survey of his features without an effort, the bound that was to decide the happiness or misery of identy zes in me an old acquaintance.' And he

Twenty two fest and an inch P should the judges. The announcement was re-

his hand exultingly, called him his son, "Charley Simms, fifteen feet and a half,' and said he felt prouder of him than if he

Her lover stood aloof, gloomy and mor-

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS ordinary honor. In a contest like the you can beat Henry Carroll, you'll beat In process of time, there were born unto present, he had therefore every advantage the bast man in the colonies.' The trath the married rair sons and daughters, and chair of torture and opening his month, A German named Sweely-I think that

One evening, having just returned bome he afterwards expressed it, as a small Goot morigin, Kernel, how ish your village inn, and near the centre of a gross suing this passtime?' finquired the vouth after a hard campaign, he was sitting with Polyglot Bible. "I shall have trouble powers to-day ?" plat, reserved in the midst of the village, ful stranger, for in there a prize for the his family on the gallery of his handsome with this tooth thought Tushmaker, country house, when an advance courier but he clapped on his heaviest forceps you ?" was quite wron off at this place by previ. Annette, the lovellest and wealthiest rode up and appounded the approach of and pulled. It did'nt come. Then he 'Vells, I delis you; I ish goin' to pay night. The necessary directions were giv. en in reference to the household prepara- to Byles, and return in a week and I by his teath." All, young sir; replied the father of tion, and Col. Carroll, ordering his horse, will draw that tooth out, or know the archal villagers were the judges apponted the straight limbed young stranger. She never yet seen, sithough serving in the chief to his jaw, and departed.

No advertisements, forriga small, will be considered the lonper's phrascology-twenty one feet has no equal in Virginia. Here, is my still handsome Mrs. Carroll, could not keep she were sick ?

I suspect, Cutobel,' said the General, - that Mrs. Carroll thinks she recognismiled with a mysterious sir, as he gazed upon both alternately.

The Colonel started, and a faint memonette, but sober marriage never came into who were more nearly interested in the an eye of intense, cager inquiry fixed full upon him, stood for a moment with her lips parted as if she would speak. · Pardon me, my dear - madam - pardon me, Colonel-I must put an end to this scene. I have become by dint of camp fare and hard usage, too unwieldly to leap again twenty-two feet and one inch, even for so fair a bride as I wot of.'

The recognition, with the surprise, delight and bappiness that followed are left

Gon. Washington was indeed the handsome young · leaper,' a hose mysterions ap-of the observation was assouled to by a Henry Carroll had become Col. Henry discovered there an enormous tooth in was the dame-came to the Colonel one

rali

Go away from here, said Tushmaker reason why.

Byles got up, clapped his handkor-

was clapped into the ron chair, the forceps connected with the machine firmly attached to the tooth, and Tush- | the horse-dealer. maker stationing himself in the rear, took hold of a lever four feet long. He turned it slightly-old Byles gave a groan, and lifted up his right leg. "What do you raise your leg for?" you?" asked the doctor.

"I can't help it," said the patient. " Well," said Tushmaker, " the tooth is bound to come now "

a sudden jerk, and snapped old Byle's | can't aheat me !' head clean and clear from his should. ers, leaving a space of four inches between the several parts L

They had a post mortem examination -the roots of the toeth were found ex. thinks that nothing but Col. Allan saved tending down the right side through bim from a plann awindle. the right leg, and turned up in two prongs directly in the sole of the right. foot. "No wouder," said Tush, "that he raised his leg." The jury thought so, too, but they found the roots much that mortification would have ensued in a few months, Tushmaker was clear ed on a verdict of "justifiable homicide."

THE AGE OF A HOESEI. Col. Janrea S. Allen tolls the following the right hand side about as large, as merning with his enstomary salute-

· All right, Jake ; what can I do for

. Oh that's easy, Jake ; you can tell that

" Vat you say-by his tacth ?"

. Yes just look at his teeth, and that will tell you *

Old Jake went home perfectly satisfied The dentist went to work, and in that he had gained the information, and three days he invented an instrument the same afternoon a man came to his which he was confident would pull any- house with a fine colt that Jake had been thing. It was a combination of the trying to purchase. He rode up to Jado's plane, wedge and screw. The castings examine the animal. The old fellow acwere made and the machine put up in | cordingly put on his speed, went up to the the office over an iron chair, rendered horse, patted hiss, and finally pulled open perfectly stationary by Iron rods going his mouth. There was a sund heard as down into the foundations of the gran- of counting until ter en und (remit, (32,) was reached, when the old fellow let go In a week old Byles returned. He the animal's head, and, without saying a word, walked away.

