OF Valuable Land.

W E will sell at private sale on liberal terms, that valuable tract of land whereon the late James G. Kelly resided, con-taining about 400 acres, situated on Thom-son's creek in Chesterfield District, and about seven miles west offCheraw.

seven miles west of Cheraw. There are about 200 acres of this hand open for cultivation, some of which is very fine swamp land, upon which 50 bushels of corn to the acre has been produced without the use of manures. Of the balance of the tract there are some of the best uplands in the District, and some beautiful and eligible locations for build ing in a healthy sand bill region among excellent springs of water. There are on the place a dwelling house and the necessary outbuild-ings, and the fencing is in good repair. For the cultivation of cotton, corn, wheat, &c., the place is well adapted, and is capable of great improvement from the facilities for making d applying the best kind of manure.

Persons wishing to purchase can examine the plantation and the undersigned will take pleasure in showing it. If not sold by the 2nd February it will be offered at public sale at