"What's the matter, my friend,' asked

" Go way mit you, you ish the piggest liar in Chersey Shore,' was all Jako condescended to say.

"What the devil do you mean, you old Another turn-another groan, and Dutch fool ?' asked the horac-dealer, now higher went old Byles right leg again. thoroughly angry. "What in thunder alls

" Mean ; what I mean? Why you told me dat der horse was shoesa six years ols last krass, and I coupts his teeth and some dat he is shoost thirty-two years olt! You He turned the lever clear round with go way mit your darned olt horse. You

> The dealer said no more; he jumped apon his animal and rode away like a strenk of lightning. Old Jaks swears there iso's a young horse in Lycoming county, and

N. F. Cor. of Phila Mar

TITLES OF FIRMS .-- Une of the best the tics for a mercantile fitm that we have ever soen is "Call & Seitle," which is painted in golden letters on be algo minded every time they pass of their outstanding schunds, " Neal & Pray" in the name of another firm. But the following, beats all, "Two attorneys," says an old nowspaper, "in partnership in a town in the United States, had the name of the firm, which was " Calchum & Chefum? inseribed in the usual manner, upon their office door ; but ar "a singularity and ome nous jagesposition of the words led to many a charac joke, from passers by, the wen of law sitempted to destroy, is parts the effect of the old massession, by the fact sertide of the iNitials of their Christian names, which happened to be Isaiak and Uriah; bat this made the affair ten three worse, for the inscription ran ; "I. CATCHUM & U. CHERREN" On the fallare of two bankers in a and, mained Gonne and Going, some one ing, which she presented to each enamoted leapers had yet cleared twenty feet. swain with her own-fair hands.

the jewel they all coveted, leaning every our appeared, as they called to mind the door in the cool of the evening. Now the sweet Amette, as if they heartily my fads, you have nearly all of you made wished his success. proposals for my Annette, Now.you see, 1 Henty stepped to his post with a firm book larnin' or soldier larnin' -- I can do as aroued upon the villagers, and rested, be -but i want her to marry a man of my Atmetie, as if to catch therefrom that own grit. Now, you know, or ought to spirit and a surance which the occasion know, when I was a youngster I could beat which for. Peturning the encouraging anything in all Virginny in the way o'leap. glance with which she met his own, with ing. I got my old woman by beating the a proud smile upon his lip, he bounded smartest was on the eastern shore, and 1 forward. have took the oath and swona to it, that no man shall marry my daughter without jamping for it. You understand me ! oys, there's the green, and here's Annette,' he added, taking his daughter who stood Anneite and Harry.' Hands, caps and timidly behind him, by the hand. Now, the one that jumps the furthest on a 'dead spectators, and the eyes of the delighted level' shall marry Annette this very night."

This unique address was received by icted between him and the fair Annette, wen, don toare anything about money or talours, toan. His eye glanced with confidence, while the drouping eye sought the form of well by say get as any man-in the country | tore he bounded forward, upon the free of stronger's language.

the multitude, repeating the announcement of one of the judges, twenty due feet and a half. Harry Carroll forever .-handkershiefs waved over the beads of the jewel. Young sir' he continued, turning gratifying the latter propensity, he Annothe sparkled with joy.

When Henry Carroll moved to his sta. the young men with applause. And many tion to strive for the prize, a tall, gentle- well strive for a fairer-but from love a youth, as he bounded forward to the ar. manly young it on, in a military andress to the manly spot in which I saw you on enu of trial, cast a glance of anticipated frock coat, who had tode up the inn, dis- gaged. You are the victor and as such, victory back upon the object of village mounted and joined the spectators, upper- with the permission of this worthy assem chivalry. The maidens left their looms ceived while the contest was going ou, bly, you receive from my hand, the prize the method of placing small cog wheels. and quilting frames, the shildren, their stepped suddenly forward, and with a that you have so well and honorably won. in the back touth, for the more perfect a tageously used for boning surkayanoisy sports, the slaves their jabors, knowing eye measured deliberately the The youth sprang forward and grasped mastication of food; and he claimed to and the old men their arm chairs and space accompliabed by the last leaper .- his band with gratitude, and the ext mo. be the original discoverer of the meshoe long pipes, to witness the triumph in the Us was a stranger in the village. His mest Annetto was weeping from pure joy, of filling devices with a kind of pure success of the victor. All prophesied and handsome face and easy address attracted upon his shoulders. The welklo rang with which, becoming hard directly, a many which that it would be the young the ope of the village nucleon, and his the social and on the destination of the strong would be the young the ope of the village nucleon, and his the social and the temporary arctionest pro-humored youth in the country, and all motor and strong the work happily united, and suid the temporary arctionest mildron durately, that it has to be pulled, thereby giving the durated by this are the articles, mildron durately, that it has to be pulled, thereby giving the durated by this are the articles, mildron durates are been and attachment ex-tified, admiring the superiority of the him for his success. .

woo you fairly.' Annett's check becaute paler than marble ; she trembled like an agen leaf, and clung closer to her father. her lover. His brow grew dark at the

· I have won you my preity flower, to make you a bride 1-tremble not so viuleatly __ 1 nican not myself, however pround I might be,' he midded, with gallantary, 'to wear so fair a genu next to my heart. Perhaps,' and he east his over . Twenty one feet and a haif!' shouted inquiringly, while the current of life leaped joyfully to her brow, and a muraner of surprise ran through the growd, perhaps possessed, naturally, a strong mechanic occurrence, never had a prin in her there is some favored youth among the competitors who has a higher claim to this finding his teeth a great service in glass case-> to the surprised Henry, wethinks you were victor in the list before me .-- I strove pearance in the batiye village of the loystanger in an exercise in which he prid. ers, is traditionary-and whose claim to a ed bimself as unrivelled, while he hated substantial body of bone fide fiesh and blood, was stoutly contested by the village "Annette, my pretty prize,' snid the story-tellers, daril the happy denoument on their pach forks they assembled round the neutral love of the last competitor and victor, taking her passive hand, I have which took place at the hospitable mansion of Col Carroll.

> A VERY TOUGH STORY. The following story is 'told by the renowned wag, John Phoenix, of the California Pioneer. The reader's will see that it records the verdict of a drew the old lady's skeletan completely coroner's inquest," and in other par- and entirely from her body, leaving her ticulars bears a strong resemblance to some of the tough stories which politicians have circulated against their political opponents in Eastorn States: Mr. Tushmaker was never regularly, bred as a physician or surgeon, but he biy with the rheematism, but after this ical genius, and a tine apperite; and bones. The deptist kept them in a concluded that he could do more teeth of the inhabitants in good order than any other way, so he became a ing twenty five tens. dentist

He was the man who first invented isted between him and the filly Annette. Cerroll bed won the reputation: of heing "the best leaper," and in a country where on a beat that," said one of the bystandard, "garried, and fan heith of she wysterdard, "garried, and fan heith of she wysterdard," when a stout of 1 fellow maned Eples, spre-

He was a little shy of that instrument afterward; but one day, an old lady, very feeble and fiscoid, came in to have a touth polled, and thinking it would come out very easy. Tushmaker oncluded, just by way of variety, to try the machine.

He did eo, and at the very first tarr a mass of quivering jelly in the chair. Tusimaker took her homsin a pillow case. She lived several years after that, and they called her the India Rubber Woman.' She had suffered terri-

After this the machine was sold the contractor of the Boston Custom good in the world, and create more House, and it was found that a child, not for the maiden, though one could not real happiness therein, by putting the three years of age could, by a single the other how far hand got ? . To which tarm of the screw, raise a stone weigh:

Smaller once were mule on the asme principle, and sold to keepers of hotel and restaurants. They were advan There is no moral at all to this story, and it is possible that the circumstances may have become slightly exaggerated Of course there can be no doubt of the truth of the main incidents.

Goon Any ice -- Don's get in a Buserer nd are on a bustor, not allow yourself to "Going and Grane are ..... both one For Gonnais Going and Going is Genne.

wrote :

School-nor QUESTION. --- Thies Book to manuscule "I'm at a state of sin sad masry." He then asked another langth he was? To which he replied, "I'm just at effectual calling." They were both matious, of course, to learn how far he was himself, and having resolt frim, be anawered, " Past radespales,"

If you mant to feel about fight, gut Into a pand of streeberries, and cream, and an in a great manifestor a scola boood miner be a great installation administration and feinased are the source pitte who have up beaus to playno them. for they shall ant pie herri a wales Bunday Manta